It is with sincere regret that we announce the resignation of Rev. Dr. Calder, President of Pennsylvania State College. Dr. Calder was eminently fitted for the high and responsible position, and under his judicious management the college attained to a standing and fame never before approached. We know not the reasons that induced Dr. Calder to resign, but feel confident that they were of a strong, controlling nature, for he loved his work very much. Prof. Wickersham is spoken of as his probable successor.

Making Presents.

The custom of making presents to relatives and other friends is becoming more general every year, and this is certainly an evidence of an advancing civilization and a refining culture. An utterly selfish person never thinks of steeft a thing as making any one around him or dependent upon him, happy, by a reasonable, well chosen present. It is just here that wealthy people, as a rule, deny themselves one of the sweetest pleasures of life. He who has not yet learned, practically, that it is more blessed to give than to receive, has made but little advance in the higher life.

If presents should serve a good purpose with the recipients and be a source of satisfaction to the giver, it is necessary that some discretion be exercised in the manner of bestowal, as well as in the selection. The relation and means of the giver, the necessities or tastes, age or condition, of the receiver should all be considered in making presents. For instance it would be highly improper to offer a gold watch to a starving man. If a man presents his toiling, care-worn wife with a cheap dress, or his son with a pair of boots—and this is just the fashion of some—he takes a mean advantage of the happy holiday season by presenting what both law and gospel compel him to provide. Make your wife a present of what she doesn't absolutely need. This will be all the more appreciated and you will feel much better than if you dodge and skulk that which ought to afford you a pleasure.

Children, especially young children, are easily satisfied. A trifling sum expended in a few toys, books, candies &c., spread a vast amount of happiness and pleasure through the entire house. We will remember the first toy watch we received from a dear sister, when a little boy. A farm would not have given us half the pleasure. We should all make presents, but in doing so should exercise some judgment.

In satisfaction of the foreclosure of a mortgage the road and appurtenances of the Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek railroad were sold on Saturday by public auction, at the Philadelphia exchange, to Strickland Kness, for $50,000. The road is eighty-six miles in length, and extends from the junction with the Philadelphia & Erie railroad, in Chillisqueague township, Northumberland county, through the counties of Northumberland, Union, Mifflin, Centre, Huntingdon and Blair to connect with the Penna. R. R. near Tyrone, Blair Co. The purchaser represents the Penna. R. R. Co., which will at once reorganize the road and extend it westward.—Patriot Dec. 15.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS.

Another cold snap. Like the change very well.

A wedding in town, Tuesday night. Jerome B. Stambach is the happy man and there is a lady whose name is not quite so familiar—likely you'll hear it, Mr. Editor.

Our boys seem to enjoy mud as heartily as a duck enjoys water. They play out doors until ten o'clock, even when it is raining.

We did not use to grant that Millheim excelled us in anything, but we all envy you the nice side walks that extend almost from end to end, in your town. Either the spirit of improvement has taken hold of your people, or they are afraid of "the strong arm of the law."

Dr. P. T. Musser made a hasty trip to Philadelphia last week. Took Mrs. Daniel Breon down for treatment, but his own opinion, that the case was a hopeless one, was confirmed. He brought her home with him again.

Mrs. Howard Homan and her little son have gone to spend a few weeks at her old home. Mr. Homan's mother is spending the winter with him.

The "two Alices" spent Saturday and Sunday in the loop, visiting Mrs. Will Spangler.

Mr. Emanuel Cronmiller has moved into Mr. Michael Harper's house. Their own is vacant.

Mr. Jared Harper and lady, from Bellefonte, have been in town for a few days.

Miss Lizzie Huston went to Lewisburg, to attend a soiree at the Seminary, and to take part with her class, in the entertainments.

Some of our wanderers are expected home, to spend the holidays, and we hope to be able to help them spend them pleasantly.

Mr. Morris made a lively time of Mr. Harper's sale. A large amount of goods was sold in the afternoon, and everything brought quite a fair price. It is something new, in our vicinity, to have a sale "rushed" at such a rate.

T. J. Mingle is employed by Stoyer & Kurtz, to buy up hides. Mr. Editor, if I just "happen" to be in Millheim on Christmas day, could I get a bite or so of your turkey? [Certainly, John, several bites and all the skin's and nice things thrown in, Come along. Ed.]

