

Local Department.

—Did you boil your apple-butter?
—Centre County Fair, October 1st, 2nd & 3rd.
—Job work of all kinds done at the JOURNAL Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

—W. F. Reeder, Secy., is devoting his whole and untiring energy to the Fair.
—According to present rumors we are to have at least several oyster saloons the coming fall and winter.

—The firm of H. H. Tomlinson & Co. has dissolved. The "Co" retires and Harry will run the shanty as heretofore.
—A festival by the Lutheran S. School of Salona, recently, realized $88.17, clear of all expenses. That was remarkably good.

—No better entertainment has ever been furnished the citizens of Centre county than that to take place at the annual fair near Bellefonte on October next.

—The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Ev. Luth. Church commenced last evening, at New Berlin, Union County.

—Thos. Hosterman and Geo. E. Zehner, administrators, offer the farm of the late Abraham Reber, in Miles township, at public sale. See advertisement in another column.

—To-day the great Granger picnic on the top of Nittany Mountain comes off. Hope it may turn out first class all around and that all present may enjoy themselves fully.

—F. P. Musser's house is up and if coming events cast their shadows before Pierce is going to have one of the neatest and best houses in town. The carpenters are busy hammering, nailing, chipping, sawing and planing at it for dear life.

—Would it not be a good plan to suspend the several Sunday schools until the chestnut season is over? That would at least give all an equal chance for chestnuts, but whether it would do much good morally we don't pretend to say.

—A new side-walk has been constructed last week in front of Behm's property, on Penn Street, occupied by A. O. Deininger. Don't let the side-walk excitement slacken, as there is lots of room for more.

—Apples—Cider—Apple-butter and bottles to hold it in, are present on the minds of the people in these diggings. Well, it's a smokoey and warm business, and if it is anyway possible, we'll try to be excused from that household duty.

—The Centre County Agricultural Society will have the largest and best fair this fall that has ever been held on its grounds. Frank Chamberlin, Esq., is untiring in his efforts to make the Amusement Department, of which he is superintendent, the most attractive feature of the exhibition.

—Next Friday evening the Rebersburg Select School, taught by that able teacher, C. L. Granly, will close its term by a well selected and promising programme of exercises. If anybody desires to spend an interesting and pleasant evening, we advise them to go and hear their exercises.

—FATAL ACCIDENT.—Saturday morning last, about half-past nine, at Flag's Brewery on Fairview street, this city, as an elevator containing about a ton of ice, was being lowered into a vault, the rope suspending it broke, and it fell with crushing force upon Gustave Schwarz, the brewer, killing him instantly.—Clinton Democrat.

—Last Thursday evening our town was enraptured by an excellent serenade of our Cornet Band under the leadership of their efficient teacher Prof. Jos. H. Feehrer. A splendid selection of new music was discoursed by them, and the boys put it their best ticks, while the Professor's fine solos filled the air with the sweetest melodies. Everybody was out of doors to enjoy the rare feast.

—Judge Dean recently rendered a decision in the courts of Blair county that is of considerable importance. The point decided is that the signature of the maker of a note executed in pencil and afterwards inked over by a third party to preserve the signature is a "material alteration" and is therefore void. This question has never been decided by a Supreme Court, but if it should become law how important it is not to doctor signatures by inking them over.—Levisburg Journal.

—The following item which we clip from an exchange, relates to a gentleman well known here. Mr. Jonas Dinges is a son of John Dinges, deceased, and brother of Jacob Dinges, of Centre Hall. The sad accident that befalls this family entitles them to the sympathy of all.

BOTH FEET TAKEN OFF.—George Dinges, son of the veteran engineer Jonas Dinges formerly of this city, met with an accident on the Pennsylvania R.R. near Pittsburg on Wednesday of last week, which necessitated the amputation of both feet. Mr. Dinges lost a son by accident on the P. & E. R.R. a few years since.—Clinton Democrat.

—Millheim Lodge No. 955, will have a basket picnic at Penn Cave, Saturday, Oct. 4th. The odds don't propose to be at all selfish but invite everybody, with wife and children, to attend. Provisions will be made to have horses fed on the ground. Come.

