ADDRESS.

Chairman of the Democratic County Committee.

To the Democrats of Centre County:

In a short time you will be called upon to choose by the exercise of your right of suffrage, a State Treasurer. The candidates of each party have been nominated and the platforms upon which they stand, enunciated for some months. A careful study of these plat. made, the bold declaration of the one in favor of an honest and pure administration of the affairs of our State, and to debauch the Legislature by wholeful rejection by the other of a resolu- self was a candidate for President. tion denouncing the "corrupt practices in connection with the riot bill," and demanding "honest men in office-men 'esty when they see it, and courage enough to fight it wheresoever they find it," ought to be a sufficient reason for every man, who desires an honest official, to support the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer. Of our candidate.

DANIEL O. BARR. others have said, "He is noted for his quickness of intellect, activity in whatever he undertakes, unimpeachable honesty, courteous manners and great kindness of heart."

"Mr. Barr is in all respects a most "creditable candidate for State Treasurer. A trained banker, thoroughly "familiar with our financial system, ac-'tive, intelligent and faithful in his business relations, and personally "blameless alike in public and private 'life, his fitness for the responsible "trust will not be questioned by friend 'or foe,"

The Furmers' Advocate said : "We name of D. O. Barr, of Alleghany, for State Treasurer. This we do after 'and all circumstances, if elected, con-"serve the interests of the State and "the people, and not rings and cliques -and now we ask all, without regard 'to party affiliations, who cherish pub-'lic and private integrity, to prepare to 'give Mr. Barr their hearty support."

The same Mr. Barr to whom this testimony is borne was, in early life, a laborer on a railroad, afterwards a telegraph operator, and who by diligence, hard labor, honesty and integrity in all his relations has qualified himself well for the high position for which he has been nominated, and to which we hope he shall be elected.

The man who from his past record is most likely to fairly and honestly control the finances of the State, who will be by his integrity, as well as by his high pledges given, above the control and influence of the rings, cliques, and corrupt lobby, is the one who should receive your votes, regardless of what may have been his or your previous party predelictions.

The refusal of the Convention that nominated Mr. Barr's opponent, to denounce "corrupt practices, and endorse the nomination of honest men for office," warrants the conclusion that should he be elected it will be but giving the ring and the lobby control of the treasury of the State.

Rebel Brigadiers, however much our Republican friends may lash themselves into a foam and sweat over them, have nothing to do with the election of a Treasurer in Pennsylvania. The whole question is, whether you shall have a State Treasurer, for the next two years, who shall honestly administer and scrupulously care for the money of the people that shall pass through his hands, or whether you shall have for Treasurer a creature of the lobby's convention, and a restoration of all the speculations and evils practiced upon the treasury of the State before the adoption of the Constitution of 1873.

The County Committee has done and will do all it can till the close of the polls on the evening of the 4th of November, to have a full vote polled. Much rests with the individual voter! His pa. triotism, love of good government, desire for relief from the evils of misrule and bad government should impel him to poll his vote. The committees in the several districts are urged to be active in the discharge of the duties enjoined upon them. When this is done, let the result be what it may, the Democrats of Centre county will have the proud satisfaction of having discharged their duty to the party and the State.

By order of the committee. D. F. FORTNEY, Chairman.

NO GO.

Even poor imbecile, fraudulent Hayes dreams the sweet dream of a second term, and to improve what he considers his chances, he several weeks ago pulled up stakes at Washington with his family and part of his cabinet made up a sort of traveling menagerie, attending county fairs, kissing babies and shaking hands with fond mothers, leaving the government meanwhile to time-honored reputation as the citadel run itself. But Hayes will never again of Pennsylvania Democracy, and prove be President-neither elected nor counted in-if he lives to be a hundred years old. The Republicans as a party and principles, and prepared to sustain those of his own state in particular, are down on him-thoroughly disgusted with him for many reasons, but particularly because he was too niggardly and Let us see to it that he receives it; and mean to contribute anything like a de-against William Allen, he subscribed $1900, but paid only $100 of it that year, and that was when the committee badly needed money and Hayes had just come into possession of a fortune of $150,000.

In 1876, when he was the Republican candidate for President and each state had enough to do with itself, the Ohio Republican committee expected Hayes to come down handsomely-say with about $25,000. The chairman waited on him, explained the situation ed to shell out. He asked a few days time forms, the manner in which they were the way, did I ever pay you the balance of my subscription last year?" "No," said Wikoff. "There is a balance of $900." "I'll pay it now, then," said Haves its strong denunciation of the "attempt | and he wrote a check for the amount. "That was the total amount," added the gentleman who tells the story, "of sale bribery and corruption on the part Hayes's contribution in the Presidenof Republican leaders," and the scorn- tial campaign of 1876," when he him-

But the absurdest thing of all," said chairman Wikoff, "is that Hayes now actually thinks he stands a chance of re nomination. Why, that's what he with brains enough to know dishon- made that Western trip for, and it was for that he spouted all that soft-headed talk to the farmers. He really believes he is popular, and that in the scramble between Sherman, Blaine, and the rest be is likely to be taken up again. He wants the office for the money there is in it. He saves two thirds of the salary and puts it away. He's the most economical man that ever held the office. I don't believe he could get three votes, sir-not three votes-in our del-

Greenback Meeting.

