Our Washington Letter.

Washington, D. C. Dec. 13, 1879. The most significant event of yesterday was the refusal of the Senate Finance Committee to take up for consideration Senator Bayard's resolution.

The desire to get through necessary work and adjourn was shown, too, in the passage yesterday of the Pension and Fortification Appropriation bills.

There have been two propositions before Congress to turn over to educational institutions certain unclaimed monies of colored soldiers.

Both Houses have acted favorably on the resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Interior, through the commission of five persons, or directly, to enter into an agreement with peaceful Utes Indians to give up their lands in Colorado and settle in some place out of that State and out of the Indian Territory.

It seems to be settled that Mr. Hayes will appoint Ex-Gov. Bullock, of Massachusetts, Minister to England.

Proposed Constitutional Amendments meet with little favor with this Congress. It will take a century apparently, for the Courts to decide just what the lately adopted amendments mean, and a great number of Congressmen seem anxious to add to the confusion.

It is entirely unfair that two of the Radical repeaters in Philadelphia should be punished, while many others of the same ilk go scot free.

Christmas.

The glad some day that is celebrated throughout christendom as the anniversary of the Saviour's birth, is again near at hand and it becomes us to celebrate it in a proper manner.

If any religious services be had—and these are eminently fitting—they should largely partake of the nature of praise and thanks meetings.

The custom of holding Sunday School festivals is a very beautiful and commendable one. Many persons doubt the practical and lasting good of these entertainments, but we are not among the number.

Family re-unions and festivals should be more encouraged, on Christmas. Our social qualities and family feelings should be more thoroughly developed.

Nor is it doing enough to favor our own families only, with kindness and presents; it is our duty also, to look around us and aid such as are in sickness, distress or want.

That ignorant and benighted city, Boston, down in Massachusetts, elected a Democratic mayor last week, by nearly 2000 majority.

Rev. Dr. John Hall, of New York is said to have received about $10,000 in wedding fees during the present year.

Senator Don Cameron is to be the chairman of the Republican National Committee, vice Cornell, who was elected Governor of New York.

A KIND REQUEST. It is now again the season of the year when people who have system in their business, pay their small debts, among which is their newspaper subscription.

Business is booming at the JOURNAL BOOK and STATIONERY STORE. Everybody comes to see the Five Cent Counter, and of course everybody sees "just exactly" one or several articles that they have been wanting this long time.

Nearly everybody that goes to Lock Haven stops at the Mammoth Bee Hive store, to buy a supply of dry goods; and if people go there once they are sure to "call again", so pleased are they with the popular Bee Hive, its gentlemanly proprietor and all that hang around and about the establishment.

It is entirely unfair that two of the Radical repeaters in Philadelphia should be punished, while many others of the same ilk go scot free.

HOLIDAYS.

The glorious holidays draw nigh When festive feelings will run high, And turkeys, that escaped alive The slaughter of Thanksgiving Day Will not so easily survive The carnage dire of Christmas.

And every individual part Shall vanish in the perfect whole, Ay, load the tables till they groan Beneath the weight of festive cheer, And pass the last days of the year In dance and song of merry tone; But oh, while your own hearts are bright And your own fires are burning bright, Do not forget the suffering poor Who through the winter must endure Distress of hunger and of cold Of which the half has not been told.

Do not forget the suffering poor Who through the winter must endure Distress of hunger and of cold Of which the half has not been told.

A GOOD HOME AT PUBLIC SALE.—The old home stead of the late Capt. Henry Smith, situated in Penn Valley, midway between Millheim and Spring Mills, just a mile north of the turn table road, and 2 1/2 miles from the rail road, containing in all 150 acres, more or less, will be offered at public sale on the premises, on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27TH, 1879.

There are two dwelling houses, a good bank barn and other outbuildings on the premises. A fine never-failing spring is convenient to house and barn. A large variety of fruit—apples, peaches, cherries, grapes, etc.—are also on the ground. Altogether it is a very desirable home.
