Democratic State Ticket. FOR TREASURER, HON. DANIEL O. BARR, OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

A STATE ISSUE.

The issue in this state between the Democratic and Republican parties is clearly defined and cannot be mistaken or misunderstood. The Democratic state convention denounced in its platform the bold and wicked attempt of the Republican party to usurp the office of the public sentiment in favor of official integrity and purity.

A Stormy Scene Between Mr. and Mrs. Sprague.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, Aug. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Sprague had an exciting interview to-day. He accused her of breaking her marriage vows and Senator Conkling of alienating his children from him.

York County Nominations.

The Democratic County Convention of York county met at York, on the 12th, and nominated the following ticket: Thomas C. Ramsey, Clerk to Commissioners; Wm. Gilberthorp, Director of the Poor; G. Wesley Carner, Jury Commissioner.

The Lackawanna Democratic-labor party on Tuesday nominated the following ticket: President judge, Hon. F. D. Collins; Sheriff, Michael Grimes; Prothonotary, A. M. Renshaw; Recorder, John Kelley; Treasurer, Philip Robinson; District Attorney, C. Smith; Clerk of Courts, T. F. Roland; Register, A. B. Dunning; Commissioners, Joseph P. Seibett and Dennis Tierney; Jury Commissioner, M. Hannick; Surveyor, A. J. Smith; Coroner, Dr. John Sullivan.

One Republican candidate for President—the proud and lordly Conkling—is most effectually shelved.

The scandal story with Mrs. Sprague settles his hash for all time. Men that are being threatened to be shot for being too intimate with other men's wives are not exactly the proper pinks to make good Presidents.

SCANDAL IN HIGH LIFE.

An Ex Governor threatens to shoot a Senator.

PROVIDENCE R. I., August 9.—A scandal in which the names of Senators Conkling and Sprague were freely used was circulated through the city to-day as well as at Narragansett Pier and vicinity.

It is certain that ex-Gov. Sprague has made frequent allusions to his friends of the intimacy between Senator Conkling and Mrs. Sprague, and that he has upon more than one occasion made threats against Mr. Conkling, referring with great bitterness to the fact that Senator Conkling was a constant guest at his wife's residence near Washington during his own absence; but that he was frequently seen with her driving about the country roads near that city, and was her attendant at almost every public gathering in or about Washington, while he, the husband, was compelled by the exigencies of his business to remain during the greater part of the year in Providence or in his mills at Cranston.

During Gov. Sprague's absence last week from Narragansett Pier Senator Conkling came to the Sprague mansion. He remained there a visitor, and was on the piazza the next evening conversing with some ladies when Sprague came home from a day's absence with a loaded gun in his hand. He drove to the rear of the house, which is about a mile and a half from the pier, and came through the house in a somewhat excited condition. He got out to the piazza, where he found Senator Conkling conversing with Mrs. Sprague, who was at a window. Gov. Sprague then said addressing Senator Conkling, "are you armed sir?" And Conkling replied, "no I am not." "Then," said ex-Governor Sprague, "I give you five minutes to get off these premises. If you are not away I will fire at you."

Ex-Gov. Sprague is said then to have made use of some further exasperating language. Senator Conkling, seeming much surprised, but remembering he was under Sprague's roof, rose and walked a few steps away, while Mrs. Sprague came out of the house and stood between them. Ex-Gov. Sprague stood looking at Senator Conkling while a carriage drove up which had been ordered to take Mrs. Sprague for a drive. When Mrs. Sprague found that Ex-Governor Sprague was apparently determined on an unpleasant scene, she called for her hat and shawl, which Mrs. Martin a friend and in the house at the time as guests were Mr. and Mrs. Martin, and Miss Martin and Mrs. Alexander, as well as Senator Conkling. The latter soon left the house and went over to the pier, but was followed by Sprague, where there was an exciting and threatening colloquy between the two outside of the most public spot on the whole place. Meantime Mrs. Sprague has left the place, and gossip is busy with the unhappy relations which have long existed between her and her husband.

A MOLLIE'S CONFESSION.

SUNDAY, Aug. 15.—There appears to be an end to the Mollie Maguire case.

