WHAT HE IS THERE FOR. A rumor was current in Washington recently, to the effect that Sena-tor Don Cameron is getting tired of playing Senator and that he would be almost willing to resign, provided he were permitted to appoint his own successor, same as Simon appointed him. The Philadelphia Times, while admitting that Don has little taste and Iess ability for Senatorial labors, don't believe the rumor the least bit, but goes on to say what Don is really good for as a Senator. Guess the Times hits the nail squarely on the head every time.

It says: He must be Senator to be master, and being Senator and maste., be won't east his plumes away as if they were barbles, mere ly because he wearies playing with them. Senatorial disputation is dull to him, comnittee work is irksome, and department labor for his constituents is vexatious, but such are the penalties which came with the triumph he had to make exhaustive offorts to win. He will sit in the Senate ostensibly to look after Pen. sylvania interests, and will bristle up and make himself felt when Pennsylvania is assailed, but his tors and other officers. and to make organs pipe and politicians dance when it pleases him to have them do so.

In Beaver Valley a most shocking accident occurred on Tuesday eyening of last week. The wife of Levi Miller told her husband in a playful way that if he would dig a piece in the garden for her she would go and prepare supper for him. He went to do his task and she in order to hurry do his task and she in order to hurry up the coal fire proceeded to pout coal oil on the fire from a can. The can exploded and burned her so seriously that she died on Wednesday morning. Upon hearing the explosion he ran into the house, and in trying to save her burned his hands to a crisp. Mr. Miller was unable to attend his wife's funeral last Friday. She leaves three children, the oldest about five and the youngest a babe in the cradle. Mrs. Miller was a daughter of Preacher Steely.—

A splendid farm, containing 312 acres, about 200 of which are cleared and in a good state of cultivation. The balance is well timbered with excellent pine, hemlock, oak poplar and chestnut. Upon this property is created a good, two-story dwelling house, good barn, wagon shed and other outbuildings. A good orchard is on the premises. This property could be divided into two farms to good advantage, each of which would have a never-failing spring of excellent water. This farm is situated within two miles of Coburn Station, on the L. C. & S. C. Railroad, and will be sold separate by or together to suit purchasers.
