Bring That Wood You Promised Us.

Job work of all kinds done at the JOURNAL Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

Tickets for the Band Concert next Saturday evening can be obtained at the Journal Book Store, Stam's store and C. A. Sturges' Jewelry Store.

A splendid line of Family and Pocket Bibles just received at the Journal Book Store, very cheap. Call and see.

All correspondence must reach us on Tuesday at the latest, to insure insertion the same week. We prefer it on Monday.

QUIZ. Your letter reached us on Wednesday when our forms were already made up.

SALES.—E. R. Wolf, Penn township, Wed., Feb. 18th. Farm stock, implements and household goods.

Dr. P. T. Musser, Executor of Mrs. Harriet Breon, decd. Personal effects of decedent, at residence of Benjamin Stover, Haines township, Friday, Feb. 18th.

P. B. Stover's sale of personal property will come off at the old Neidigh farm in Haines Twp., Wednesday, Feb. 25th. Some fine horses, wagons and implements and a large lot of household goods will be sold. See bills.

Everybody seems to be going to the Band Concert next Saturday evening. Secure your tickets and seats in time as it will be well attended.

The Central Mfg. Co., of Lewisburg, expect to build several hundred more reapers this season than their usual number. They expect an increased demand for their machines, which have no superior in the market.

J. O. Deininger of Centre Hall, recently sold his new brick house at that place to Mr. Simon Harper, of Bellefonte, for $1800. Good for Yoney. Now build another.

The Lewisburg, Centre & Spruce Creek Rail Road is no more; it is now the Lewisburg and Tyrone Rail Road—a much shorter and better name.

Next Saturday evening you will have an opportunity to spend a pleasant evening at the Band Concert in Millheim for only 25 cents.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On last Friday evening, Mr. Peter Dreihelms, of Linestown township, Union county, died very suddenly. He had eaten a hearty supper and a few minutes thereafter complained of trouble in breathing, laid down and expired; aged about 42 years.

A little paint has improved the appearance of Charley Sturges' Jewelry Store very much. In fact it seems to us as if Charley's Clocks, Watches, Jewelry—and even Charley himself, all look better since the painting operation. Go and see Charley and his stock of pretty goods.

A full line of law blanks, such as Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, Leases, Summonses, Executions Subpoenas, constantly on hand at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE.

We have received the card and land circular of Stover & Stover, Lawyers and real estate agents at Versailles, Morgan Co., Mo. The firm is composed of Col. John H. Stover and Horace G. Stover, both formerly of Aaronsburg, and is no doubt as able a law firm as one can find this side the Pacific coast. We wish the firm and especially our young friend Horace, all possible success, and have made up our mind to entrust them with all our law business on Missouri, just to encourage them.

We have seen one of the Programmes for the Concert of the Millheim Cornet Band, to be held next Saturday evening in the Town Hall, and can assure our readers, that it is composed of the best selections of musical and theatrical performances. The boys have been working hard in order to give the public an extraordinary good treat. Do not fail to attend their concert.

MR. EDITOR.—I read Observer's article on "an important matter," in last week's Journal and admit—as every one conversant with the facts must admit—that every word he says is true. But why must the matter be brought before the public just in this way? Why did not Observer consult with our citizens and work up the matter, and then would have been the proper time to have a meeting appointed? Of course the management of our cemetery is not by a great deal what it should be, but will it mend matters any to expose and parade our faults before the world in newspapers? I think not. Let this matter of enlarging and cleaning up the grave-yard be talked over and let a meeting follow. The officers, or rather those who have been the last officers, should take hold and push this matter, and thus at least partly atone for much mismanagement or no management at all. But who were the last trustees and secretary? What are their names? Who knows?

—On Monday morning it was decidedly cold.

—The five cent counter has just received a fresh lot of goods. Call without delay.

—The beautiful snow has come. Oh, but it is white, nice and clean. Hope it will stay awhile.

—Jacob Shultz gives notice that he has been appointed Executor of the estate of Magdalene Garret, late of Miles township, deceased.

—There were but few criminal cases before our court last week, and those were mostly of a trivial character. The Grand Jury brought in their verdict and were discharged on Wednesday.

—Brother Meek will please accept our thanks for a copy of the Democratic Watchman Almanac. It is very profusely and finely illustrated, filled with valuable statistics and is altogether the neatest annual of its kind we have seen this year.

—Next Monday evening the monthly and annual meetings as well as the annual election of the Millheim B. & L. Association will come off. A President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and two Directors, are to be elected.

—The Democratic County Committee had a meeting in Bellefonte, last week and it was agreed that if Congress refer the Curtin-Yocum contested election case back to the people, the Chairman of the committee shall re-convene the county convention of last September for the purpose of nominating a candidate and choosing referees.

