Mr. Rutherford B. Hayes, the man who for several years past has been acting President of the United States has just vetoed the army apcessary. The difference between a fraudulent President and his partiposed to all such improper and unconstrutional measures. Anything that is calculated to influence or overawe the American voter in his free choice for the officers to whom he wishes to entrust the management of our public affairs, is not only very distasteful to every free American citizen, but extremely distasteful to all except the few stalwarts who would seek to perpetuate their political power at all and every hazard. The Democratic House and Senate attach a clause to the army appropriation bill repealing the law so obnoxious to the people, and for that reason His Fraudulency, Mr. Hayes vetoes the bill.

The issue is very clearly drawn. Bayonet elections or free elections. Let the Democrats in Crongress stand firm, the country will sustain them-all the vetoes of fraudulent Presidents to the contrary notwithstanding.

FROM WASHINGTON. The Army Bill Passes The Senate.

Special dispatch to THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, April 25.

The army appropriation bill, so far as the action of Congress is concerned, is at last out of the way, and the first agony is over. At 4 o'clock this afternoon the bill passed the Senate by a vote of 41 to 30. Every amendment offered by the Republicans, even for the purpose of making the bill grammatical, was Beck at the beginning of the debate. that no amendment would be accepted which would necessitate the sent to the Senate for the signiture ing were the officers of the convenice President the Senate | tion : remaining in session for that purpose, as all bills must be signed in the presence of the House and Senate signed the bill as President pro. tem. of the Senate. Thus the curious circumstance occurs of a leader of the Democrats signing a bill in the Senate, while the President of the Perry: Rev. Dr. Stewart, Language of the President of the Perry: Rev. Dr. Stewart, Language of the Perry: Senate, elected by the people, is a Republican, This is also the first Mrs. M. M'Clelland Brown, Alleinstance in a great many years, if gheny, not the only instance in the history Secre of the government, where an appropriation bill has passed the Senate without a single amendment. Washington, April 27.—Speculation continues to night, with regard to the probabilities of the action of the executive upon the army bill, which was laid before Mr. Hayes on Friday evening. The impression is wide spread that the bill will be returned to Mr. Hayes from the war department to-morrow with whatever suggestion the secretary of war may consider consistent with the public interest to make thereon and that it will be further referred to a special cabinet meeting to be held either to-morrow afternoon or regularly on Tuesday next. Inquiry to-night from various sources fails to open any official utterance as to the result of Mr. Hayes' consideration of the bill.

INTERESTING TO THE WIVES OF. BANKRUPTS.

A startling principle of the law has just been enunciated by the Supreme Court of Penasylvania, in the case of Lazear against Porter. It was a stated case to test the ques- 11th of July. But would it not be tion of the right of the wife of a as well for people to be ready even bankrupt to her dower interest in before that day? the real estate of her husband when the same has been sold by the assignee. It was held by the Court below that a sale of real estate by an assignee divested the dower instruction. terest of the wife, and this judgement is reversed by the higher Court. This decision of the Supreme Court is the most startling and far-reaching in its effects that that body has rendered for many a years. Since the bankrupt law has been in operation there have been millions of dollars worth of real estate disposed of inder it. It has all been sold under the supposition that the wives of the bankrupts had no clains on it. But according to this decision every living wife of a The other Sunday four of the bankrupt whose estate was thus Lock Haven Sunday Schools were sold can claim and recover her third ot the property from its present owner. In other words, the title of terian 230; Trinity M. E. 302; the property thus innocently bought by creditors or outside parties, is vitiated in their hands to the extent of one third. And the case may often be worse than that, for the case may often be worse than that, for without boots. Nobo the property in many cases, has depreciated greatly in the hands of the present owners, who nevertheless may be required to pay back the value of the third as it was at the time of the purchase.
