CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

The Fraudulent President's Interpretation of His Order to Federal Officeholders.

Washington, Sept. 5 .- Mr. R. B. Haves has given the following description of the meaning of his civil service reform order. In an interview on the subject of Cornell's nomination, after amicably expressing the hope that Cornell will be elected, Haves says:

"The assertions are also made that

Vice-President Wheeler's attendance at the Convention as a delegate was as a representative of the administration. and that his presence was a violation of civil service orders. The first assertion is untrue in every respect. The Administration took no part in the campaign, either directly or indirectly. Mr. Wheeler represented no more than any other delegate to the Convention. He may have been more influential than many of them, but that influence was individual. He did not violate the civil service order as that order is properly construed. There is only one way in which fair-minded men can construe that order -that is, decently, it is not intended to interfere with the political opinions or political actions of any officeholder, so long as those opinions and actions are expressed and carried out decently. As a citizen Mr. Wheeler attended the Convention and presided over it as he had a perfect right to do. His presence meant no more than that of any other delegate present. There would have been an apt illustration of the construction to be on the order if Gen. Merritt, Collecover it. Such action on his part would have shown that, though Collector he was a mere politician, and his subordinates would act accordingly, of course try, and attribute it to Secretary Sherat his dictation. The one represented himself; the other would have represented the Government service."

Poor Hartranft.

John F. Hartranft was a Brigadier General, Pa. Vols., for four years, at their policy the business improvement $3,000 a year. Immediately following he was elected Governor of the state and served six years in succession receiving $10,000 a year. He is now Post Master of Philadelphia at $8,000 the Committee for the purpose of mak- a year, but his nomination for Sheriff ing out the committees under Rule 2d is urged on the ground that he is poor had been determined upon more than and that his public services should be six weeks ago. At no time has the rewarded, But how much would it require at this rate to keep the "gallant | ered evidence to show what became of to do anything outside of the rules of Hartranft" in easy circumstances? We the money embezzled from the freedthe party. The committees selected to suggest that our radical friends make man's bank. The Elections.

CALIFORNIA.-The Republicans have elected their Governor by a small majority and probably three out of the four congressmen. Kalloch, the Workingmen's candidate, has been elected Mayor of San Francisco. The Workingmen have also elected the Sheriff. Auditor, District Attorney, City and County Attorney, Tax Collector, Publie Administrator and Surveyor, 'The offices of Treasurer, Recorder, County Clerk, Superintendent of Streets and Police Judge are still in doubt, with the chances in favor of the Workingmen's candidates. The idea of rewarding Grant for his political services in behalf of the Union must strike every fair minded man as supremely ridiculous and absurd. While Grant's military services, although greatly over-rated by a heroworshipping people, is of some account, his political services were all in behalf of himself, his friends and hangers-on. As President Gen. Grant was a decided and pronounced failure. His administration will be known in history as the period of corruption, and the idea to reward him for his political services in behalf of the Union won't take kindly with the American people.

> > -0.0 The fact that the west is harvesting extraordinary crops this year is strikingly illustrated by the amount of grain receipts at Buffalo during the month of August. Although the record for that month in 1878 was very heavy, the receipts for August this year exceeded it by nearly a million bushels, the aggregate footing up 12,427,644 bushels, This is one sign of the country's prosperity. Another, equally important, is the improvement in business at all the commercial centres. A reporter of the New York World, who has just interviewed leading merchants in different lines of dry goods, was told the same story everywhere. The demand is stronger than it has been before since the panic, buyers are able and ready to pay for their goods and a general feeling of confidence pervades all classes. Everything goes to show that the business of the country during the just opened autumn will largely exceed that of any previous season since 1873.

All that is needed.

The republicans affect to claim credit for the improved business of the counman's resumption experiment. No, it was the economical policy of the democrats of the two houses of congress, and their encouragement of silver coin. age that have had a good influence on the business of the country; and had the democrats not been hampered in all over the country would now be much greater than it is. All that is needed, is a democratic president in 1880 to make the people happy and prosperous.—Crawford Domocrat.
