-Personal .- IIon. W. C. Duncan, of Lewisburg, very unexpectedly dropped in to see us last week. He was here to look up the Harvest Home and Excursion matters, and took in Aaronsburg, Rebersburg and Spring Mills in his trip. Of all the men that ever resided here, there is no one that has more personal friends than Cook. Candid fact.

Mr. James N. VanOrmer, of Wolfe's store called in last week. James don't come so very often anymore. Says he is busy and that times are improving over there. Wish him success.

George W. Foote, Esq., of Mifflinburg, paid us a little bit of a visit last week. We wanted him to stay longer and have a good long talk with him, but he couldn't. George never looked better. Henry Beck, Esq., the gentlemanly and efficient clerk to the Co. Commissioners, was around this week in this part of the county delivering tax duplicates. Get your scrip ready.

Mr. Thomas Forster, salesman for the popular tobacco house of Frishmuth & Bro., was in town the other day. Mr. F. is a son of Capt. R. M. Forster, who fell at the battle of Gettysburg, and a gentleman, as was his patriotic father, in the fullest sence of the word.

Rev. F. Aurand, of Rebersburg, is at Middleburg, Snyder county, visiting his aged and sick father.

OUR CEMETERY.

The neglected condition of our cemetery is a matter of general remark as pearing to be the bosses. well as reproach, and our citizens should do something in this matter without delay. Last week there was a burial on the grave yard, as well as the week before, at each of which there were a large number of people present some of whom were strangers, and we to dilapidation and decay. A grave yard should be kept in the best kind of to be a general cleaning and trimming up at least once a year, say in spring. compared to the satisfaction it would afford to have our cemetery in a fit condition to be visited, without having the feelings grated by unsightly piles of stone brush, weeds and grass, that have grown up decayed, over and over again for years. There are many things in which we as a community ought to do better, and this is one that calls loudly for reform. We have periodically called attention to this matter, but thus far without any good results. There has not been enough interest manitested in our cemetery for at least two years to have the annual meetings and election provided for by the constitution; and we doubt whether the Cemetery Association has a single officer to-day. A rumor prevails here that the Pa. R. R. Co. have bought and taken possession of the B. & S. S. R. R. If true I suppose our road would be extended. We expect to have an unusual good time at the Haryest Home picnic. A very large crowd would have gone from here if the fare had been reduced to 50

A GIANT TREE.—At 652 Broadway; New York, is a gigantic speciman of a California tree, twenty-five feet in diameter. The tree was discovered in 1874, and is believed to be between four and five thousand years old. The inside is capable of holding, we are told, one hundred and fifty people. The price of admission is only fifteen cents, and the monster is well worth a visit.

A Young Post-Mistress .- Among the passengers from Sitka, Alaska, in the steamer "Ca lifornia", on her last trip to Portland, Oregon, was Miss Sallie Ball, who is probably the youngest Government officer in the United States. Although but twelve years of age, she is the-mistress of Sitka.