235 That is the number of Harris' Standard Millinery and Variety Store, Lewisburg, where you can buy more goods for the same money than anywhere else in five counties. Don't fail to call at Harris' when you go to the Union County Fair.

—JAMES BIRKH, President, G. W. WALLS, Secretary, and C. H. HASSENPLUG, Treasurer, are the gentlemen and efficient officers of the Agricultural Society of Union County, and they work with a determination and a will to make their annual fair this year the most successful one ever held in Union county.

—Our quill-brother Schoch of the Millheim Telegraph don't seem to be very particular in his local columns about places, names and titles. At one place he has Charlie Sturgis marrying at Spring Mills, which place is 6 miles from Millheim, where the wedding really took place. In another column he gives the father of the bride, Mr. D. A. Musser, the title of an ex-sheriff instead of an ex-treasurer. Well, well, errors will occur in any newspaper, but these are such big ones, that we can't help calling brother Schoch's attention to them.

—Mr. Frank Chamberlin, Esq., has been appointed superintendent of the amusement department, and has already a great feast of entertainment, among which is Glass ball shooting, Archery, Polo, Knights tournament, Hurdle race Sack race, Still race, Greased pig, together with a multiplicity of other games that have never been witnessed before in the state. Mr. Chamberlin is a young man who knows how to get up amusement and the people are well assured of his success.

—The grand pageant on Thursday Oct. 2nd at the Centre County Fair will comprise the two Military Companies, the bands of the County, all the fire companies, College cadets and two hundred young ladies and gentlemen on horseback and this will be further supplemented by the prominent civic organizations.

—The JOURNAL BOOK STORE has just received a nice lot of goods that are sold not only as cheap but cheaper than can be bought anywhere in Penns or Brush Valleys. Fine Family Bibles, Pocket Bibles, Photograph Albums, Autograph Albums, Splendid Paper Boxes, Knitting Cotton, Blank Books, Hymn Books, Java Canvases, Zephyrs, Germantown Wool, Fine Fans, Velvet Photograph Frames, Chromos, Sunday School Reward Cards, Motto Frames, Mottoes, Games, Paper, Ink, Pens and Pencils in great variety, and many other things that cannot here be stated. CALL AND SEE.

Character vs. Performance.
In heaven arose a fierce dispute
Concerning who could farther stoop.
Apollo roared, skilled in the art,
And far to westward shot his dart.
So far it flew that none could tell,
Maugre their sharp sight, where it fell.
Then Zeus arose with bow by side,
Cleared the whole distance at a stride,
And said, "Where shall I shoot?
For see,
There's no more space now left to me."
The judges were but short time out;
Their verdict soon resolves all doubt;
And lo! the prize was judged to fall
To him who drew no bow at all!

William Second Son of Col. Eli Slifer, Instantly Killed.
On Monday afternoon William Slifer, second son of Col. Eli Slifer, was instantly killed while quarrying stone, in company with two or three others, on his farm in Kelly Twp., about a mile west of Lewisburg. It appears that they had been undermining in a certain part of the quarry leaving a large quantity of stone and earth to project over. Under this projection Mr. Slifer was working, when, on a sudden, there came down upon him about four tons of this earth and stone, completely burying him, from which he was removed after ten or fifteen minutes' work. On examination it was found that his neck, shoulders and thigh were broken, and his face somewhat disfigured. Mr. Slifer was a hard-working young man, and one held in high esteem by those who knew him. He leaves a widow and five small children to mourn his loss. His age was about 32 years. Funeral from the house in Kelly Twp., on Thursday morning at 10 A. M.—Millheim Telegraph.

News Miscellany.
ON THE FLOAT.—William Laughman and Millard Snyder, two young mechanics of Altoona, will leave Pittsburg in a few days for a trip down the Ohio in a boat twenty feet long and four feet seven inches beam. An engine of one-horse capacity, made by these gentlemen, will furnish the motive power.

A NOVEL WAY TO COLLECT A DEBT.—J. Jacobs, a Bradford merchant, recently ordered a bill of goods from a New York merchant, whom he owed on a previous order. In due time a package arrived per express, marked C. O. D., which, together with charges amounted to $60.45. Mr. Jacobs paid it, and on opening the package found a lot of rubbish and a receipt for his old bill. He brought suit to recover the amount from the American Express Co., but the case was decided against him.

