

gress opened at Washington yesterday. The roll call of the House showed 283 members present. Only two-O'Reilly and James, of New York, were absent. Hon. Samuel J. Randall, of Pennsylvania, was ballot. The vote stood as follows :

Wright, Greenbacker, Kelly, R. & G.

sent by the New Lork Tribune to the southern states to spy out the land and who has a face quite brazen enough and a nose sufficiently lengitudinal to perform such service to the satisfaction of even his present employer, writes that "there is

Mr. Smalley imagines that this is the "southren republicans" are for Grant. It was not necessary for Mr. Smalley to make a two months tour in Toxas, Arkansas and Louinorth might be informed of this fact The "southern republicans," that is the few white men in the south who are republicane, are either the adventurers of the palmy days of their party in the when the bayonet and the bastile kept the white population in subjection or the corrupt and desperate spirits among those native and to the manner born who like Wells and Anderson engage in politics only for the sake of speculation and lunder. Such men are naturally and as a matter of course for Grant. Under his administration of the ic crib, and rioted in robbery of the treasuries of the despised and hated souch. Protected by his authority as the chief magistrate of the republic they gorged themselves with the their political slaves for a whole decade. Sustained by his favor as commander-in-chief of the army they enjoyed an unrestricted license to wreak their mean and cowardly