

Local Department.

—Rev. C. F. Deininger is off on a flying visit to Reading and its friends, this week.

—A number of crossings over streets and alleys have been constructed last and this week. Improvements are ever on the march if it is a slow one.

—A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

—Job work of all kinds done at the JOURNAL Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

—A hunting party from Bealsburg, who had been out hunting in Stone Valley, returned laden down with seven deer. That beats our hunters down here all hollow.

—Wm. P. Gatherman and his estimable lady fitted in to their new house last week. That is right, Villyum, you ought soon to know whether you are a citizen of Sugar Valley or Millheim.

—J. A. Mertz, Esq., who for many years was an acting Justice of the Peace in Lewisburg, departed this life last week. He was one of the substantial men of Lewisburg, respected by all who knew him.

—The Miltonian complains much of rowdiness in that town and thinks it is not at all necessary for every whiffet to carry a concealed pistol. Right, and some stringent measures should be enforced rigidly to abate the evil.

—Our friend A. J. Campbell was the successful candidate for the new toll gate of the Millheim turnpike. He moved into the new toll house last week, but the company does not yet take toll.

—Mr. S. K. Faust just now has the champion sleigh maker—Robert Desler—at work, and is turning out a very fine lot of sleighs, which he is willing to guarantee as to durability and style. Mr. Faust is always ready to give bargains to parties who buy in lots.

—Millheim is now without a barber, Mr. Strayer having left to set up shop in Gorman's Hotel, Bellefonte. Let the vacancy be filled speedily, as we can not very well get along so. We want a good barber who is attentive to his business and a steady sober man besides.

—A large and very tasteful monument was placed at the grave of Mrs. George Durst, on the Centre Hall Cemetery, last week. It is the admiration of everybody that sees it, an ornament to the Cemetery and an honor to Mr. Durst as well as to the builders, Messrs. Deininger & Musser, of the Millheim Marble Works.

—Last Thursday there happened a serious accident at Elk Creek School-house. They were just having recess and the boys enjoyed themselves by wrestling with each other, when one of them, Dan Eisenhuth's little son was thrown down over an embankment, which resulted in a bad fracture of his arm. He is doing pretty well under the circumstances.

—The Best House has changed proprietors. J. H. Myers, a former citizen of Bellefonte, now of Fremont, Ohio, takes charge of the establishment and Mr. Hoppes retires, but keeps the bar and stays in Bellefonte for the present. Penn Bigony, the obliging and gentlemanly clerk also stays.

—If our recollection serves us properly Mr. Myers is one of those pleasant genial fellows that have every body for their friends. We doubt not that the far-famed Best will fully maintain its high prestige under the new management.

—The Phillipsburg Journal has a notice of the sale, by trustee George Taber, Esq., of the whole of the L. C. & S. C. rail road, from Montandon to Tyrone, a distance of eighty-six miles. The road is to be sold with all that belongs to it or hangs about it. $100,000 is to be paid when the road is struck off, and the balance, if any, in thirty days. The sale is to come off at the Merchants' Exchange, Philadelphia, Saturday, Dec. 13, next, 12 o'clock M.

—If the transfer or rather the giving away of our rail road will help its competition, then this sale comes none too soon. What the effect of it will be, however we have no means of knowing.

—Mr. C. Walter, of Buffalo X Roads, brother to our senior, has succeeded in raising a very promising class of young ladies and gentlemen, in Pennsylvania. Mr. Walter is a graduate of Wyoming Commercial College, of Pennsylvania, and is a very fine Penman himself. We have seen many specimens of his writings, but none pleased us so well as those exhibited at the Union County Fair, last summer. These were admired by all who saw them.

—We are happy to see that our young folks take an interest in this beautiful art. It is as much needed as it is neglected, and a few dollars spent in this way, are indeed a good investment.

—Mr. Walter, while here, is ready to fill out family records, photograph albums, birth certificates, &c.

—A fine lot of Germantown wool just received at the Journal Book and Stationery Store.

Communicated.

DEAR SIR: We trust you will be able to accord us sufficient room in your columns to sincerely thank Mr. W. S. Musser, Proprietor of the Millheim Hotel, for the kind reception tendered us by him on Saturday evening last. Per invitation four of us met at the appointed time, not knowing, exactly, what was in store for us. The occasion was an oyster supper, and what ever fond anticipations we may have cherished and indulged in, ere the summons came, to surround the board, all were more than realized. The table resplendent with its glittering array of silver, was rendered more cheerful by the soft rays issuing from seven or eight handsome chandeliers; the plethoric condition of the many dishes attested emphatically the financial soundness of the institution; the attention of waiters was perfect; the bill of fare was replete with good things; oysters served in every style known to the culinary art; delicious confections, tempting cakes, nuts, &c., in fact not to linger too long in enumerating the various details, the satisfaction was complete. Mr. Musser fully demonstrated his entire ability to render his guests not only comfortable but superlatively happy, and we can not but thank her for the many tokens of kindness so gratuitously showered upon us. Mr. Editor, Millheim can not well feel too proud of its hotel, and we extremely wish the managers thereof as well as Millheim in general, abundant success. The venerable Ex-Sheriff Musser again assumed the role of host, and presided with his wonted, nonchalance and dignity. The only statement our joyfully then experienced was the inability of Mr. Musser to be with us, being at the time confined to his room, the cause, his wounded shoulder. May he speedily recover. Hoping that you, Mr. Deininger, may ere long, be as fortunate as we were, I am, Sir, Yours truly,