—On Monday last was ground hog day, and the sun shone so clearly that his hog-skip had no difficulty at all to see his shadow if he took any pains at all to do so. This indicates six weeks more of winter, and sure enough it began to snow the same night and continued to snow all day on Tuesday. Guess the ground-hog knows what's what this year.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—On Wednesday evening "our band" proceeded to the residence of our genial friend, Mr. John H. Musser, Aaronsburg, to give the recently married couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Meyer, a serenade, and to have a good time generally. The band returned in ecstasies over the very kind treatment received at the hospitable mansion of Mr. Musser. They report that their friendly host, John Aitch was really, positively in the rosiest humor possible; that Mrs. Musser's cakes were simply delicious—entirely fit for a king's hand to eat; that the fair bride was beautiful—lovely as an angel, and that the happy groom presented the band with a fine engraving that could not be bought anywhere under five dollars.

Yes, the band was pleased all to pieces over their visit—so much so that they couldn't help stopping in front of our house to give us one of their very best tunes; i. e. our better half said it was very good, and of course we feel bound to take her word anyway. Fact.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS. Yes, the long-wished for snow has come at last. Welcome to stay awhile. Communion services were held in the M. E. Church last Sunday, Rev. W. R. Whitney officiating.

Very glad that Mr. F. Zittle was so lucky as to find his lost pocket book. Mr. Brunton Sharp and family will leave us in a few weeks for Illinois. Miss Carrie Hering left us last week for a protracted stay. Lock Haven, for the present, and Altoona afterward, are her objective points.

Sheriff Spangler was in town and by all appearances will go into the dentistry business. It makes one shiver to think that the wood chuck saw his shadow on Monday, and that according to tradition we will have winter yet for a long time. YONEY.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS A cold snap. Mrs. Mosher, of Lock Haven paid our Burg a short visit and hurried home, impelled by a desire to see the dear ones left behind.

Measles are beginning to show themselves in all parts of town. Many of our little people are afraid of their own reflection in the glass. It makes quite a noticeable decrease in the attendance at the schools. It is becoming fashionable for young married men to get their own breakfasts. Two of them, down town tried it Sunday morning and their wives say the effort was in a high degree successful. The ladies are particularly pleased with the new order of things—sleeping till breakfast is ready.

The meeting in the Ev. church still continues. The Millheim Band discoursed some sweet music, on the occasion of their serenade in honor of the return of Prof. and Mrs. Meyer. The musical gentlemen were handsomely entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Musser, the father and mother of Mrs. Meyer.

Mr. David Kramer, one of our oldest citizens, was buried on Tuesday forenoon. He had been sick for a long time. X. Y.

News Miscellany.

In a recent divorce suit in Detroit the following passages from the husband's diary were read: "23rd March, 1878—Belle drunk; I had to go to Mrs. G's to take care of the children. 24th—Belle drunk. 25th—Belle drunk and asleep; had to get in through the window. 27th—Belle drunk and rowdy; no dinner, no supper; lay with her clothes on upon the bed. 28th—Belle drunk at 1 p. m. No dinner and more drunk to that day. April 3rd—Belle drunk at Hoffman's grocery. 4th—Belle out from 2 to 7, and got home drunk. 7th—Belle drunk; no dinner or supper," and so on up to May 22nd, when the entry occurs: "A man in the house who left his satchel on the table, and ran out of the back door when he saw me; found the whiskey bottle. May 24th—Moved myself and children." It certainly seemed about time.

SELLING HIS RUNAWAY WIFE FOR $150.—Franklin, Pa., Jan. 26. Louis Volel, a Frenchman, lived with his young wife at Oseola, Clearfield county. He had a friend named Enos James. Last Monday both James and Mrs. Volel were missing. The husband ascertained that they had run away together. He traced them to Phillipsburg, where he found them at a hotel. He had them arrested. Pending further proceedings, friends of the parties advised a settlement, James offered Volel $150 for his wife. After a consultation with his friends he accepted the offer. James paid him the money. Volel went home happy, and James and Mrs. Volel have been living together ever since.

THERE is famine in Russia, there is famine in Turkey and there is famine in Ireland. The distress in Turkey seems to be absolutely appalling. At Adrianople the other morning fifteen people were found in the streets dead from hunger. In the mouths of many were found pieces of wood from which in their extremity they had noisily endeavored to obtain a little nourishment. Americans read these tales of woe in one column of a newspaper and in the next read how the immense grain elevators of Chicago and New York are filled to overflowing with millions upon millions of bushels of the golden grain that makes bread, for the want of which so many poor creatures in Ireland and Turkey and Russia are starving. -Patriot.

A man of 70 married a woman of 60 at Birmingham, Mich., and finds himself sued for breach of promise by a woman of 65. "The giddy young things are all in a tangle," says the Birmingham newspaper.

