The Millheim Journal.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 29, 1880

P. C. DEININGER, - - - EDITOR.

R. A. BUMILLER, - - ASSISTANT EDITOR.

Local Department.

—O for a beautiful white snow!

—Job work of all kinds done at the JOURNAL Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

—A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office. tf.

—A splendid line of Family and Pocket Bibles just received at the Journal Book Store, very cheap. Call and see.

—Jacob Emerick, Esq., of Penns Creek, left on Monday morning for Missouri in quest of a new home. Hope Jacob will find what he is after.

—Mr. John Zeigler, of Haines township, has purchased a farm in Nittany valley, below Jacksonville, and expects to move on it in the spring.

—Wonder when people will be satisfied about the weather. In summer there was no end to complaining about the dryness and everybody is out of humor now because of the rain.

NOT LEAVING.—In order to answer many questions at once, as well as to contradict an untrue and injurious rumor, we are authorized to state that Stam's store is not going to leave in the spring. Both Rus. and the store are content to stay. That's all.

—The five cent counter at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE was not established for the holiday season only, but will be kept up during the year. The many five cent articles of use and beauty are ready for our friends and the public all the time, and

"DON'T YOU FORGET IT."

—On the presidential question the Republican county committee stands thus: Blaine, 22; Grant, 4; Sherman, 1. Credit Mobiler seems to be up, just now. Several weeks ago it was all Grant.

SALES.—E. R. Wolf, Penn township, Wed., Feb. 18th. Farm stock, implements and household goods.

Dr. P. T. Musser, Executor of Mrs. Harriet Breon, decd. Personal effects of decedent, at residence of Benjamin Stover, Haines township, Friday, Feb. 13th.

—Patent right men are busy again in several sections of the state practicing sharp on farmers. If people would but make up their minds to have nothing to do with these scoundrels the business would soon stop of itself. We hope our farmers may fight shy of them.

—How cheering it is to receive a letter from an old and valued friend, from whom you had no direct intelligence for a long time. And this was our feeling exactly when last week we had such a friendly epistle from Rev. H. C. Holloway, one of the Aaronsburg boys of yore. Mr. Holloway now serves the Lutheran congregation at Newville, Cumberland Co., Pa., and has not visited his native town and valley for years, but thinks he may come before very long. Hope he will.

—A grand musical and variety entertainment will be given by the Millheim Cornet Band in the Town Hall, at Millheim, on Saturday evening, February 7th, 1880. The programme will consist of Choruses, Vocal and Instrumental Quartettes, Cornet and Piccolo Solos, Piccolo, Violin and Cornet Duetts, Comic Speeches, Tableaux, Pantomimes, and will be concluded with a laughable farce, entitled "A Race for a Dinner," rendered by ten characters. Ample preparations are being made to make this the Grand Musical Entertainment of the Season. New and expensive sceneries have been expressly provided for the occasion. All lovers of music and mirth are most cordially invited to attend. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents. Doors open at 6½ o'clock, performance begins at 7½ o'clock.

For the Journal.

An Important Matter.

Mr. Editor:—If you have room in the JOURNAL for a small article, I will through your columns draw the attention of the public to our Cemetery.

I will not now find fault with the manner in which the Cemetery was laid out at first, nor with the careless, negligent way in which it was conducted up to this time, but I have reference to the absolute necessity of enlarging it. There is not and has not been for several years a single lot for sale; all are taken up long ago, but whether all are paid for is another question.

The company should be re-organized incorporated, and the Cemetery enlarged to at least twice its present size.

There are many families in and around town who have no place to bury their dead on any of the grave yards in the neighborhood, nor can they buy such right in the Millheim Cemetery, for the reason before stated, that all the plots are disposed of long ago. This is why an enlargement has become imperative.

I have now "opened the question" and wait to see if anything will be done in the matter.

OBSERVER.

