

The Journal.

Walter & Deininger, Proprietors

B. O. DEININGER, Associate Editor

Millheim Thursday June 26.

Terms—$1.50 Per Annum.

If it is a prime object of Senator Conkling to get into personal collisions with his brother Senators then he has much reason to congratulate himself on his decided success. He has had spots, with a comparative short time, with Senators Gordon, Burnside and Lamont. Each one of these Senators have applied to the "good and lordly Conkling" that most insulting of all epithets, bairn, and the haughty Senator seems to be willing to choke it all down, bitter as the dose may be. Gordon and Lamont are Democrats, while Gen. Burnside is Republican, showing that Conkling is just as capable of quarreling with a political friend as with a political enemy.

We do not contend that Senator Conkling should challenge any or all of these men to mortal combat, for that is a poor way to redress a personal insult, but somebody who has influence with him should let him know that unless he mends his manners he might get his precious back crowded one of these fine days.

The census of 1880 will show that we are by far the most numerous people speaking one language on the face of the globe. The population of the United States will then be probably more than fifty millions, and good authorities estimate that at the end of the century there will be nearly one hundred millions within the present limits of the Union.

The taking of the centennial census will be begun about the first of June, 1880, and an effort will be made to complete it within a month. It will show the centre of population to be near Indianapolis, in the state of Indiana. In 1780 this centre was on the meridian of Washington. It had got as far west as Pittsburgh in 1840, and at the last enumeration was at Cincinnati. By 1900 it will probably reach the Mississippi river.

We can not give the official proceedings of the Democratic County Convention held at Bellefonte, last Saturday, but learn from private sources that our friend, Mr. C. C. Brungard, of Miles Township, and Mr. James McClain, of Milesburg, are the delegates to the State Convention which meets at Harrisburg, July 16th.

F. P. Musser, A. J. Greist and J. H. Dobbins are the conferees from Centre, to elect a Senatorial delegate.

Grant stock is thought to be on a rapid decline, notwithstanding the constant efforts of the ringsters to whom her up. The people have more than enough of Grantism.

Quite a number of our people talk of going to Sunbury, on the 4th. Let them go. No doubt it will be a glorious time down there.

The Republicans of Union county nominated the following ticket last week: Sheriff—David Gross; District Attorney—David H. Getz; Just Commissioner—J. C. Kelly.

Jacob and Levi Snook give notice in another column that they have been appointed administrators of the estate of Levi Snook, their father, recently deceased.

That important season in a farming community—haymaking, has commenced, and we wish that every man may have weather to suit him exactly. The crop is about a medium one.

Several new sidewalkers are under way just now, one by Mr. E. C. Campbell—of plank, the other by Dr. Mingle, of good flag stones. Bravo, Doctor—it shows spunk of you.

The gentlemanly editor of the Democrat will please consider our best hat tipped—that new, splendid one we just bought of Newman—for undeserved "favorable mention."

Mr. A. Luckenbach, the obliging miller at Munson's Upper Mill, informs us that the old screen in said mill will be set aside, and a new smut machine, which is second to none, has just been put up. They are prepared to make better flour than ever.

A colored Camp Meeting will open in a grove near Bellefonte on Friday, June 20, to continue ten days. A long list of preachers is published, including Bishop A. W. Wayman, of Baltimore, and Rev. John Jasper, of Richmond, Va.

SPOILING AN ELOPEMENT.

A Jefferson County Wife Upsetting Her Husband's Well-Laid Plans.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Owen live on a farm near Wilna, Jefferson County, and until recently the humble course of rural life had been with them been reasonably comfortable. Lately, however,

Mr. Owen has looked with favor upon Mrs. Shaw, wife of a neighbor, and Mrs. Shaw was not insensible to his partiality. Last week they planned an elopement. Owen met Mrs. Shaw at an obscure place in the village with a horse and carriage, in tended to drive to Watertown, and there take the cars. Mrs. Owen's got an inkling of what was going on and walked out on the road they were to pass over, hid behind a fence, and watched through a thicket for the coming of her lord. Soon her diligent eyes were rewarded, for Mr. Owen and Mrs. Shaw came spinning down the road at rattling pace. Mrs. Owen leaped the fence, sprang to the roadside, seized the bridle, and ordered them to stop. Dumbfounded by the appearance of the indignant woman, Owen reined in his horse. Mrs. Owen can't find the carriage, she then turned the horse by the hair, and dragged her out, after which she turned her attention to Owen, and pummelled him until he called a truce. She then compelled him to turn the horse about and get in the carriage with her, whereupon they drove homeward, leaving Mrs. Shaw alone by the roadside.

Just as we go to press we hear a rumor coming from a creditable source that the Pa. R. R. Co. has consummated a lease for the Snow Shoe R. R. We give the rumor for what it is worth, only wishing it may be true, as that would mean the completion of our road to Bellefonte. "On to Bellefonte."

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

Iowa crops in good condition.

DUNUCUE, June 22.—The Herald publishes crop reports from most of the counties in the State, which indicate that the small grains will yield largely more than in any previous year. Each one of these Senators have applied to the "good and lordly Conkling" that most insulting of all epithets, bairn, and the haughty Senator seems to be willing to choke it all down, bitter as the dose may be. Gordon and Lamont are Democrats, while Gen. Burnside is Republican, showing that Conkling is just as capable of quarreling with a political friend as with a political enemy.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.

On Sunday evening Isaac Eyer, one of the oldest citizens of our county, died at his home in Union township. His ailment was apparently old age. Mr. Eyer was known throughout this and Snyder county as an honest, upright man. His friends were many and enemies he had none. The remains were interred at Winfield yesterday. The funeral was very large.—Lewisburg Journal.