TERRIBLE CONDITION OF THE FRANKFORT, KY. PRISON.—The report of the Kentucky prison sanitary commissioner says the prison is in a deplorable condition from numerous causes, principally bad drainage and sewerage. There are eight convicts confined who cannot live longer than a few months. There are at least fifty others, some of whom are confined to their beds, who in all probability cannot live longer than the latter part of spring. There are about two hundred others who are in a state of debility and weakness practically unfitting them for duty or work. The balance of the convicts do not present a healthy appearance and seem affected by the injurious influences which have prostrated the others.

FRIENDS, NOT FOES.—A farmer in Bangor, Me., noticing that wheat was being picked from the heads of standing grain, and flocks of yellow birds flying about, shot some of them. On opening their crops, he found only three grains of wheat, and by actual count 350 weevils. It is better to know whether they kill friends or foes.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young man at Castile, Wyoming county, Pa., while working on a hay-mow, threw the fork, which had a broken handle, to the floor beneath, the implement falling in an upright position, with the times firmly imbedded in the floor. He then jumped from the mow, striking on the handle of the fork, which penetrated his body to a depth of 22 inches, and caused his almost instant death.

A 79 year old maid, who was quite ill in Johnstown, told the doctor she had never been hugged by a man in her life and asked for one kiss. The gallant doctor complied with the request, of course and she got well. When the doctor got home and told his story to his wife, he got—well, he is balder than he was. This is a true tale.

FIGURES cannot tell us, says an exchange, how many scalding tears the wives of drunkards have shed, or how many prayers of bitter anguish and cries of agony God has heard them utter. They cannot tell us how many mothers have worn out body and soul in providing the necessities of life for children whom a drunken father has left destitute. They cannot tell us how many mothers' hearts have been broken with grief as they saw a darling son becoming a drunkard. They can not tell us how many white hairs have gone down in sorrow to the grave, mourning over drunken children. They cannot tell how many hard fought battles the drunkard, in his sober moments, has fought with the terrible appetite; how many times he has walked his room in despair, tempted to commit suicide, because he could not conquer the demon. And finally, we cannot search the records of the other world, and tell how many souls have been shut out from that holy place, where no drunkard enters, and banished to the regions of eternal despair by the demon of drink. -Phillipsburg Journal.

Prof. Philippi, of Reading, who has made thirty-nine balloon ascensions, has constructed a balloon that will carry four persons, and he proposes to make an ascension from Reading in this at an early day. He has two smaller balloons which will be sent up at the same time if he can find any one to take charge of them.

Two children died in New Castle recently from eating painted candy.

It never pays to be impolite. A man dining at the St. Albans hotel hit his neighbor with his elbow and didn't apologize, and pretty soon the neighbor jabbed his elbow into the offender's ribs, and the latter said: "You think you're durn smart, don't yer?" and pretending to cut his meat drove a dagger into the other, and then they clinched, and it took four waiters and the clerk to get 'em apart, and they had to pay $27 a piece for broken crockery and furniture. -Boston Post.

At Lehigh Gap, Carbon county, on Friday last, a Mrs. Anthony snatched an old pistol she had no idea was loaded at her six-year old son, when it exploded, and the little fellow was so badly wounded that his life is despaired of.

While two Huntingdon county young men were out duck shooting on Sunday, one of their guns was accidentally discharged, the contents entering William Green's thigh, severing the main artery. He bled to death.

A SENSIBLE VIEW.—The Juniata Tribune, Millintown, publishes the following sensible editorial snub: "One of the things that looks absurd is the keeping of parties in jail to pay costs. If there is no other way to get at the matter, work ought to be provided, so they could earn them. To keep one in jail for costs, neither gets the costs, or punishes, but only adds still more to the account that cannot be collected. There should be some way to protect the county against fellows bringing suits without cause and then, when defeated before the court, simply getting away from the responsibility through a declaration of insolvency. The county ought to be allowed to enter judgment against the parties as for debt, and then collect it at some future time; or else have them hired by the county. There is no justice or sense in putting some homeless fellow to jail, in comfortable quarters in the winter season, with rations plenty, and thus cut off from labor, except him either to pay or complain. Under such a system a man could not pay if he would, and would not if he could.

HOW TO GET RID OF RATS.—A writer in the Scientific American tells how he clears his premises of rats. He says: "In every crevice where the rat might tread we put the crust of the copper, and scatter the same in the corners of the floor. The result was a perfect stampede of rats and mice. Since that time not a footfall of either rats or mice has been about the house. Every spring a coat of yellow wash is given the cellar, as a purifier as well as a rat exterminator, and no typhoid, dysentery, or fever attacks the family."