The Greenback meeting in Woodward, last Thursday evening, could by no means be called a turn-out. The small school house was only moderately ulled, while the expected speakers, Hon. Seth H. Yocum and a Mr. Hoover from Bellefonte failed to put in their appearance. After a good deal of waiting and looking-out for the arrival of said gentlemen, those present concluded to run the machine themselves. Mr. John C. Motz was chosen chair-"place at the head of the Advocate the man of the meeting, and after having taken the chair, enlightened the audience with his opinion of the National "knowing that Mr. Barr will under any Greenback system. He closed his address by saying that he would and could not pretend to make a public speech and therefore called on Mr. G. R. Spigelmeyer. This gentleman went more into details for the cause and delivered quite a lively and interesting little address. It is only a pity he treads on such unyielding soil, and spends his intellectual energies for this new pacty. which compares pretty much to the fifth wheel of a wagon. After Spigelmyer's remarks the meeting adjourn-

> The Soldier, Patriot and Statesman Hancock.

General Hancock's friends propose to establish a "Hancock beadquarters" at Washington and will actively push forward the general's claims for the Presidency, as soon as Congress meets. General Hancock is certainly the most available candidate mentioned by the Democrats, and if we are to have a Democratic President in 1881, by all means give us General Hancock-a soldier, patriot and statesman. - Reno-

The Way They Did It.

Every Ohio man in office, and their name is legion, from Hayes down went home to work and vote for their ticket. John Sherman with the money power, and it includes more than an array of national banks, worked and lavished money for the cause, and to further Sherman's chances for presidency. Money from every available source was poured out like water. The low average assessment of ten dollars apiece from each office-holder would yield over a million dollars of a corruption fund.

T'e prospects for the election of the Ilon, D. O. Barr for State Treasurer, grow brighter as the day of contest nears. We have advices from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other cities and many sections of the State, all of which are of the most flattering nature. In Philadelphia the old chiefs of the Ring and corruption, and the minor braves are beginning to look doubtful. and their councils and war dances are not so animated as in the h alcyon days -in the days when Tweedism was rampant and the high scalpers of the tribe were in their palmy glory .- Furmer's

Don't forget it that Daniel O. Barr is the Democratic people's candidate for State Treasurer and that a more honorable and competent man than he is does not live in all Pennsylvania. In the strong Republican county of Allegheny, where he is best known, a large number of honest and independent Republican business men will vote for him, because they know him to be just what he professes to be, and because they know that Butler is the representative and mere tool of Quay, Kemble, Petroff and Co .- Carbon County Demo.

The Way to Talk.

The old "Spirit of Berks" in a committee call says: Whether we win or lose, it is of the highest importance that Old Berks should maintain her to her brethren throughout the State that she is now as ever, faithful to her them against all adversaries. Mr. Barr, our candidate for State Treasurer, deserves the highest vote we can poll. then, come victory, we can claim our full share in it, or come defeat, we can In 1875 when he ran for Governor clear our skirts for all blame of it.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE.

A Family of Four Persons on a Boat Attacked by Negroes—The Husband Shot, the Wife Outraged and the Boat Plundered.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 21.—Information was received this afternoon of a horrible outrage committed last Sunday near Montgomery's Landing, Mississippi, eighteen miles down the river. Mr. and hinted that he (Hayes) was expect- and Mrs. Johnson and their two children, who were on a trading boat, were and when approached again asked : "By attacked by a party of six negroes who fired upon them with shotguns. Two of the bullets grazed Mr. Johnson's head, stunning him. The negroes then outraged Mrs. Johnson, plundered the boat and cut it adrift. Attracted by the cries of the helpless family, the steamer O. W. Pierce went to their assistance and towed their boat to Lawhorn's Landing, nine miles down the

The residents of that vicinity have given every attention to Mrs. Johnson, whose condition is extremely critical. The six negroes were seen leaving the trading boat as the steamer approached. Mr. Johnson came off the Ohio river with his boat three weeks ago.

AN UNUSUAL BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVING has been issued by "Peterson's Magazine" for 1880, to reward persons for getting up clabs. The plate is quite large, 24 Inches by 20, and would ornament even the most refined parlor; for it is executed in the highest style of art : and is such a mezzotint as is sold, at retail, for five dollars. The subject is "WASHINGTON AT PRAYER AT VALLEY FORGE," commemorating one of the most touching incidents of the War of Independence. This patriotic and beautiful mezzotint ought to be in every house in America. It is, we think, the finest that "Peterson" has ever issued, and that is saying a great deal. You can get it, gratis, by getting up a club for "Peterson." Only the enormous circulation of the magazine can explain why the proprietors can afford to give such premiums. "Peterson" is the best and cheapest of the lady's books, the price being but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs. Specimens of the Magazine, to assist in getting up clubs, are sent, gratis, if written for. Now is the time to get up clubs for 1880. Address,