Bellefonte had a spelling bee the other week and the result proved that D. S. Keller, Esq., is the boss speller of that town, while Wes Gephart was just a little wee bit behind Dan.

TOLL RATES.—One of the directors of the Millheim Turnpike Company the other day furnished us with the toll rates on the new turnpike to Coburn Station. The several sums named are based on a distance of five miles, which would make the round trip from here to the rail road the distance one way being a trifle over 2 1/2 miles. For any distance less than five miles a sum less in proportion, will of course be charged: For every score of hogs or sheep 5 cts.; score of cattle, 10 cts.; every horse and his rider, or led horse, 5 cts.; every sulkey or chaise with one horse and two wheels, 6 cts.; with two horses, 9 cts.; every chariot, coach, phaeton or deadborn, with one horse and four wheels, 10 cts.; with two horses, 12 cts.; for any of the vehicles last mentioned with four horses, 20 cts.; every other carriage of pleasure under whatever name it may go, the like sums, according to the number of wheels and horses, every stage wagon with two horses, 12 cts.; every stage with four horses, 20 cts.; every sleigh—three cts. for each horse drawing the same; every sled, 2 cts. for each horse drawing the same; every cart or wagon whose wheels shall be less than four inches, four cts. for each horse drawing the same; every cart or wagon whose wheels shall be four and not exceeding seven inches 2 cts. for every horse drawing the same, if over seven inches, 1 cent for each horse drawing the same.

News Miscellany.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.—The gross receipts of the Reading Railroad Company, including those of the Reading Coal and Iron Company, for the month of October, 1879, were $2,577,113.50 making the total for the year thus far $22,895,446.15; the total up to the same time 1878 was $18,616,093.28.

SCORNING LONGER to remain bound to the chariot wheels of culchad Boston, the proud folk of New York have arisen in their majesty and have with one voice proclaimed: "Shall we longer be the slaves of these dogs of the Down-east? Go to! We also will have culcha, and it shall be a culcha all our own!" And they have gone to work in dead earnest. The prophet of the new dispensation is Mr. James H. Stebbins, Jr., and he has begun operations by delivering a lecture upon "Some Few Azobenzol Compounds: Including Azobenzol-trinitro-ox-benzol, Azobenzol-tri-ox-benzol, Azobenzol-ox-carboxybenzol, Azosulphoxybenzol-phlorogucin, Diamidazo-tolol, Diamidazo-naphthaline-hydrochlorate, and Azobenzol-methylsulphoxybenzol." Boston is aghast at this bold departure and has telegraphed the Rev. Cook to come on at once.

GEORGE T. MILES was committed by the Major of Harrisburg yesterday to answer a charge of collecting money under false pretences. Miles for some days has been victimizing the clergy of the central part of the State by representing that he was collecting funds for the benefit of the family of a miner who was killed in an accident a few days ago. Four Altoona clergymen were swindled.

THE Germantown Telegraph says in 1772 wheat was worth $75 per bushel in this state in Continental money. During the war of 1812, when most of our ports were blockaded, wheat reached a very high figure, and land in the vicinity of Germantown suitable for growing the cereal sold as high as $1,000 per acre! In 1862 and 1863, during the dark days of the rebellion our farmers obtained as much as $3.50 per bushel for that grain. It cost them much more to raise the crop than at present, on account of the scarcity of the field hand and hired help of every kind.

THE SAME OLD STORY.—Frank Shaub, of Faeleysville Lancaster county, aged 45 years, having a wife and several small children, was literally cut in two while stealing a ride on a freight train on Monday afternoon. The accident occurred near the Little Conewago bridge, at which point the coupling broke, when Shaub fell from the bumper and was killed as above stated. A man named Overly was riding with him, says the Examiner and Express.

AN enraged steer at Hanover a few days ago, caught a ten year old son of Constable Jacob Bange's, in one of its horns, penetrating the jaw and tearing open the cheek. The lad died profusely, but is now doing well as can be expected from the serious nature of the wound.

COLORED JURY COMMISSIONER.—A colored man was chosen Jury Commissioner in Washington county, Pa., at the late election. He is the first of his race elected to office in that county.