"OBSERVER" touches a very sore spot in our community and every resident citizen should feel mortified at the manner in which our City of the dead has been managed, or mismanaged. We have repeatedly called attention to to the dilapidated condition of the grave yard, but have utterly failed to excite any interest for a better spirit and management. The regular annual meetings and elections have even been neglected for several years. We doubt whether the company has a single officer to-day whose term has not expired long since

Let "Observer's" suggestion be agitated, acted upon, until our Cemetery is enlarged, cleared up and beautified, and thus become an honor to the town, instead of a burning reproach as is now the case.

Who will move in the matter?

The Concert of the Millheim Cornet Band will come off next week, and everybody that loves music and fun should attend, as it will be the best treat, ever seen in these regions,

CONCERNING THE CENSUS.—The penalties for obstructing the census takers, who begin their labors on the first Monday in June, are severe. The law says:

"All persons above the age of twenty-one years who shall refuse to furnish the information required by the supervisor or enumerator shall pay a sum not exceeding $100 to be recovered in an action of debt. Presidents, Directors or other officials of private corporations who refuse to furnish information required of them are made liable to a penalty not to exceed $10,000."

Only two weeks are allowed for the completion of the census. The compensation to the enumerators is as follows: Two cents for each living inhabitant; two cents for each death reported; ten cents for each farm; fifteen cents for every manufactory, which is to be full for all services, and no mileage or traveling expenses. The subdivision assigned to each enumerator must not exceed 4,000 inhabitants.—Exchange.

Don't forget the Band Concert on Saturday of next week.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS.

Miss Stevenson and Mr. Swartz, of Nittany valley are the guests of Mr. D. Lenker.

The meeting in the Evangelical church has been in progress for some time and has met wtih moderate success. Hope it may yet be the means of great good.

The Reformed congregation is still without a pastor. They have been in correspondence with a number of ministers and hope to secure a pastor by Spring, at farthest.

Rev. J. G. Shoemaker is said to be on his way hither, and his visit is looked forward to with a great deal of eagerness.

Almost had a fire, last week, but it amounted to no more than a burning chimney. Succeeded in frightening a few people pretty well, and then obligingly went out.

We have had lovely weather since this month came in. Some days have been so fine that we found it hard to realize that it was our usually cold, ill-behaved old friend January, who was treating us so well. X. Y.

ECHOES FROM COBURN.

Mr. Geo. Bower was kept in doors several days last week in consequence of a sprained knee; but is now able to go about again as usual.

There are several good-looking widowers at Coburn, and as many better looking old maids up along Pine Creek. Judging from present prospects there will be a "match" before long; and in view of such an event it will perhaps, not be improper to remark that all cake, turkey &c., &c., sent to editors and others will be very gladly received.

A number of articles of clothing were taken from Jacob W. Moyer's back yard without the knowledge or consent of the owner. The thieves have been "spotted," and if the stolen property is not returned within one week, they will be brought to speedy and certain grief.

Solomon Ettlinger, Esq., is shipping large quantities of pork. Sol is an industrious and enterprising business man, always endeavoring to acquaint himself with the details of his business. He has just begun the study of the Roman Catholic Catechism which he says all pork dealers should do. Undoubtedly the Catechism will reveal an important fact in the pork trade.

Mr. John M. Stover has in his possession a cat which, he says, is over twenty-one years of age. This is certainly a good old age for a cat. Old enough to vote or die, or both. But she still enjoys good health and attacks a rat with all the native vigor of the feline species.

This aged cat has lived through an eventful period of American history. She was, no doubt quietly watching for rats in the barn when the bombardment of Fort Sumpter began. She may have heard of the great hero of the war, of his victories at Forts Henry and Donaldson, of his receiving the surrender of the Confederate army, of his being twice elected to the presidency, of his tour around the world and of the great "boom" on his return.

I say she has lived through all this, but she will not live to see him become chief magistrate of this nation again if she lives to be as old as Methuselah. ["And so you all say." Ed]

XENAGORAS.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Mr. Fred Zettle, we are sorry to say lost his pocket book containing $15 in greenbacks with other papers of value. $5 reward to the finder. Hope Mr. Z. will get his money again.

