OUR REPRESENTATIVES.

Messrs. Gephart and Murray, our members of the lower house of the state Legislature, have by their upright and consistent course fully justified the confidence which the people have placed in them. They seem to understand thoroughly the sentiments and wishes of their constituents, and their course and votes prove beyond cavil that they are willing to act in harmony with those sentiments. On every question that has thus far come up in the House they uniformly voted in the interest not only of their own constituency, but of the people at large. On the Riot Bill, otherwise called the $400,000 steal, by the provisions of which the people of the state are by the Pittsburg rioters in July reduce the salary of the members | ergall. from $1000 to 700 per session, they both voted for the reduction. And so on every question of major importance they have studiously guarded the best interests of the people.

We congratulate the Democracy of Centre county upon having two men in the Legislature who have boththe will and the ability to represent them in a manner so acceptable and positive.

April is rather an unwelcome ple for money, money, MONEY. has money on the brain. His whole conversation is about money, payments, principal, interest, discount, checks, notes, drafts and similar heathenish matters. He has nothing to say for literature, art, poetry, history or science generally; and about religion he knows about as much as a Feejee Islander. All these are entirely too idealistic for him. He believes in cash, and even that must be in a tangible, available

A fool himself he is always bent on fooling others. "April fool," is an epithet we heard when a boy and merly. Long faces on the "first of April" are plentier than ever.

For brazen impudence April stands unrivaled. He hasn't the slightest regard for others' wants and perplexities, only so his capa-cious maw is well filled all the time. Like a Shylock he demands the 'pound of flesh nearest the heart."

"add insult to injury." Just see rain, snow, sleet, fog and ether, as puts every body out of sorts, interfering with gardening, plowing, work and travel, business and pleasure. Why there are even preachers that are real down mad about such disgraceful weather as we have had during April.

of the year, and are unanimously willing to vote him an unmitigated nuisance. Let us punch him out of the Almanac, darken his daylights, ignore him altogether, wipe him from the face of the earth—the Concerning the contested election case of Curtin ss. Yocum, we clip the following from the Patriot of the 16th inst.:

The house committee on elections will take up the case of Curtin vs. Young as soon as the testimony is printed which will be probably within a week. Gov. Curtin's friends claim that he has a perfectly clear case and will be admitted. Among the testimoney in Curtin's favor is the fact that in three election districts (the votes proved by the evidence of the voters themselves), a difference of 170 odd votes is shown against Young as compared with the return.

The $4,000,000, steal is dead. Peace to its ashes. Even a Republican majority saw that it wasn't quite the square thing to ask the citizens of the state to pay the damages done by a Pittsburg communistic mob, when the authorities of the smoky city could easily have suppressed the mob in its incipiency, had they the mob in its incipiency, had they but been willing to do their duty. All honor to the men who defeated this unjust measure. Hon. J. S. Welf, the member from Union, has especially endeared himself to the people for the able and persistent manner in which he has defended their rights and interests.

NEW BERLIN, that staid and steady old town on the banks of Penns Creek, is just now thoroughly shaken up by a ghost story. The ghost seems to have a partiality for Mrs. Gephart's nouse opposite the Evangelical church. He behaves very badly at times, and it is a wonder that people are willing to put up with such cuttings up, even by a ghost. The other Tuesday night, between the hours of 10 and 12 he "pset a bureau, threw books or the of the Bush is that pleasant, social, floor, rolled up the carpet, made the blinds rattle and hurled a stone through the air outside the house, and all this without showing himself to any one. The same thing was repeated on Thursday night. All this is vouched for by sundry persons who were present, and yet we cannot but confess to some doubts in the matter after all.

AARONSBURG has just as nice ladies, who are just as fond of nice hats, bonnets and the dozen and twelve other what nots that go into the weeken we for leafly feel and behold sights, that would utthe make up of a lady's full regalia— terly beggar their powers of despshaw we almost forgot what we scription. It always reminds me of started out to say. Memory just Bunyan's description of "Vanity ever since. Even more people are being fooled by April now than for-would congratulate the old burg Bunyan's description of "Va Fair," in "Pilgrim's Progress." The price of oil still remains upon its new Millinery Store, just opened and just in the niche of time too, by Miss Victoria H. Stambach. That's all.

Ho! all ye people great and small. Go to Newman's Clothing Hall, where you will be supplied with everything in the clothing line you Not content with doing real harm can possible think of, and at prices to many, he is just mean enough to that amaze you by their very cheapness. It does a fellow good just to Auditor's Annual Statement how he acts in the weather line, ugh! Neither summer nor winter; Hall, even if you think you are too neither hot nor cold; neither rain poor to buy, but everybody is able nor snow. Just such an abonina- to buy of Newman, because his

Our borough daddies had a meeting on Saturday and did some posicus big dose of "ordinance" for a beginning, and it will be a wonder if the borough don't got a wonder if the borough don't get a leetle sick Upon the whole we feel thorough-ly disgusted with the fourth month guage of the great Patrick Henry-"Let it come. We repeat it sir, let it come."

Just now all Millheim-Millheim Borough we mean-is busily engagnasty, rude old buffer—he deserves ed in studying law. Everywhere, it all. all around and all over people sit to gether in knots, "Ordinance" in hand, trying to find out what all they are required to do and to let undone. That's right. Let us understand our status and then "gov-vern ourselves accordingly." The ordinances themselves are good-some of them quite so. We will publish and direct attention to most of them from time to time. Our council have done well. They have taken high ground, and now, let every good citizen support them.

Mr. Cornelius is certainly a first class artist and a high toned gentleman besides. Whenever any of our readers get to Lewisburg they would do well to get shadows of themselves from Mr. Cornelius. Do it.

THE BUSH HOUSE, under that experienced and popular hotelist, Geo-Hoppes, Esq., has achieved a reputa-tion second to no other hotel in the interior of the state. The entire management of the House is under the strictest system, and the perfect order with which everything is done is in such pleasing contract with the bustle, the hurry and flury so gener-clever man, Mr. W. P. Bigony, the efficient clerk of the establishment. If he can't make guests comfortable there is no use in anybody trying. The Bus h House was never in bet- 1879. ter hands.

The temperance movement in Lewisburg is still in full b'ast, and meetings are held every night. The churches are generally very much crowded and sometimes people cannot even get standing room. Maj. Scott is the principal lecturer as 600 was lately recovered from a mill movement. He must certainly have movement as a speaker, else he rare powers as a speaker, else he fourteen years. A guide that was with Jeff Davis when he was making his flight through Georgia deno signs of flagging yet. The several ministers with much unanimity. assist Mr. Scott in the good work. About 1500 people have already signed the pledge and many more are expected to do so. Many of the signers have tormerly been addicted to interperance. May they keep to interperance. OILDOM ITEMS.

A terrible tragedy was enacted at Funkstown, about eight miles from here last Monday morning. An in-sane man, George Winters by name, who resided there, murdered his wife. Your correspondent obtained a few days ago, from a reliable source, the following report : Mr. Winters rose very early in the mornimmediately began his cruel work. by beating his wife to death with his fists, after which he in some way manged to open her and tear out her entrails. He then went and waded in the saw-mill dam, near his house, for a while, as it is supposed he im-tended to drown himself, but find-ing the water too cold he abandoned that idea, and went and climbed to the very top of an oil derrick, where he sat for two hours, in a nude state. Just as he was descending from the derrick, one of his neighbors passed he left it and came home, and as The next regular meeting of the his wife said she was not afraid of

The price of oil still remains unchanged. Were it not for the room it would take up, I should give you an account of oil shipments for a month, to show how enormous is the oil business.