Mr. Geo. W. Stover, Jr., who was very sick for some time past, is improving.
Mr. C. A. Sturgis and lady returned from their wedding trip, yesterday. Welcome home.
Mrs. John Gutelius, of Millheim, is here on a visit to her sick sister, Mrs. Geo. Mark.

Mr. R. B. Hartman was compelled to take to his bed yesterday, in consequence of a severe sprain in his back.

—Where are our correspondents this week?
—Sam User makes himself a pavement partly out of flag stone and partly of brick. Variety is the spice of life.

—Landlord Billy Musser will please accept our thanks for a "mess" of the finest, fattest, biggest, plumpst and altogether best oysters that ever slipped down a poor county editor's throat. Who will next remember us poor little fellow with something real nice and good?

ELECTION NOTICE. Millheim Lodge No. 955, I. O. O. F., will hold its semi-annual election next Saturday evening. A full attendance of the members is requested.
R. A. BUMILLER,
Secretary.

—Mr. W. R. Henney brought some apples to our office the other day, of the crop of 1878, which are in a good state of preservation and have kept their flavor well. They are of a kind similar to the Pinnoch.

—Gen. Grant arrived at San Francisco on Saturday afternoon. Of course there was ever such a big fuss made over the matter, but the agony is over and the country gives a deep sigh of relief.

BEDS! BEDS!
To all lovers of good beds, who would have their old feathers made new, and the new ones much better.
The "Renovators" will stay in Millheim only a few days longer.
Hear what a few of their many patrons say.

We the undersigned, residents of Centre Co., Pa., having employed Messrs. Corbin & Hall to renovate and dress our feather beds, pillows, &c., by the new process of Griswold & Gipson's "Improved Feather Renovator," thereby rendering them clean, sweet and healthy, also much lighter and larger, therefore we most cordially recommend them and their work to all as being what they represent.

1879
Union County Fair.
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

Mr. Editor:—The Sunday School picnic at Georges Valley church last Saturday, was one of the grandest affairs of its kind ever held in this section of the country. The weather was all that could be desired; the speeches especially the one delivered by Rev. W. E. Fisher, were far above the common average of such efforts—and the tables yet witnessed in these parts. I cannot but make special mention of the table of that price of good fellows, Mr. Samuel Harter, and his estimable lady. Truly, it was fit for a king to sit down to. Mr. Editor, you should have been present. You could have filled your capacious, Lutheran man with the choicest of the land affords.

There was a large number of people present and the very best feeling prevailed. All seemed to be happy. The best order prevailed, and not an incident happened to mar the entire success of the celebration. The lowering of the old and the raising of the new bell were successfully accomplished. The day will long be remembered by all who were present.

The annual Fair of Centre county will be more of a success this year than any heretofore; it occurs on the 1st, 2nd & 3rd of Oct.

Important to Voters.
The next election in Pennsylvania will be held on Tuesday, the 4th of November.
Voters must be assessed two months preceding the election, that is, on or before Thursday, September 4th.
Voters must have paid a state or county tax one month preceding the election, that is, on or before Saturday, October 4th.
Members of Democratic state, county and city committees should see to it that every voter of our party has complied with the law.
Failure to pay tax in season deprives the voter of the privilege of suffrage. An elector can swear in his vote, though he be not assessed, but the neglect may cause him much trouble.

EXAMINATIONS OF TEACHERS FOR 1879.
The examinations of teachers for the schools of Centre county will be held as specified in this announcement:
Howard and Curtin, Howard, Thursday, September 25.
Penn and Millheim, Millheim, Saturday, September 27.
Haines, Aaronsburg, Monday, September 29.
Miles, Lebersburg, Tuesday, Sept. 30.
A special examination to fill vacancies will be held at the Superintendent's office, Bellefonte, Thursday, October 2nd; but applicants must come recommended by at least four directors of the district in which they intend to teach, and give a reason for not having attended the district examinations.
Applicants must be examined in the districts in which they expect to teach.
Examinations, each day, will begin at 9 A. M.; some of the directors should be present in time to make out a list of applicants to be examined.
In compliance with instructions from the school department the standard will be raised, certificates falling below an average of 2.5 will not be issued.