It was an unlucky week as a Miss Jamison also had the misfortune to loose her money purse; what loss was sustained has not yet been ascertained.

The Grangers meeting was very good. Col. Weaver of Milesburg and Deputy Rhone addressed the meeting. The singing was superb, J. F. Rarick presiding at the organ.

Rev. Whitney is still holding the protracted meeting on the hill, where much good is being done. Eight persons united with the church on Monday evening.

The Musical Convention last week was very well attended and by the united and untiring energy of the committee it was a perfect success although the weather was very unpleasant. The following are the names and addresses of singers who took an active part:

The Convention under the direction of Prof P. Meyer, with Miss Ada Fisher of Boalsburg, Pianist, and Miss Cora Murray, Organist, could not but give entire satisfaction to all as they are all fully competent to perform the part assumed. Prof's. Smith & Grenoble gave us some of their artistic violin music, which was very good. The last piece but not by any means the least was performed by Mrs. Durst of Tyrone which was the capping of the climax; she was applauded fully three minutes when the lady acknowledged the applause by rising and bowing to the audience which was a very large one. The house was crowded to its utmost. Hope the lady may come again and favor us with her music. Financially the convention was also a success, as the committee report a nice little surplus. Come again. Bunnell & Aikens of Bellefonte furnished the musical instruments.

YONEY.

News Miscellaney.

It is the opinion of physicians in the northern part of the state that eating snow has much to do with the spread of diphtheria.

The Selinsgrove Tribune says that George Weirich, after serving five years and several months in the eastern penitentiary for the murder of Dr. P. R. Wagonseller, in September, 1878, returned to his home in that place, last Tuesday evening.

DON'T DUN ON POSTAL CARDS.—To dun a debtor on a postal card makes the creditor sending it liable to a criminal prosecution. It has been decided by the supreme court of Ohio to be unlawful. The court wisely held that anything so written that it is liable to injure the credit or reputation of any one is a crime that the writer should be held strictly accountable for damages. The decision was made in the case of a man who dunned for an old account on a postal card, and in that manner made the matter public to the detriment of the latter's credit elsewhere.—Ex.

Erastus J. Burkert, who is said to be a native of Centre county, Pa., and who at present must live in the vicinity of Chicago, is reported in the Chicago Tribune to have performed the wonderful feat of writing 7,606 words, on an ordinary postal card. The words written include the fifth, sixth and seventh chapters of St. Matthew and the first, second, third, fourteenth and fifteenth chapters of Ecclesiastes. This is the greatest feat of its kind on record.—Lewisburg Journal.

Guess that chap is our own Lieut. Rast Burkert, formerly of Rebersburg, and 'tis the first word we heard of him this long time.

Clay Rice, an old hunter of Lyon county, Ky., went over into the Missouri swamps, back of the town of New Madrid, a few weeks ago, and there met with an extraordinary run of luck in deer shooting. He, with his son and a companion of the latter, killed 93 deer in as many hours. Rice ascribes his success to a sheet of water under which the whole country, by reason of recent storms, rested. At various points in the swamp lands, small islands or ridges stuck up just above the overflow, and upon these islands the deer congregated. Shortly after the arrival of Rice and his fellows, a cold snap covered the water with a thick sheeting of ice, and as the deer were unable to run over the slippery surface the hunters found every advantage in their favor. Rice on one occasion killed eight royal bucks without moving from his tracks, and on another two of the party having hemmed in a herd of fifty, killed eighteen of them. Six of the eighteen were caught without a shot, as they fell on the ice and remained there, though resisting frantically, until their throats had been slit with a bowie. Many of the incidents of the hunt were exciting in the extreme, and no painting could do justice to the picturesqueness of some of the scenes.