PRISONERS WHIPPED.—Five prisoners were whipped by the Sheriff in the jailyard, at Now Castle, Del. last week, all convicted at the last term of Court of larceny, and each received twenty lashes.

DESTRUCTIVE STORM.—St. Louis, Dec. 10. A storm passed over the town of Renick, Randolph county, yesterday evening. The residence of Bird Pite was torn to pieces, every member of the family being more or less injured, and Mr. Pite fatally. The house of Joseph Patricks was blown down and Mrs. Wright, a visitor, received injuries from which she died last night. The dwelling house of Noah Burkhead was demolished and Mrs. Burkhead seriously wounded. Several other houses were considerably damaged and fences, trees, etc., destroyed.

GEORGIA'S WHEAT CROP.—The announcement is made that for the first time in the history of Georgia, the local mills find wheat in sufficient abundance to run them without drawing supplies of wheat from the North.

Rev. Mr. Fonk sued the Presbyterian church at Northumberland for a certain amount of his salary. The arbitrators on the case awarded him $138.50. The suit was brought for $439, the amount he claimed as due him on salary.

The Philadelphia mint is coining eagles at the average rate of $200,000 daily. It is expected that the total coinage of this month will reach $10,000,000.

A family residing near Congruity, Westmoreland county, were all poisoned slightly by drinking cider in which a copperhead snake had gotten by some means and been drowned.

A man in Reading lived 42 years in the same house, during which time he paid $4,500 in rent, a sum sufficient to have purchased a good house.

That the conflagration that is to consume the world has begun is believed by many residents of Reading, Pa. While some gentlemen were shooting on the farm of Henry Miller, near that city, one of the party killed a partridge, which fell in an adjacent field. To the surprise of the gentlemen his dog refused to fetch the bird, and he went for it himself; but at the spot where the bird had fallen he suddenly sank several feet in a bed of fire and ashes. The burning tract is a square in length and half a square width. Miller says the fire began burning about three weeks ago, and travels several feet a day. It emits no smoke excepting now and then when a turf of grass is being consumed, or when trees are burning, but the heat is intense. The fire has extended into a green wheat field, which is gradually being destroyed. The roots of oak trees burn off, and some trees two feet and a half in diameter have fallen over.

Mr. Van Duffy is a bachelor, residing at San Jose, Cal., with whom his married sister left her baby for a few hours. He had hard work amusing the child, and at last lit upon the expedient of tying it up to one end of a long pole and holding it up to a tree, where it could suck the plums as they hung on the branches. The infant died from swallowing the stones, and its inventive uncle is being prosecuted for malicious mischief.

NELLIE JOHNSON of St. Louis is a diminutive woman who weighs only fifty pounds. Nevertheless, being insulted by a young man in the street the other day, she whipped out a pocket knife and plunged the blade into his breast. He escaped with his life only because the blade was a small one.

HENRY BOYLY of Monmouth, Ill., had murder in his heart, but lacked courage. In order to overcome his cowardice, he bought a quart of whiskey, and drank enough of the liquor, as he said, to brace himself up for the crime. Then he shot and killed his enemy.

THE Juniata Sentinel notes the fact that there is not a Presbyterian congregation in Snyder county. That's a fact. None. We all came across With the death company, the best company That ever came across from the old country.—Sellingpost Times.

On the 12th inst., in Millheim, Jonathan Philips, aged 84 years, 10 months and 8 days.

On Sunday the 14th the remains of the deceased were interred in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg, upon which occasion the Rev. John Tomlinson preached a very interesting and instructive sermon in the German language. A large concourse of relatives and friends, from Philadelphia, were present.

Mr. Philips was born in Schuylkill county, Pa., and resided here all the time, except a few years that he lived on his farm in Nitany valley. He was well and widely known as a man of sterling honesty, industrious and frugal habits. Coming to Pennsylvania a poor boy he succeeded by years of toil and strict economy, to amass a respectable fortune. He belonged to a former rather than the present generation, and his hoist of property was the result of his own industry and a class growing less, unfortunately, every year.

Jonathan Philips had his faults, as all poor humanity has, but he had his virtues, too. His kindness will be gratefully remembered by many, and we feel sure that not a few hearts and voices will unite with ours when we say of him, "Peace to his ashes."