Two more—McManus and O'Neill—are to be executed in October, and nine fresh arrests will be made inside of another month. It was always said by the knowing ones that O'Neill would "squeal" rather than die game. He is a young man and rather sly from a wound in the head made by a piece of coal when a boy. When arrested he declared his innocence, but now it appears that he has unbosomed himself and confessed to the murder of Hesser, the night watchman at Hickory Swamp Colliery, near Shamokin. It was on the night of Dec. 19, 1874, that a band of Mollies beat the old man to death. McManus and O'Neill were tried and convicted. The latter has confessed that nine others are equally guilty with him. Two are still in the coal regions and the others are in the west. Their residences are known to the police. When Dennis F. Canning was pardoned out of Jail last week it was said that he was to be used on the witness-stand in the future. He will be one of the chief witnesses against the men who are to be arrested for Hesser's murder. McManus and O'Neill's death warrants were read to them yesterday morning. McManus smiled when he was told by the Sheriff that he was to be hanged in October. He is about forty years of age, with hair as white as snow. He is not very communicative. When O'Neill was informed of the object of the Sheriff's visit he sneaked like a child. Suddenly he grew furious and declared that Governor Hoyt had lied, and that he promised not to sign the warrants until September.

THE REV. JOSHUA HANMAN, a colored preacher, of Izard county, Texas, became possessed of a strange mania some weeks ago.

He fancied that because his name sounded very much like "Haman" that it was his duty to ascertain just how high Haman hung. In the pulpit the other Sunday he showed signs of insanity, and suddenly throwing up his arms said to the congregation: "Children, Haman was hung, as near as I can make a calculation, a little over 100 feet high. Now, children, I believe God wants me to give up my soul to him right away, and so take this rope and hang me 120 feet above the ground." The congregation were frightened and left the church. Hanman was closely watched by them, but he ran into the woods. On the following day search was made for him. Henry Giles came upon a litter of chips under a large tree and was examining them when he noticed a small shadow swinging to and fro in front of him. Looking up he saw Hanman suspended from the topmost branch of the hickory.

KEMBLE TO BE PROSECUTED.

At the instance of the Pennsylvania Riot Bill Investigating Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., August 11.—Charles B. Salter was arrested this afternoon at the instance of the Riot Bill Investigating Committee, on a charge of corrupt solicitation of members of the Legislature in connection with the Riot Claims bill, and entered bail for his appearance in Dauphin County. Wm. H. Kemble was also formally notified to enter bail at Harrisburg on a similar charge. The investigating committee held a meeting to-day at Harrisburg, when the details of the prosecution were arranged. They have engaged as attorneys for the prosecution Senator Matt Carpenter of Wisconsin, Judge J. S. Black of Pennsylvania, and Franklin B. Gowen, President of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company. Chairman Wolfe says that the case will be vigorously pushed, and the trial is expected to come on early in September.

He wasn't a Sherman Man.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—Secretary Sherman's hand is still being felt among the officeholders of the South, who are expected either to support him for the Presidency or get out of office. The last case is that of Col. John C. Brownlow, son of Parson Brownlow, who has just been removed from the office of Revenue Agent in Tennessee because he is a Grant man. Brownlow is now here and says he is for Grant all the time, but that his personal preference did not prevent him from doing his duty as a revenue officer.

The total number of votes in the next Electoral College will be the same as in the last, namely, 369. They are distributed as follows:

Table with 2 columns: State and Number of Electors. Alabama 6, Arkansas 6, California 6, Colorado 6, Connecticut 6, Delaware 3, Florida 6, Georgia 6, Illinois 12, Iowa 6, Kansas 6, Kentucky 6, Louisiana 6, Maine 6, Maryland 6, Massachusetts 12, Michigan 12, Minnesota 6, Missouri 6, Nebraska 6, Nevada 6, New Hampshire 6, New Jersey 6, New York 36, North Carolina 6, Ohio 12, Oregon 6, Pennsylvania 20, Rhode Island 6, South Carolina 6, Tennessee 6, Texas 6, Vermont 6, Virginia 6, West Virginia 6, Wisconsin 10.

The democrats of Washington county, Mississippi, have nominated a negro for the legislature. Now let us hear something from the stalwart organs about the Washington county plan.
