-By the Lewisburg papers we see that our old friend, S. O. McCurdy, Esq., still does a little preaching sometimes. Recently he filled the pulpit of his stay with them very pleasant indeed. The Rev, Crossan, of the Evangelical paper is ably edited and shows neatness and church.

-Judging from the constant stir about the premises we conclude that Musser & Smith are doing a very good business. There is almost always somebody buying something, but the stock is kept up by the daily arrival of new goods. They are business men " right from the word go."

-Parties from Union county and bills. other places are around buying up apples, which are less plentiful east of us than here. No objections whatever, only so they don't take our share too. About 25 bushels of first class varieties is really all we care for.

-We have received the first number of the Weekly Democrat, printed at Washington Square, Dauphin county, Pa., J. A. Ettanger, editor and publisher. The Democrat is well gotten up, presenting a neat and clean appearance and what is better, it is sound'politically. -It is with profound regret that we hear that Rev. J. G. Shoemaker, of Aaronsburg, the able and faithful pastor of the Reformed charge here, has made up his mind to leave us within a few weeks. Mr. Shoemaker goes to Emporia, Kansas, to engage in mission work, for which he has a peculiar adaptation as well as a strong predilection.