REPORT OF MILLHEIM PRIMARY SCHOOL for month ending Nov. 18th, 1879. Whole number enrolled—58. No. in attendance during month—46. Average attendance during month—37. Per cent. of attendance during month—90. No. promoted to Grammar School—11. Visitors: Messrs. B. O. Deininger, J. F. House, F. Chamberlin, Jas. M. Gephart, C. Walter and Rev. W. R. Whitney. As will be seen no directors and only two parents have as yet visited the school. Friends, do you consider your presence in the school room undesirable, or do you think your teachers so efficient that any assistance or advice would be unnecessary and out of place?

The attendance has been good and I think some good has been accomplished. No pupils are without absolutely necessary books. I would be pleased to have parents see to it that some of the children spend less time on the streets after dark. Such restraint would certainly tend to improve those pupils not only intellectually, but morally and physically as well.

The conduct in and out of doors may not be what some might desire, but as the school is at least one fourth too large, reasonable persons are willing to make some allowance for what may be seen a lack of discipline. Altogether it is thought the condition of the school is as near what it should be as circumstances will allow; and in order to have all know for themselves I respectfully ask them to come and see.

J. R. VANORHNER, Teacher.

WANTED. We need about 12 to 15 cords of good wood, about 20 bushels of choice apples and about 20 bushels of nice potatoes. Now we are willing to receive all these on subscription and are not particular who of our subscribers will furnish them. If you have more wood, apples or potatoes than money and you owe us on subscription—one, two or more years,—bring them right along and don't wait till we are supplied by others. Any of our subscribers who prefer to pay in this way can do so until further notice.

THE NEXT CENSUS.—The next census will be taken in 1880. Pennsylvania will be divided into ten districts and have ten Supervisors. The Supervisors will be appointed by the President and approved by the Senate. Enumerators are appointed by the Supervisors, and these do the real work and must be done with it in thirty days. Centre will be a part of the ninth district, which will be composed of the following counties: Indiana, Armstrong, Butler, Venango, Clarion, Jefferson, Forest, Elk, McKean, Centre and Clearfield.

DON'T.—Don't fail to read in another column the large advertisement of the BELLEFONTE BEE HIVE STORE, Mr. J. H. Bauland, Proprietor. Mr. Bauland is a business man of the first order, as his large success fully proves. His large sales enable him to sell at a very small profit and this again has the effect to increase custom and sales. We just state our own experience as well as those of many of our neighbors when we say that the BEE HIVE sells cheaper than any other store in Centre county, as far as we know. Not the least attractive feature about the Bee Hive is that that good-looking and obliging chap, A. C. Mingle, is one of his salesmen.

CENTRE HALL NEWS.

At last we have a five cent counter. There is some talk of a new general store. Let it come.

Some of our citizens have made decidedly fine improvements on their houses and yards. Go ahead—let others follow suit.

Three cisterns have lately been built by reason of high water taxes.

A little fuss in a store has cost a little something, and almost took the store to jail. Better behave yourselves boys.

Everybody is delighted with Mrs. Durst's monument. It is considered the most chaste and tasteful monument in this neighborhood.

Letter from Lebanon.

Lebanon, Nov. 14th, 1879.

Dear Editor, My old friend!—To-day I saw Chas. Drews and Frank Stiechler, two of the murderers of old Joseph Rabet, of Indiantown Gap, Lebanon Co., Pa., standing upon the death trap and drop into eternity. I never before saw a man hang by the neck until he was dead, I looked into their cell a few minutes before they were taken from it to the gallows. Before leaving their cells both of them joined heartily in singing the hymn, "O Lamb of God I come." When the procession moved to the Scaffold one of the ministers—of whom there were four present—was reading a prayer in which the prisoners joined until they were on the gallows. The services on the scaffold by the four ministers of different denominations, were very solemn and impressive. The Lord's prayer was repeated, the beautiful hymn—"There is a fountain filled with blood," was sung, and the benediction pronounced, the minister so doing resting his hands on the condemned men's heads. Both prisoners joined in the singing and were very earnest in their prayers. These exercises over the clergymen bade them good bye. A number of friends and acquaintances also ascended the gallows to bid the condemned men farewell. Sheriff Deininger then adjusted the ropes and stepped from the scaffold. Drews, the old man then said to Stiechler:—"Nun geh mir in der Himmel." (Now we are gone to Heaven.)

