

Local Department.

The masonry work for F. P. Musser's house is done. Carpenters next.

It is thought that Northumberland county will have three agricultural fairs this fall.

Job work of all kinds done at the Journal Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

The new toll house near Coburn is going up. Mr. Snook is contractor and Elias Lose & Son the carpenters.

Work on the new turnpike is being pushed rapidly. The workmen are now at it along Penn Street, in town.

The Building and Loan Association meets on next Monday evening. Did you know it?

Among our new exchanges we like none better than the Watsonian Record. It is ably conducted, full of news and thoroughly Democratic.

Schoch, of the Telegraph, pretends not to have seen us at the Harvest Home. Rather a thin way to get out of the duties and attentions he owed us as visitor and stranger.

John F. Duncan, Esq., of Lewisburg, has opened a law office in Barber's building, South Second Street, nearly opposite the residence of his father, Hon. W. C. Duncan.

The last session of the Legislature passed a law imposing a fine of $10 or one year's imprisonment upon any person who willfully destroy, mutilate, or otherwise injure any tree, vine, flower, shrub, or grass in any cemetery or graveyard in the state.

And now Messrs. Wm. P. Mitchell, of Lock Haven and Ellis L. Orvis of Bellefonte turn up as the boss snake killers of the season. While out surveying the other week they killed five of these ugly creatures, one of which had thirteen rattles.

SUNDAY PRISONS, whose names we will not here mention, will please accept our kindest thanks for very acceptable favors in the shape of apples, peaches, pears and plums. Oh, how thankful our heart always feels to the kind donors, while eating the luscious fruit.

An item goes the rounds of the papers to the effect that Col. Taggart has presented one of the Northumberland churches with an Alderney calf. We can not see why a man should make a present so entirely inappropriate unless it was to make a first class fool of himself.

Hon. Wm. B. Mann and Stephan S. Renak, Esq., two of Philadelphia's most prominent lawyers, attended court at Bellefonte, last week. Mr. Mann was engaged for Peter Herdic, who was tried for false pretense, and Mr. Renak was engaged in the Sussman-Guggenheimer case.

In speaking of the proceedings of court the Watchman expresses the opinion that "if lawyers when addressing his honor while standing with their backs to the audience, would speak so that people could hear what they are saying, they would make the court proceedings much more interesting."

Have thought so too ever so often.

Mr. Abs. Musser, below Aaronsburg, one of our most intelligent and practical farmers, is just now experimenting with a new fertilizer, in the form of ground raw limestone. He applies it through the drill at the same time of seeding. Mr. Musser will keep a careful account of the expense of this new system so as to compare results with other kinds of fertilizers.

The Veteran Club of Centre County will have its annual picnic and reunion next Saturday, at Pleasant Gap. The Veteran Club is no political organization, but is intended to keep the comrades of Centre county together and revive the recollections of the late war.

No doubt the meeting will be a large and pleasant one, because of the laudable objects and non-partisan character of the club. Everybody is invited to attend.

The JOURNAL BOOK STORE has just received a nice lot of goods that are sold not only as cheap but cheaper than can be bought anywhere in Penn or Brush Valleys. Fine Family Bibles, Pocket Bibles, Photograph Albums, Autograph Albums, Splendid Paper Boxes, Knitting Cotton, Blank Books, Hymn Books, Java Canvass, Zephyrs, Germantown Wool, Fine Fans, Velvet Photograph Frames, Chromos, Sunday School Reward Cards, Motto Frames, Mottoes, Games, Paper, Ink, Pens and Pencils in great variety, and many other things that cannot here be stated.

CALL AND SEE.

Sunday School Convention.

The Sunday School Convention of Juniata District, Evangelical Association, will be held in the Ev. Church, Millheim, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, September 9th, 10th and 11th. The opening address will be delivered by Rev. E. Kober, Presiding Elder of the district, Tuesday evening, 7 1/2 o'clock. Day sessions, Wednesday and Thursday. General children's meeting Wednesday evening, 7 o'clock.

A number of ministers from a distance will be present, and all the important features of Sunday school work will be discussed.

All workers in the cause are cordially invited to attend.

The Busir House in Bellefonte was so crowded last (court) week that many guests had to be sent away for want of room. Hoppes and Bigony just know how to make a hotel popular.

BURNED TO DEATH.—The other Wednesday a seven year old son of Mr. Jacob Slifer residing near Lewisburg, lost his life in the following tragic manner: Mr. Slifer was engaged in burning stumps and rubbish in a field, saturating the same with coal oil. After using the oil, he fired some stumps, hid the can, and went some distance off in pursuit of his work. While engaged at work his little son John, discovered the can, and, through childish curiosity, began to pour oil upon a burning stump. The oil ignited in the can and burst out the bottom, throwing the blazing contents against his body. His clothing being instantly saturated, he was at once a column of flame. His father heard him scream and ran to him, but was too late to render any assistance. This was about 2 o'clock p. m., and the poor boy suffered awfully until 2 o'clock the next morning, when death relieved him. The sympathy of the entire community is with his heartbroken parents.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

