Philadelphia's Reception to Gen. Grant.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25.—The joint special committee of the city councils on the reception of Gen. Grant at a meeting held to-day, authorized its chairman, William Ellwood Rowan, to extend to all military and civic organizations and trades people generally, in the city of Philadelphia and states of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland an invitation to participate in the reception tendered to Gen. Grant by the city of Philadelphia on Tuesday, December 9, 1879. Representatives of organizations are requested to communicate with the committee, which will meet daily in the select council chamber at 1.30 p. m.

From Washington.

Meeting of Congress.

Senate.
WASHINGTON, December 1. — The senate was called to order by Mr. Wheeler at 12 o'clock, and prayer was offered by the chaplain.
Messrs. Anthony and Bayard were appointed as a committee to join a similar committee on the part of the house to wait upon Mr. Hayes and inform him that both houses of congress were organized and ready to receive any communication he might choose to make.
Pending the report of the committee business was suspended.
At 12.35 the committee to await on Mr. Hayes not having reported, on motion of Mr. Thurman a recess of three-quarters of an hour was taken.
At 1.30 p. m. the senate reconvened, and received a message from the house announcing it was in session, and that it had appointed a committee of three to join such committee as might be appointed by the senate to wait upon Mr. Hayes and inform him that congress and convened and was ready to receive any communication he might wish to make.
Mr. Burnside gave notice that after the morning hour to-morrow he would ask leave to call up the joint resolution offered by him at the last session, relating to the proposed inter-oceanic canal for the purpose of making some remarks thereon.
Mr. Wheeler laid before the senate the annual report of the secretary of the treasury. Ordered to be printed and lie on the table.
Business was again suspended for a period.
At 1.45 p. m. the senate committee to wait upon Mr. Hayes reported they had done so, and had been informed that he would at once communicate to congress a message in writing. Immediately after the committee had reported the private secretary appeared and announced that he had been directed to deliver to the senate a message from Mr. Hayes. The message was thereupon received and submitted to the body by Mr. Wheeler.
Upon the conclusion of the reading of the message, Mr. Ferry announced the death of Senator Chandler, and as a mark of respect the senate adjourned.

House of Representatives.

At precisely two o'clock the speaker called the house to order, and after prayer by the chaplain, the roll was called, and showed the attendance of 132 members, there being 56 absentees. The newly elected members from California, Iowa and New York have qualified for office, taking the iron clad oath, and the house took a short recess to enable a committee to wait upon Mr. Hayes and inform him that the house was ready to receive any communication from him.

At 1.50 Mr. Hayes' annual message was transmitted to the house. After being read it was referred to the committee of the whole and the house adjourned.

ANOTHER TRIBUTARY.

The Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad to Pass to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will soon add another line of rails and ties to its long list of branches in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek railroad company, whose bonds it holds in the sum of $2,000,000. In 1877 the people of Penn's valley, one of the richest valleys of the state, with the assistance of the Pennsylvania railroad, opened the now insular road from Lewisburg, on the Northern Central railroad, as far as Spring Mills, in Penn's valley, a distance of forty-two miles, with the intention in the future, should business warrant the scheme, of extending the line to Tyrone, on the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad the entire length of the road to be eighty-four miles. Beyond the completed portion there are about seventeen miles of the road graded, but as yet without superstructures. The original object of the new line was to open up extensive ore banks located in that section of the country, but the business of the country thus far has been limited to the transportation of agricultural products down from Penn's valley and carrying back coal and s'ore goods. The Pennsylvania railroad really built the line by advancing the $2,000,000 to the company and taking their first mortgage bonds for the money so advanced, and the former corporation has had an operating lease of it ever since. But the venture thus far has proved unprofitable, so much so that the unpaid interest on the bonds has accumulated to nearly the face value of the bonds themselves. At last the Pennsylvania railroad company has determined to foreclose the mortgage, wipe out the capital stock, which represents only about $250,000, and assume the absolute ownership and management of the branch. It will be sold at the Philadelphia exchange by James A. Freeman & Co., auctioneers, on the 13th inst., and there is no possibility of any one stepping in to outbid the bondholders, to do which they must relieve the mortgage of the load it now carries.—Harrisburg Patriot.

Additional Locals.

