A STRONG TICKET.

The Democratic state convention of Ohio met at Columbus, on the 4th of June. Gen. James B. Steadman, of Toledo was chosen temporary chairman.

The first ballot resulted: Rice, 262; Bishop, 265; Ewing, 103; Ward, 6—necessity to a choice, 317.

The second ballot was announced, and the Democratic party must claim its full share in the honor of the late war; for it is largely due to Democratic soldiers that the Union was saved.

The convention re-assembled in the afternoon, when Samuel F. Hunt, of Cincinnati, was chosen permanent chairman.

James Calder, President of State College, will fill Mr. Tomlinson's pulpit, next Sunday, as follows: At Aaronsburg in the morning at 10 o'clock; at Millheim in the afternoon at 2 o'clock; and at Penns Creek in the evening.

Our Lewisburg neighbors will no doubt have a high time of it next Saturday. They will have trotting matches, wheeling match, foot race and pig chase, all on the same day, at the Union County Fair Grounds. The purses for the trotting matches are $2.50, $20, $25 and $50. The purse for the wheeling match is $2.00; for foot race $1.50, and for pig chase the pig itself, worth about $5.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday afternoon Mr. Thos. Nell and Mr. A. J. Campbell were felling a rather large but slightly shade tree in front of Dr. Mingle's residence. The tree was nearly cut off when Mr. Campbell ascended to fasten a rope to it, in order to draw it in a desired direction. When he was on the tree, it fell, striking Mr. Campbell and hurrying himself severely, but just how seriously can not be known at this writing. His ankle and back are sprained and he suffers much pain.

The people of Sugar valley still believe in making roads fast. The following from the Clinton Democrat shows how the business is done in Greene township:

Commencement at the UNIVERSITY AT LEWISBURG begins Friday, June 19th, and ends Wednesday, June 25th. The programme is very comprehensive and we have no doubt it will be a rich literary feast for all who participate, and all who will attend. The Inaugural Address of the new president, Rev. D. J. Hill, will be delivered, Wednesday, June 25th, at 9 A. M.

We sorely thank the unknown friend who sent us a programme and invitation.

A TAX PAYER'S REVENGE.—Lebanon, Pa., June 2. About 2 o'clock this afternoon, a tax payer, a tax collector and Constable Leisinger went to the residence of William Ulrich for the purpose of selling certain goods which they had seized for taxes. Upon entering the premises Ulrich appeared and with a oath declared he would shoot the first man who attempted to remove any article belonging to him. Leisinger went towards Ulrich, when the latter fired, the shot taking effect in Leisinger's abdomen. Ulrich instantly turned and fired at Hauer, the bullet grazing his shoulder and tearing his coat, and the powder burning his face. Ulrich then placed the pistol at his own head and discharged it, but the ball passing through his head and killing him instantly. Leisinger is in a very critical condition. Ulrich served in the Twelfth Pennsylvania cavalry during the late war.

Last fall the county fairs of this and Union county were both held on exactly the same days, and the same thing is to happen again this year. This is all wrong and we protest against it as very unfair to our people of lower Penna. valley and Brush valley. A sense of duty and home pride certainly admonishes our citizens to aid all they can in making our own fair a success, and yet it is so much more convenient to go to Lewisburg than to Bellefonte that it is to be feared many of our citizens will go back on their own county. Numbers attended the Lewisburg fair last year, and all were highly pleased, while but few attended that of Bellefonte; and so it will again be this fall, only much more so, unless the time for one or the other fair be changed. But why can it not be changed? We submit whether one of our fairs had not better be held a week later. Gentlemen of the two Agricultural Societies give this matter some consideration.

OLD DOM ITEMS. A man named Samuel Howe was found lying dead on the road near Pioneer, on Tuesday. He had been struck twice and had his skull crushed. It is not yet known who committed the deed, but the deceased was known to be a native of this county and a certain man whom he had terribly wronged threatened to shoot him two years ago. It is thought that this man caught Howe at the same spot on Monday evening, and shot him.

Winters, the man who so brutally murdered his wife some time ago, has been sent to Dixmont Insane Asylum.

A new fifteen barrel well of lubricating oil has been struck on the highway farm, about a mile from Franklin. The oil is of the best quality and will make a nice little income of fifty dollars a day. The weather for the last few days has been trying to make up for the dry time we had so long. The sky is teal and the wind frequently bursts out with uncontrolible fits of emotion.

The frosts of a week or so ago killed the greater part of the fruit. It was so warm here last week that a certain lady while trying to sing "Oh! for a mansion in the suburbs," next Sunday, as follows: It sounded very odd, you know, to hear a woman sing out "Oh! for a man," and she really made several strenuous efforts to sing it through, but in vain. The heat was too oppressive. She couldn't.

A party of our young folks purpose going to Sugar Lake on Saturday, to fish, to picnic, to sail on the smooth waters and "sich like." Is the Journal sick? Did not get mine of last week.

[The JOURNAL is sent regularly every week. The fault is in the mails. Ed.]

A VETERAN GONE.—By reference to our obituary columns it will be seen that the venerable Gen. George Buchanan departed this life, at his rural home, near Penn Hall, at the advanced age of nearly eighty-three years. He had been suffering from the effects of a paralytic stroke and had lost his speech for the last two years of his life. Otherwise he was never sick.

Gen. Buchanan was of a very illustrious family. He was a grand son of Gov. Thomas McKean of this State, and also the father of Lieut. Evan M. Buchanan, of the U. S. Army, who gave his life for his country in the War of the Rebellion, and Commander Thomas McKean Buchanan, who led his men to a naval battle in Bayou Teche, Louisiana, during the late war. Both these youthful heroes sleep their last sleep in the beautiful cemetery at Bellefonte. A daughter, who had been married to a Mr. Everett, from Massachusetts, had also been buried here. A third son, G. Lloyd Buchanan, rests in the graveyard at Spring Mills. In Religion Gen. Buchanan adhered to the Episcopal church in his politics he was an ardent Whig until that once great party was dissolved, when he attached himself to the Democratic party, with which he acted up to the time of his death.

He held the office of Prothonotary of Centre county for a time, by appointment by the Governor. He also served for several terms as Justice of the Peace in Gregg township, where he had his home for many years.

As a neighbor Gen. Buchanan was kind and helpful. Many were his acts of charity in former years, and he will be gratefully remembered when gone. As a christian he was broad and liberal in his views, active in the line of duty. He was an active worker in and devoted friend of the Sunday School cause.

He was human; he had his faults; but his sterling virtues completely hid them, and his memory will be fondly cherished by the community of which he so long was a leading citizen and useful member. Requiescat in pace.

Our farmers are very busy working corn. Corn is a little short for the season but it's there.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS. Mr. Charles Hennich lost a very valuable cow a few days ago. C. M. Gunsalus bought a lot from I. J. Grenoble, and expects to build a house on it this fall yet. Horace Hering, while painting rails last week, accidentally cut himself in the leg below the knee, causing a very painful wound. Carpenters are busy at work on Grenoble's ware room, which, when completed, will be quite attractive. There will be a large hall on the second floor, something that is very much needed here.

Mr. C. F. Hennich is still engaged in the manufacture of brick. His are the best brick of the valley, and he sells them just as cheaply as a common article is sold. Another old citizen has been removed from our midst. Gen. George Buchanan is no more. At the ripe old age of eighty-two years, he was gathered to his fathers. His end was peace.