The same hour that the above accident occurred, a boy about the same age was instantly killed by a passing train. As the Niagara Express was moving north at its usual high speed, a surveying party consisting of R. F. Brown, of Lewisburg, John A. Gundy, of East Buffalo, and two gentlemen from Chillisque township, saw two children—boy leading a girl younger than himself—moving toward the track as fast as their tiny feet could take them. The surveyors had scarcely time to wonder what the children meant before the train passed them like a flash, and they saw something passing through the air five or six feet from the ground. They ran across the track to find the little boy in the throes of death. A gasp or two, and quiver, and the poor little fellow was lifeless. The engine had struck him on the head, threw him about sixty feet upon the siding, falling upon a tie. Our informant is of the opinion that the children hurried toward the railroad from a desire to enjoy the excitement caused by the train passing at so great a speed, and approached so near that the current of air caused by the locomotive drew the boy—who was foremost, against the ponderous machine, when he was struck by some projecting portion of the train. The train stopped and backed down as soon as possible, when the crew and some of the passengers gathered about the remains, but could be of no service. The little corpse was carried home to his heart-broken mother, (whose husband died but a few days ago). His name was Harry Young, aged about six years, apparently a bright, pretty child. He resided about half a mile south of Montandon—near where the disaster occurred. The surveyors say the railroad employees are entirely blameless; that the disaster was unavoidable on their part.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

PERSONAL.—Samuel Gramly, Esq., of Brush Valley, dropped into our sanctum last week, with a little business. Sam is squire, administrator, executor, guardian and general business manager for almost everybody. He deserves to be all that and much more.

J. Reese VanOrmer, of Wolfe's Store called over Friday. He reports matters quiet over there, but says they have an excellent Sunday school and one of the best Bible classes in the neighborhood. Gen. Wolfe is the teacher.

Rev. C. F. Deisinger attended camp meeting in Snyder county last week.

Mrs. Eliza Wolf, of Watsonstown, formerly of Aaronsburg, is here on a visit to her old neighbors and many friends. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Lydia Faust. Mrs. Wolf's appearance indicates that she is on good terms with the world generally.

Charles W. Miller, of Millifburg, son of Capt. John Miller, was here on a visit to his parents, brothers and friends, last week.

W. A. Haag, Esq., of Milton, paid us a short visit on Tuesday. Mr. Haag is the head member of the firm of W. A. Haag & Co., one of the largest and most successful hardware stores in Central Pennsylvania. He seems to be a gentleman of experience and culture and as a business man stands A. No. 1. A few such are sufficient to make any town lively.

Rev. J. A. Bright, of Jersey Shore, preached at Wayne Station camp meeting last Friday afternoon, from Acts 11:26. His theme was "What is a Christian?" [A very pertinent; and timely inquiry. Ed.] All who heard the discourse pronounced it an able and interesting sermon.

Mr. G. Warren Keen, son of Jacob Keen, seems to enjoy himself away out in Kansas right well. We are kindly permitted to make the following extracts from a private letter to one of his brothers: "Our Normal school and examination are over. At the examination I got along first rate. There were eighty applicants for certificates seventeen of whom failed altogether.

I engaged a school about four miles from Abilene. My salary is $35 per month; time five months, and twenty days for a month.

Last week I was up north from here about thirteen miles to see threshing done with a ten horse power. They threshed 133 bushels of wheat in an hour. I timed them with watch in hand.

The weather is so dry that farmers had to quit plowing. Some few are still at it with four horses in a sulky plow."

Chew Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco.

According to the Watchman we have a Jury Commissioner, Coroner and County Surveyor to elect, and every Democrat should feel it his duty to attend the delegate as well as the general election.

Rev. John Tomlinson hasn't much trouble raising potatoes this year. Some persons or persons who evidently hadn't the fear of God in their hearts saved the Rev. gentleman that work. They left him one row out of six, which, under the circumstances was rather generous.

John M. Hersteller living with his father in Booneville, Clinton Co., had the misfortune to shoot himself accidentally last Saturday. He was in the act of loading a rifle preparatory to going on a hunt for coons, when it proved that the gun was already loaded by discharging the load which passed through his shoulder. It caused only a flesh wound which will likely not be very serious, but it might have been worse and should serve as a warning to young men how they handle fire arms. They are so often loaded when people think they are not. Be careful, boys.

Important to Voters.

The next election in Pennsylvania will be held on Tuesday, the 4th of November.

Voters must be assessed two months preceding the election, that is, on or before Thursday, September 4th.

Voters must have paid a state or county tax one month preceding the election, that is, on or before Saturday, October 4th.

Members of Democratic state, county and city committees should see to it that every voter of our party has complied with the law.

Failure to pay tax in season deprives the voter of the privilege of suffrage. An elector can swear in his vote, though he be not assessed, but the neglect may cause him much trouble.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

W. A. Kerin still makes the boss flour and lots of it.

Grenoble's new hall will be used for school purposes the coming winter.

J. I. Miller, plasterer, from Booneville is again here making two jobs. John is a first class mechanic and the people here know it.

