ANOTHER VETO

The other Tuesday Congress pass ed the bill to prohibit military interference in elections-not as a rider to any appropriation bill-but as a separate measure, by the decisive majority of 124 yeas, to 90 nays. What now? The Democratic party—yea the people—have demonstrated that they are in favor of free elections. Troops to keep the peace at the polls! The nation is sick and weary of that kind of peace, and longs for a peace that has its foundation in the hearts of the people.

The lines are drawn; the issue is made up so clearly that no one can mistake it. The Radicals desire to control electrons by temporate for control elections by bayonets—for that is the exact size of it—while the Democrats are opposed to all such unconstitutional, arbitrary and despotic measures. Let the matter go efore the people.

Not New.

The investigation that was raised in the Pennsylvania I egislature, at the instance of Hon. C. S. Wolf, to nonire into the ways and means used to secure the passage of the Riot Damage Bill, or, to speak more plainly, the $4,000,000 steal, is bringing to light some very ugly facts, alarch they are neither new nor startling. It is the old story of bribery and corruption—of money paid for votes, to secure the passage of a bill which on its merits could not stand for a single day.

The testimony taken by the committee shows that the price paid to individual members for their votes range from $400 to $1000, that many officers and members of the House were engaged in the work of seduction as go-betweens and procurers: that the present Secretary of the Commonwealth and an ex-State Treasurer were the chief managers on the part of the railroad; that in addition to the corrupt offers of cash, Republican members were assured that the success of the proposed steal was vital to the welfare of the Republic-an party; and that, when the run-ners found a man willing to be bought, they took him to Quay or Kemble, who, he was assured, would fix the amount and arrange for its

The Meeting Held in this City Yester-day—July 16 Fixed upon as the Time for Holding the Next Conven-

About fifty prominent Democrats met in the parlors of Bolton's hotel at 11 o'clock, A. M., yesterday, pursuant to the call of Hon. R. Milton Speer, chairman of the committee. Timothy O'Leary, jr., was appointed secretary of the meeting.

Considerable discussion was had as to the proper time and place for as to the proper time and place for holding the state convention to nom-inate a candidate for state treasurer, Harrisburg was selected as the place of meeting of the state convention, receiving 23 votes to 7 for Altoona and 13 for Reading. The friends of Daniel O. Barr, Esq., candidate for state treasurer, contended for an early date for the holding of the convention-July 16. The Anti-Barr people favored the 27th day of August and six more different dates ere suggested. The 16th of July was fixed upon by a vote of yeas 21, nays 20. Harrisburg was selected on second ballot—getting 23 votes out of 41.

The meeting then adjourned.

Congress is now saved the trouble aling the odious Jurors' test outh law, as the Supreme Court of the United States recently decided that law to be unconstitutional and void. It makes no difference now practically how much the Republicans oppose the repeal of the arbitrary law; as it is now inoperative, yet it should be repealed even if only for appearance sake.

The fruit trees are now in full bloom and it seems they never bloomed so procusely as they do now. The prospects for a large fruit crop are first class.