A MURDERER'S REMORSE.—Milwaukee, Jan. 22. This afternoon W. W. Nottingham, who was employed in Ashenman & Co's cigar manufactory under the name of Parker, appeares at the Central Police Station and asked to be taken into custody for murder. He stated that six years ago he shot and killed one John Gaylor in a street fight in Norfolk, Va., though the shot was intended for another man. During six years' wandering in all parts of the country the face of his victim has been constantly before him, and he now wants to be taken back to Norfolk and punished for the murder. His statement was telegraphed to Norfolk and the authorities of that city have requested his detention until a requisition can be secured.

THE CURTIN-YOCUM CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.—Washington, Jan. 21. Representative Springer, chairman of the sub-committee charged with the Curtin-Yocum contested election case, says in addition to what has already been stated in these dispatches, that they will require further time to examine the record in this complicated case, and it is now doubtful whether they will recommend an election by the people. That the inclination of the committee is in favor of this course, but it has been found impracticable to complete the case in time to have the election take place in February, and they doubt whether it would be desirable to order another election at a later period. This may result in the committee meeting the issue directly, and determining whether they will seat Mr. Curtin or allow Mr. Yocum to continue in his seat. This latter view of the question, however, ex-Governor Curtin's friends do not desire, as they prefer that the case shall be referred back to the people, and have presented an earnest request to that effect.

A fox chase in Lancaster county wound up in a free fight, in which fifteen men were engaged, many receiving black eyes and bloody noses. The fox escaped.

IRELAND'S DISTRESS.—Dublin, Jan. 23. At a meeting of the Mansion House Committee for Irish Relief yesterday the Rev. Dr. Duggan, Lord Bishop of the Diocese of Clonfert, said that the distress in his diocese was pressing and aggravated, and that instant relief was required. He deprecates the restrictions of the Board of Works, under which very few people could obtain loans. The committee made grants for relief amounting to $18,400, including $5,000 to the Central Committee of County Donegal. It was intimated that $5,000 each would be granted in five western counties to the Central Committees, comprising the Bishops of both churches, the members of Parliament, and all clergymen and physicians.

A deputation was appointed to wait on the Lord Lieutenant and the Chief Secretary for Ireland, urging the Government to provide seed for the small farmers. The Corporation of Cork propose to ask, at the next meeting of the Committee, a loan of £100,000 for the carrying out of an extensive scheme of sewerage and paving. A large amount of additional employment is being afforded by Corporation and the Harbor Board.

THE Cincinnati Times says that the Democratic National Convention will be he held in that city.

POOR Hayes is not even mentioned as a possible candidate for President.

DIED.

On the 11th inst., in Madisonburg, Hannah Bickle, widow, aged 79 years, 10 months and 27 days.

On the 22nd in Millheim, Reuben Franklin, son of P. P. and Rebecca Leitzell, aged 1 year, 1 month and 4 days.

On the 22nd inst., in Millheim, John N., son of Elisha C., and Sarah J. Campbell, aged 21 years, 3 months and 6 days.

John was one of the few who had no enemies; every person was his friend in as much as he harmed no one. He was always jovial and merry. His death caused more sad hearts, and a greater vacancy, than the death of most any other young man of his age in town would have done. From his childhood up he has been a warm friend and faithful attendant of Sabbath school and church, his place being very seldom vacant. For the last four years he has not missed his sabbath school when able to attend, and was always there in time. No need to wait on him. During his illness the constant yearning of his heart was to be restored and be able to attend. The Evangelical Sabbath school of which he was such a faithful member, deeply mourns his departure and sympathizes with his parents, brother and friends, in their sad bereavement. In memorial of him whom they loved so dearly, the school attended his funeral in a body, conducting the singing. After the sermon the school formed in procession in front of the church and headed the corpse to the cemetery, where, during the singing of an appropriate hymn by the school, his remains were laid at rest. His pall bearers were all members of his sabbath school. His death has caused a vacancy in a happy family, that will long mourn over his absence in their circle. He died in peace. May all the young people of this town imitate his example in being punctual at sabbath school and church, and manifest a life attentive disposition while there, and their latter end may be peace. D. L. Z.