Some unknown parties are raising potatoes in other peoples' patches after sunset. Hope the guilty ones may receive their reward. [They will, certainly, sometime or other, if they don't repent. That's as sure as you live, Yoney. Ed.]

There will be a big time in George's Valley on Saturday, the 20th inst. The Union Sabbath School will have its annual picnic; the old church bell will be taken down and a good, new Menees bell raised in its stead—all at the same place and on the same day. Many people are expected to be present.

Our School directors will move the graded school to Spring Mills, for the coming term. This is right, for we are not only the most centrally located but the largest town in the township. We have two churches as well as a larger number of pupils for the graded school than any other neighborhood of like extent in the township.

YONEY.

REBERSBURG FRAGMENTS.

Farmers are seeding. A species of the rodent tribe is diminishing rapidly since Sept. 1st.

It is rumored that one of our Sunday schools will picnic the coming Saturday. Hope all may have a merry time.

Last Sunday the Lutheran church was crowded to its utmost capacity to hear Dr. Wolfe, of the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg. He preached a very good and interesting sermon based on Luke 19:9.—"This day is salvation come to this house." The following were the Doctor's divisions: Salvation comes to man. Salvation comes at a particular time. Man does not become a Christian by steady growth. Morality is not Christianity and infant baptism. Would like to hear the Doctor every Sunday.

ANON.

[There seems to be an incongruity in the last proposition, but in matters of this kind we do not feel at liberty to make even the slightest alteration. Was our friend Anon sufficiently careful? Ed.]

Nature's Triumph.

Nature, in her luxuriance, has clothed the hills and the dales with herb and shrub, whose occult natures merely require the earnest application of the scientific and inquiring mind to reveal their curative properties, for in the vegetable world a kindly providence has placed healing for all nations. The only specifics for any disease yet discovered are vegetable in their nature, and while quinine has been accepted as the only remedy for one class, the extract of the buchu plant is rapidly taking its place as a sovereign remedy for other of those ills which afflict humanity. The type of disease to which it is remedial is a broad one, and its manifestations are legion, but it may be stated in general terms that all diseases of the urinary organs, whether caused by climate, irregularity, or self-generated, submit at once to the operation of its power. Helmbold's Buchu, for all such complaints, is the result of long research, and is acknowledged superior to all other preparations.

News Miscellany.

WEDDING CEREMONY INTERRUPTED.—A few miles from Wittsburg, St. Francis County, Ark., lived a widow named Hammett. The woman was engaged in farming, and, though she had two grown sons, was compelled to employ a young man to superintend the farm labors. Mrs. Hammet was about 40 years of age. The laborer was a mere boy, but an attachment soon sprang up between the widow and the youth, which ended in a matrimonial proposal. The wedding day was fixed. The two sons hearing of the matrimonial arrangements that had been made between their mother and the stripling, called upon her and tried to dissuade her from marriage. The widow refused to accept her son's counsel. The sons made threats, but the widow affirmed that she loved the young man, and that she would marry him at all hazards. The sons went away and at the appointed time the young man appeared attired for the wedding. The minister came and friends were assembled. "Thou art man and wife," had hardly been pronounced, when a flash at the window, followed by a loud report, terrified the women and astonished the men. Another flash, another report, and the newly made husband sank to the floor. The widow's younger son was the murderer. He fled but was captured. Next day the young husband died, and shortly afterward the widow's younger son, in attempting to escape, was shot and killed; and report says that shortly afterward the elder brother went to his mother's house and beat her brains out with a club.

Mrs. BUSH'S FIGHT WITH SNAKES.—Flemington, N. J., Aug. 25. Mrs. E. Bush, residing near Lebanon, this Co., had a desperate encounter with three enormous pilot snakes the other day. The snakes came out of the woods adjacent to the house and glided up to the doorstep. They were about to enter the open door, when Mrs. Bush discovered them. She did not run nor scream but prepared to fight. She took up a poker lying in front of the stove and mashed in the head of the first reptile. The other two with loud hisses, ran at her and attempted to coil themselves around her limbs. She was too much for them, however, for she put her foot on the head of one, which settled its existence, and then she tried the poker on the other. It evaded her blows for a few minutes, and came near biting her once, but she finally succeeded in striking it a mortal blow. She kept the skins as a trophy.

THE TRAMP ACT, which went into effect on the 15th instant, takes from justices of the peace authority to impose penalties, and requires them to bind over to court all persons arrested on the charge. Any person going from place to place begging, asking or subsisting upon charity, or to acquire money or a living, with no fixed residence or lawful occupation in the county or city in which he is arrested, shall be deemed a tramp and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, sentenced to imprisonment at labor, in the county jail or workhouse, for not more than twelve months, in the discretion of the Court. Any tramp entering any dwelling house against the will or without permission of the owner or occupant, or who shall kindle any fire in the highway or on the land of another without the owner's consent, or found unlawfully carrying fire-arms or other dangerous weapons, shall be sentenced to imprisonment at labor not exceeding three years. The act does not apply to females nor minors under sixteen, nor to blind, deaf or dumb persons, nor to maimed or crippled persons unable to perform manual labor.
