HON, DANIEL O. BARR. OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY,

The Democratic Ticket of New York.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 11 .- The Democratic Convention held here to-day was was one of the most exciting political assemblages known in the State for years. It nominated the following Governor-Lucius Robinson of Che-Lieutenant - Governor-Clarkson N.

Potter of Westchester. Secretary of State-Allen C. Beach of Jefferson. Comptroller-Frederick P. Olcott of Attorney - General - Augustus Schoonmaker, Jr., of Ulster.

State Engineer and Surveyor-Horatio Seymour, Jr., of Oneida.

The Tammany delegates bolted and held another convention, at which Hon. John Kelley was nominated for Governor. Whether the opposing factions can be reconciled and re-united, remains to be seen. At present it seems somewhat doubtful.

Still in the Ring.

The organs will have to tune up afresh on the Grant question. Just when they had got fairly started declining him as a Presidential candidate because he didn't decline in his speech to the Chinese Viceroy, a late letter pops up in the hands of Admiral Ammen, stating his willingness to accept the Presidency of the Nicaraguan Canal Company and the Presidency of proved. the United States, also, if it should become a matter of duty on his part. If there are any other eligible Presidencies lying around loose, they may find a ready taker by addressing General Grant, care of Representative Souder, chairman of the Pennsylvania Legislature Hippodrome Reception Committtee.-Phila. Grant is coming home soon, they say from and after which the country will be happy-happy in the sweet knowledge that the great and good man is again with us. Happy nation; happy people? One thing though, was sadly neglected, or forgotten, during Grant's absence. Mexico and Canada ought to have been annexed. The country is rather small to take up so much additional greatness. It will make us common people feel so crowded.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

of the proceedings of the Sunday School Conention of the Northern part of Juniata District, Ev. Association, and now we publish the roccedings entire as prepared by Rev. W. H. stover, the reporter specially appointed.

The convention was opened on Tuesday evening, Sept. 9th, with an address by the Presiding Elder, Rev. E. Kohr, on The relation of the Sabbath School to the Church and the World.

Wednesday morning, Sept. 10th. Convention opened with religious exercises conducted by the Presiding Elder, who is ex-officio chairman of the convention. The organization was completed by appointing Rev. I. M. Pines, Secretary, and Revs. S. Smith & W. H. Stover, reporters for the Evangelical Messenger and the Millheim Journal, respectively.

The following delegates were present: Ministers-E. Kohr, S. Smith, C. F. Deininger, E. James, W. H. Stover, W. H. Hartman, P. C. Weidenmeyer, N. Young, E. P. Leonard, and I. M. Pines. Lay.-Rev. S. I. Shortess, J. W. Edgar, Solomon Vonieda, Henry Mark, Miss Kate Mallory, Mrs. Mattie Meyer and D. L. Zerby.

The time for the sessions was agreed upon as follows: morning 81 to 111; afternoon, 2 to 41; evening

It was resolved to have a questionbox, and a committee to recommend such questions as they may think advisible.

The first topic, The importance of Sunday School Work, was opened by W. H. Stover, who was followed by a number of the ministers.

W. H. Hartman read a well prepared essay on The Importance of Primary Classes in the Sunday School, which was then discussed. The speakers are of the opinion that primary classes are very important; that females are best adapted to teach them, and that they should be in a room seperate from the principal school.

The third topic, The Importance of having Veteran Classes, was opened by C. F. Deininger. The speaker emphasized the fact that persons attending a veteran class would derive much personal benefit while being a benefit to Morning session closed with devo tional exercises, S. I. Shortess leading in prayer. Afternoon session opened with singing and prayer. The subject of Veteran Classes was again resumed. I. M. Pines spoke on the subject, using illustrations to show how deplorable a thing it is in parents to be so indifferent in Sabbath School work. The chairman said the idea of some church members was that the sabbath school was only intended for young people.

The next topic was The Qualifico. tions and Duties of the Sunday School Teacher, opened by P. C. Weidenmeyer. The principal points in the good teacher, as portrayed by the speaker, are 1st, He should be a christian. 2nd, He should labor for the salvation of the soul. 3rd, He should be punctual. While these are the principal qualincations there are others of a minor character, C. F. Deininger followed in a strong plea for teachers' meetings as an important help to the teacher. Other members of the convention followed and the discussion of this topic was quite lively and interesting. The best Method of raising funds for to carry on Sunday School Work, was the next topic. Opened by E. James. The speaker mentioned the several ways used, such as public subscriptions, penny collections, &c.

In the evening a very interesting children's meeting was held. Short and pointed addresses were delivered by Revs. W. P. Thomas, Noah Young, John Tomlinson and S, Smith.

Thursday morning, Sept. 11th. Morning session opened with devotional exercises.

An Essay was read by N. Young on The Qualifications and duties of the Sunday School Superintendent. The essay gave signs of ample preparation. It was replete with thought and excellent advice. It was voted to have brother train, and that would not be possible Young's essay published in the Evangelical Messenger.

The following preamble and resolutions were passed : Whereas in many localities the officers of our Sunday Schools are elected by members of the church who are not active in the school, therefore

1. M. Pines spoke on the use of black boards in schools. He spoke on the advantages and use of introducing natural objects for illustrations. Other members followed in the discussion. Questions from the box were read and answered. Morning session closed with prayer by brother Leonard.

Afternoon session opened with devotional exercises.

S. I. Shortess spoke on The use and Advantages of the International Lesson Leaves. The speech was plain. practical, and showed that the speaker is a close observer and has much experience in Sunday School work. Revs. Shortess, Weidenmayer and the P. E. also made short, pointed addresses on the same subject.

C. F. Deininger opened the topic-The Duty and Importance of using our own Literature in our own Sunday schools. The speaker related some of his own personal experience while laboring as a missionary on the Pacific coast, he also showed the abundance and proved the cheapness of our Sunday school literature.

Beyond the arguments on the stump, distribution of political literature, bulldozing of employes and United States pensioners, the Republicans employed a lever which was more powerful and effective than all the others combined, viz: money. They evidently had a large fund and they expended it judiciously and to the best advantage. It was raised at home and the national committee gave permission to the State committee to draw upon it for as large a sum as might be necessary to buy the State. All the Republican State and national officials were assessed five per cent on their salaries, while all the candidates were mercilessly bled to raise an immense corruption fund. One of the mail route agents on the train from Bangor to Portland was assessed $42.50 on his salary of $850, and I suppose he paid it, for he is still running on the had he refused. A country postmaster in this district, with a salary of $45, was forced to disgorge $2.25 as his share of the fund. Voters were bought in this city like sheep in the shambles, and the same was true in the other cities and many of the larger towns in the State. The price paid for votes varied, and was somewhat smaller than in former years. I am told that $5, $10, $15 and $20 were paid, and in some instances $25 and $30 and eyen as high as $45 were paid for a single vote in the close districts. It is an encouraging thought that after next year, if the biennial constitutional amendment be adopted, as now appears to be the case, the moral sense of the people will not be offended by the disgraceful spectacle of vote-buying but once in two years.