—Philip B. Stover, of Haines township, will offer his entire farm stock and farming utensils at public sale on Wednesday, the 17th of December. Read the bills.
—We see by the Millburg Telegraph that to-day two weeks ago Musser's store in Hartleton was entered by thieves and a number of hats and some "small change" stolen.
—The Union County Teachers' Institute will meet at Lewisburg, Monday, Dec. 13th, and adjourn Friday, Dec. 19th. That's a sensible time in which to hold an institute. Don't consider it at all proper to have it just on and the days before and after Christmas.
—The Journal Book Store is rapidly filling up with goods and the assortment is or will soon be very complete. The house is complete, we have moved, and are now in a condition to give our business our undivided attention. Don't fear to find the door locked—excepting at meal time—when you come, or nobody here to serve you. It is our purpose as it will be our pleasure, to make business boom, and deserve the patronage of the public.
—Schoch, of the Telegraph is a real selfish fellow. He talks of buying the railroad all alone. Now why couldn't he give us a chance too, or at least propose a partnership, the impudent imp?
—The last one of eight crossings was completed the other day. They add much to the convenience of the town and are fully worth all they cost, although we would have preferred to have them considerably nicer and better.
—The MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS are turning out some very fine work this season. Monuments, Couches and Headstones of any possible design and price are made here, equal in workmanship and as low in price as can be had anywhere in the state. If you need something to mark the last resting place of a departed friend, you can do no better than by staying right at home and patronizing the Millheim Works.

—Judge Mayer and wife are at the Hot Springs, Ark. in quest of health.
—Spring Mills' enterprising merchant, Mr. I. J. Grenoble, gives notice that he will be at Coburn Station every Tuesday, buying grain and clover-seed. We presume Mr. G. is prepared to pay the highest market price for everything he buys.
—Did you ever see a five cent, or ten cent counter? If you call at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE, you can see both. It is absolutely astonishing what a large number of small articles, both useful and ornamental, can be bought for five or ten cents. But we can not even begin to enumerate, therefore please come and see.

"PETERSON'S MAGAZINE"

is on our table in advance, and is a marvel of beauty, even for "Peterson." There are two steel engravings, one called "The Pet Pigeons," an exquisite affair, and the other a title page, representing a beautiful little child, asleep in his crib, with a rosebud in his hand, after a picture by the celebrated English artist, Millais. The colored fashion, also a steel plate, is one of the loveliest we have ever seen. Then there is a treble-sized colored pattern, in Berlin work, for an Ottoman, or Chair Seat, a Christmas gift given extra, to the subscribers of "Peterson." The literary contents are even better than usual, and this is saying a great deal; Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Anna S. Stephens, Frank Lee Bennett, and the author of "The Second Life," etc., etc., being among the contributors. One of the best and most amusing stories we have ever read, and by a comparatively new author ("Peterson," somehow is always finding out the best new authors,) is called "Baby Stealing." The full-size paper pattern given as a SUPPLEMENT, is for the latest style of winter cloak. Beyond all doubt, this is the cheapest and best of the lady's books, for it is only two dollars a year to single subscribers, with great deductions to clubs. In fact, for nine dollars, six copies will be sent for 1880, with an extra copy for getting up the club. Specimens are mailed, gratis, if written for, to those wishing to get up a club. Now is the time to get up clubs for next year. Address, CHAS. J. PETERSON, 305 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

A GOOD HOME AT PUBLIC SALE.—The old house stand of the late Capt. Henry Smith, situated in Penn's Valley, midway between Millheim and Spring Mills, half a mile north of the latter place, and on the railroad road, containing in all 150 acres, more or less, will be offered at public sale on the premises, on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1879. Immediate possession can be had.
About 50 acres of timberland, on Brush Mountain, east of the above, will be sold to suit purchasers. The remaining 100 acres, of which 20 acres are cleared and under cultivation, and at least as much more can be cleared, will be sold together.
There are two dwelling houses, a good bank barn and other outbuildings on the premises. A fine never-failing spring is convenient to home and barn, and a large variety of fruit—apples, peaches, plums, cherries, grapes, etc., are also on the ground. Altogether it is a very desirable home.
A lot of household goods will also be sold at the same time and place.
Sale to commence at 10 o'clock a. m., when terms and conditions will be made known by SAUNDERS, SMITH.
