It is probably remembered that some years ago-in 1875-Congress passed a law providing for the erecttion of durable headstones over the graves of soldiers of the regular and volunteer forces of the United States whose remains are interred in the National Military Cemeteries. This law has been carried out, and the graves of the Nation's dead in these cemeteries are now permanently marked. At the instance of the War Department, Congress has recently authorized the erection of similar he dstones over the graves of the Union soldiers who are buried in private and village cemeteries. This will be done as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. In the meantime the Quar-termaster General, at Washington, will at once proceed to collect the ecessary information as to where these headstones are required.

All persons having any knowledge of the brial places of soldiers in private cemeteries whose graves are not marked, are requested to comnaunicate the fact to the Quartermaster General, and give, regiment, company, and date of death of de-ceased, if known. Similar information is desired from parties in charge of such cemeteries.

Of course it is not intended to furnish headstones for graves over copper: which monuments have already been erected by relatives or friends of the deceased.

TRACEDY IN DAUPHIN COUNTY.

She replied "You are your was master." Gayman then walk-Gayman then walka fit of passion or jealousy, he stepped in front of "Dessie," looking her fell in the face, and drawing a five hambered revolver from his pocket fired at the helpless girl, the ball striking her left breast. As quick as Miss Bickel could collect her senses, she ran to Dr. Umberger's Office and gave the slarm. The doctor and Mr. W. P. Gilmor, a cigar manufacturer residing near by, were soon on the scene. They found Dessie hi the agonies of leath, lying in the middle of the sidewalk, and Gayman also insensible and dying at her feet. The town was soon aroused, and Gayman was conveyed to his hotel and Miss Douglass to her mother's residence. The revolver was lying in the middle of the pavement, and was identified as having belonged to Gayman. The wife and children of Gayman and the widowed mother of Miss Douglass, as might be supposed were almost frantic with grief; and the whole population of Dauphin expressed heartfelt sorrow at the awful death of a beautiful and inoffensive girl and the rash act committed by the erring and halfcrazed hotel keeper.

THE CONTEST.

The Curtin Yocum centest brought quite a number of people to town, last week. The testimony was taken in the office of J. H. Reifsnder, Esq. Judge Frank, from Rebersburg, sat as Commissioner, James A. McClain, of Milesburg, as Amanuensis, and J. Reese VanOrmer as Clerk.

W. C. Heinle, Esq., of Bellefonte appeared as council for ExGov. Curtin, and S. H. Orwig, of Mifflinburg, and Clement Dale, of Bellefonte, for Yocum.

The cross-examinations and ob-jections made by Yocum's counsel were tedious-sometimes ridiculous. In some instances they kept men cu the stand for three hours, who had as clear and legal a right to vote as any others in the county. This was done simply to delay the examination of other witnesses, and out an expensive delay upon Ex-Gov. Curtin. But the determination of the other side to have every witness properly examined, soon produced its good effect and made Curtin's friends masters of the field. Sixty-two witnesses were examin-d. They were from Gregg, Haines, Miles, and Penn townships. Not one witness left unexamined and net a vote was lost for Ex-Gov. Curtin. Everybody on our side was found as straight as a line. Every witness on the stand who voted for Curtin proved himself a legally quali-fied elector. In the Demogratic stronghold of Centre county fraud has no place. It is neither natural nor congenial to the honest yeomanry of Penns and Brush Vallies. Gen. Hancock's friends are bring-ing him to the front as a candidate things."

It is a real pleasure when one enters a store, to find a good and full assortment of goods, low prices and clever, obliging salesmen. Such an excellent combination can be found though every day of the year (Sundays excepted) at EVERETT'S POPULAR BEE HIVE STORE, LOCK HAVen, Pa. One could not find a better place to buy in a year's travel. Candid fact.

What everybody says must be true, and everybody does say that the portraits taken by J. Now if you have the slightest disposition to doubt our word (printers should never be doubted) just go and try "Wes" when you go to Lewisburg, and you will afterwards come and thank us for having advised you so. See if you don't.

Sammy Faust called in to see us the other day and to pay his sub-scription. We even doubt whether they have much better fellows in jail. He makes a large number of buggies, phaetons, &c., and always finds ready sale for them, because he has an established reputation for making first class work.
