The trotting on the third day and for the highest purse will be open to all horses, whether they be kept in the county or not. This would seem to be fair as well as liberal.

-We congratulate our Brush valley friends on the conveniences of a daily mail. That's business and should have been long ago. Mail arrives at Millheim at 9, A. M., and leaves at 1, P. M. Thus the people of Brush Valley will have the eastern mail only a few hours later than we get it.

-The Patrons of Husbandry will hold their sixth annual Picnic, on the top of Nittany mountain, north west of Centre Hall, on Thursday, September 25th. Great preparations are being made to make it pleasant and entertaining to all. An observatory has been erected on the grounds from which the principle places in Penns and Brush-Valleys can be seen. A field glass has been provided for the accommodation of those who wish to ascend the observatory. Speeches will be made by prominent Patrons, Large delegations from Mifflin and Clinton counties are coming. Cornet band and vocal music will be given during the day.