All being ready at ten minutes past eleven the trap was sprung and two of old Rabet's murderers met their doom. Drews struggled but little and Stiechler more vigorously. The old man was pronounced dead in ten minutes. The young man in thirteen minutes. Stiechler's body was removed to Indiantown Gap, where it will be interred. Drews remains will not find a resting place at his old home, for the minister of the Rising Sun Lutheran Church refused him burial. It was thought that he could be interred in the soldier's cemetery here in Lebanon, but this was refused. This morning, a collection was taken up and funds were procured to enable his wife to have him buried in the Mount Lebanon Cemetery, in this town. C. B. W.

MARRIED.

On the 15th of September last at the Lutheran parsonage, Bellefonte, Pa., by Rev. S. E. Furst, Mr. John I. Marks, of Bellefonte, and Miss Jennie Postman, of Centre Hall.

On the 21st of September last, at the Reformed parsonage, Jacksonsville, Pa., by Rev. Geo. P. Hartzell, Mr. George S. Wolf and Miss Kate Lutz, both of Walker Twp.

On the 6th inst., at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. Warren Mayo, Mr. Foster S. Wolf of Girard, formerly of Aaronsburg, Centre Co., Pa., and Miss Emma Adamson, of Crawford township.

Mr. Wolf has for years been the agent of the Gulf Railroad Company at this place, and Miss Adamson was for a long time a teacher in our public schools. They are a desiring couple and we wish them a long and happy life. A number of guests were present at the wedding and after the ceremony the company sat down to a table laden with good things. In the evening a reception was given at the residence of A. W. Barker. Many presents were received. On Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Wolf commenced housekeeping, living become the owners of the dwelling house formerly occupied by R. H. Layton—Girard (Kan.) Press.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MILLHEIM BANKING CO., MAIN STREET. Millheim, Centre Co., Pa. A. Walter, Cashr. David Krape, Pres.

A. HARTER, AUCTIONEER, Rebersburg, Pa. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

C. A. STURGIS, WATCHES, SILVERWARE, JEWELRY.

From being a Seminary of learning, the old Academy has been transformed into a weaver shop; and from early morning till late at night the sound of the loom may be heard issuing from its classic aisles.

Mrs. Henry Falmer has since June been very ill. She is however, apparently better, and her friends hope soon to see her restored to health.

Mrs. Beckie Murray made a short visit to her home last week. Her friends protest against such visits. They are so short that they cannot get to see her.

Mr. John H. Musser votes to be safe in the house when we have another storm, such as visited us on Friday evening. He thinks it would be a good deal more comfortable than in a buggy and seven miles from home at that.

Mr. Ezra Burd is about again, looking as if the fever had used him rather roughly.

Mrs. Aaron Durst spent a few days at her father's—Mr. Levi Stover. She is improving under the treatment of Dr. Musser.

Miss Mary Bollinger has gone to spend the Winter in Bellefonte.

A party of hunters left for the mountains on Monday morning, hoping for as much success as some other parties have had during the last few weeks. They made a great mistake, though, in leaving Isaac Stover at home and we fear they will find out this was unwise.

The path leading from Front Street to the Lutheran church is in a miserable condition. It is surprising that those who worship in that church, will so long submit to traveling over the worst piece of road to be found.

Messrs. John and Israel Stover, formerly of this place, but now of Michigan, have returned to take a look at the old places and to see the faces of old friends. They look well.

I hear that the JOURNAL BOOK STORE is to have a FIVE CENT COUNTER. Is it true Mr. Editor? [Why, if you must know, yes; only we didn't want it out just yet. All right though.] X. Y.

—THE MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS are turning out some very fine work this season. Monuments, Couches and Headstones of any possible design and price are made here, equal in workmanship and as low in price as can be had anywhere in the state. If you need something to mark the last resting place of a departed friend, you can do no better than by staying right at home and patronizing the Millheim Works.

News Miscellany.

A calculating baker of Reading estimates that 9,000,000 loaves of bread are consumed in that city annually. The best and most nutritious bread is that made from wheat flour. The flour contains in one hundred parts, on the average, 72 parts of starch, 71 parts of gluten, 54 parts of sugar and 12 parts of water, together with gum, phosphates of lime and magnesia, alkaline sulphates and a little chloride of sodium.

You never see a woman button anything that she can pin, and you never see a man pin anything that he can tie with a string. You would have trouble making some men believe that they couldn't tie a button hole into a wrist-band with a piece of twine string.—Hawkeye.

All the Pittsburg mills which had shut down for the lack of water have started up again.

The potato crop along the Lake Erie shore is so heavy that its digging still continues.
