The Democratic Convention.

The state democratic convention will meet at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the 16th day of July, 1879, at noon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for state treasurer, and transacting such other business as the interests of the party require.

By order of the state committee. R. M. SPEER, Chairman.

H. L. DIEFENBACH, Secretaries. P. C. HAMMER,

STOP THEM.

The short and simple way to repeal the federal election laws for promoting frauds on the ballot is to stop the appropriations for deputy marshals and supervisors. This will relieve the polls in Philadelphia of the presence of Slavin, Lamb, Redding, Brown the Twenty Timer, and their repeating associates, in an official capacity as the deputies of Marshal Kerns. If paid to swell the republican majority in Philadelphia by the repeating processes they will have to be paid from the party fund and not as now out of the public treasury. Commissioner Davenport will no longer have the means of employing swarms of deputies in New York to arrest thousands of naturalized for the crime of voting the democratic ticket. Stop the supplies from the treasury of the people and the infamous machinery for corrupting the elections will be seriously damaged if not utterly destroyed. Mr. Haves will be able to discover no pretext for vetoing the civil appropriation in the refusal of congress to make provision for the payment of the deputies of Kerns and Dayenport.-Patriot.

The Republicans'held their primary elections in Pittsburg, last Saturday, and matters came to a very serious fight in the 11th ward, between the whites and the negroes, A special to the New York Herald scribes the matter thus;

"There were about sixty men around the polls, half of whom were negroes. Some of the whites began moments a first class fight was in Lock Haven last week for the used and several pistals were fired. since 1854. Frederick Lincoln was badly cut and his head was mashed in. He will die. A negro, named Jones, was also seriously hurt. Four or five of the leaders are now in jail." If there is much of this nonseuse allowed it may put the "brudderly ably also. lub" ob de culled brudders to the utmost test. But why were not U.S. Marshals and Federal bayonets at so much changed in appearance that hand to preserve the peace.

"The New West Illustrated."

One of the latest claiments for favor in the literary line is a large and beautifully printed journal of the above title. It is a valuable compendium for Far West resources and attractions, published quarterly, and hailing from Omaha, Nebraska sion.

Robt. E. Strahorn, the well-known author and correspondent, is at the helm. Its field is the wide, the boundless West, and judging from the number before us, it will do much toward accupying it.
