Whenever things begin to get dull the Tilden income tax case is pretty sure to start up.

The Republicans of Ohio held their state convention on the 28th ult., at Cincinnati, and nominated Hon. Charles Foster.

Now why don't the Radical papers once in a while give us the least bit of news about Gen. Grant?

DECORATION DAY.

At MILLHEIM. Decoration Day was this year again very appropriately celebrated in Millheim.

At 2 o'clock a procession was formed at the Town Hall in the following order: Speakers in carriage; Millheim Cornet Band; Squad of soldiers, Co. "B," 5th Regt., N. G.; two Sunday Schools of Millheim; Old Fellows; citizens.

The column was long and dense, down Main to the bridge, thence to the cemetery, where the decoration of the graves was proceeded with.

At AARONSBURG. Denninger & Musser have just received another carload of marble, and are turning out some of the finest work in the interior of the state.

The Union County Agricultural Fair will be held Oct. 1, 2, 3 & 4, and we hope it will be another such grand success as that of last year.

The following are the officers of the Society, and it strikes us they are gentlemen who are fully able to manage the affairs of the Society successfully.

The following are the officers of the Centre County Agricultural Society for the ensuing year: President—S. S. Lyon, Bellefonte.

At Island Pond, Vermont, a number of school children drank from a little brook of water into which potato tops had been thrown.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered by the members of Millheim Lodge, No. 955, I. O. O. F., to Rev. S. G. Shannon and Rev. W. R. Whitney for the able addresses delivered on the cemetery on decoration day.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the MILLHEIM JOURNAL.

The temperance wave has struck New Berlin. Will it ever strike Millheim?

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. 47-ly

Rev. W. C. McCool, pastor of the New Berlin charge, (Lutheran) has resigned.

Hon. J. B. Facker, of Northumberland, planted 8,000 willow trees this spring. Big Business.

The Millheim B. & L. Association meets next Monday evening. Prepare the stamps.

The house of Mr. A. S. Valentine, Bellefonte, was robbed of a lot of silverware the other Monday night.

James C. Smith's splendid new house is approaching completion; ditto, S. D. Musser's; ditto, Freddy Catherman's. Guess we must bring up the rear.

Two of our greatest statesmen of latter days—Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglass—have each a son surviving, each residing in Chicago and each a successful lawyer.

The first side walk constructed under the Borough government was laid week along the front of the old Reighard property. It was much needed and a good one.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that no liquor can be lawfully sold on election day.

On Friday a little daughter of C. W. Hartman had the misfortune to break its collar bone. The child is only about a year and a half old.

CORNER STONE LAYING.—The corner stone of Miller's Evangelical church, in Sugar Valley, will be laid June 20th.

LADIES, have you seen the fine display of Jewelry at Charley Stargis' store? We have no disposition to overdo matters but will just say that Charley can suit you as well and sell to you as cheaply as any one in Pennsylvania.

Are we going to have a meeting of the Cemetery Company this spring? Is anything going to be done to better our city or dead?

A TREASURY OF BIBLE READINGS, by Rev. S. G. Shannon, Millheim, Pa., with an Introduction by Rev. H. Zeigler, D. D., Superintendent of the Missionary Institute, Selinsgrove, Penna.

The writer of a letter in the London Times points out that an ounce of bread wasted daily in each household in England and Wales means about 25,000,000 quarters of wheat in a year; while an ounce a week of meat wasted amounts to some 300,000 sheep.

Denninger & Musser have just received another carload of marble, and are turning out some of the finest work in the interior of the state.

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be tendered by the members of Millheim Lodge, No. 955, I. O. O. F., to Rev. S. G. Shannon and Rev. W. R. Whitney for the able addresses delivered on the cemetery on decoration day.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the MILLHEIM JOURNAL.

The new borough school board met and organized on Tuesday, as follows: W. R. Weiser, President; A. C. Musser, Secretary; Samuel H. Moyer, Treasurer.

Eighty-THREE AND A HALF.—When a man builds himself a house all sorts of minor improvements will suggest themselves around about the premises as the work progresses.

Our men classified them thus: "First rate," 31; "Pretty good," 18; "Not worth a cent," 2; "Wouldn't give a cent," 2; "Dunno," 1.

"Looks well," 83; "Dunno," 1; Grand total 84

REBERSBURG FRAGMENTS. Farmers are complaining. Improvements in various ways are being made in our town.

It is our genial landlord J. E. Roush who understands to make the best ice cream in this section of the county.

Prof. Meyer has laid aside the Superintendent's toga for a few days, and is busily engaged digging a well,—he is no bad workman.

W. J. Alexander is engaged in the huckstering business. Jas. N. Letzler has the contract to build a house for John A. Grenoble.

Our oil men are happy over the defeat of the bill proposing to tax oil. The other day an old lady gave vent to her feelings on the matter thus—"I declare 'r guttins, sis zu bat, zu tax the oil rigs and derricks."

Our Senator, Hon. J. W. Lee, and our Representatives, Messrs. Mapes Myers & DeWoolfe have labored nobly for the interests of their constituents.

A man who was working at an oil well in Franklin last week, thought he would look down into the hole with the help of a ladder.

On Tuesday evening of last week, while a man and his wife were milking there came up such a thunder storm that they had to quit and go into the barn for shelter.

A funny thing in the line of weddings occurred here recently. The intended wedding came to naught three times, for some reason or other; but the mother of the bridegroom became "nill desperandum," and after trying in vain to borrow a little of the sponsorial for her son, to go and get married some place else.

Accept Pete's thanks, Mr. editor, for the nice compliment received a few weeks ago. Pete will come one of these times, to visit his Penn Valley friends when he will give the big broad of ye editor a good hearty shake.

R. A. BUMILLER, Sec.

We had very copious rains on Monday and Tuesday and vegetation is wonderfully revived.

THE QUESTION is often asked, why does Newman advertise so freely? The answer is simple—because he does such a big business.
