

Local Department.

Job work of all kinds done at the Journal Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

The financial statement of the county, commonly called the Auditors' report which we publish to-day, crowds out other reading matter, of course. It will be published four successive times.

A splendid line of Family and Pocket Bibles just received at the Journal Book Store, very cheap. Call and see.

Wm. H. Reifsnnyder offers his services to the public as auctioneer. He only asks to be given a fair chance in his new business and guarantees to give satisfaction.

Rev. J. G. Shoemaker, late pastor of Aaronsburg (Reformed) church, will preach at Aaronsburg, next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and at St. Pauls church in the afternoon.

CALVES.—The subscriber gives notice that he is all the time prepared to pay the highest cash price for calves. He will come and fetch them at any place in Penn or Haines township, if notified.

J. Willis Musser, Woodward, Pa.

The election for officers of the Millheim B. & L. Association on Monday evening resulted as follows: President—B. O. Deininger; Vice President—S. K. Faust; Secretary—A. Walter; Treasurer—J. H. Don't forget to call.

Please read the new advertisement of the Bush House, under the management of the present proprietor, J. H. Myers, Esq. There is no better regulated or more orderly hotel to be found anywhere than the Bush has been for some years past, and the present proprietor is not a whit behind any of his predecessors in what constitutes the make up of a first class landlord. Those having business at our courts should not forget that Mr. Myers gives special rates to jurors and witnesses.

Borough Nominations.—If the precedent established last year be followed out, the voters of the several divisions of the borough will meet on Friday evening at the same places where they met a year ago, and elect delegates, which will meet in convention on Saturday afternoon or evening and nominate a borough ticket. Let our citizens take an active part in this matter so that good and suitable men may be nominated and elected.

From Woodward.

Mr. Editor:—Yesterday we had an accident here which might have resulted very seriously, but fortunately, the worst part of it was a complete ducking for our friend, Mr. J. W. Runkle, in the cold and chilling waters of Pine Creek.

Michael Fiebler's team were hauling ice from the dam at this place. The team in charge of young Ettinger, son of Solomon Ettinger, was standing on the ice and was loaded, when the ice gave way and the team and horses sank in the water, over six feet deep. Young Ettinger jumped from the wagon as it went down, but failed to reach the ice, and so hung on the edge for a while, but was easily rescued from his unpleasant position. Mr. Runkle was not on the wagon but close by, when it went down. He caught one of the horses by the bridle and tried to keep his head above water, but failing, was drawn into the water himself. He had to paddle a good while until he got out and his situation was a little precarious for a time, but he reached shore and made for home as fast as he could. A road-way had to be broken through the ice to the shore, to get the horses out. The wagon is in the dam yet.

XENAGORAS.

The New Orleans Picayune says that "more than one rough customer has never known how good he was until he killed somebody and heard the lawyer in charge sum up his virtues."

Just as we go to press several of our citizens request us to give notice that a meeting of the voters of Millheim Boro' will be held in the school house, this evening to make arrangements to nominate a Boro' ticket.

A full line of law blanks, such as Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, Leases, Summons, Executions, Subpoenas, constantly on hand at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE.

We received a lengthy and very interesting letter from Horace G. Stover, Esq., of Versailles, Mo., on the extent and resources of that young giant state, and the advantages it affords to those that contemplate taking Horace Greeley's advice. We doubt not that our friend Horace gives a true and full account of Missouri, or that part of it with which he is best acquainted. His character vouches for that. We will publish the letter next week, and hope it may prove as interesting to the readers of the Journal as it did to us.

The opening of the Philadelphia Branch Clothing House, at the place recently occupied by our friend J. Newman, Jr., at Bellefonte, on the 20th of the present month, will be one of the grandest affairs of the kind ever held in Centre county. The proprietors, successors to Mr. Newman, expect to do business on a large scale, at low prices, and hope to merit the confidence of our people by strict business integrity and uniform courtesy. Give them a call.

This week we publish a lengthy article that concerns every tax payer of the county. We mean the annual financial statement of the county. Read it, for by it you can see where the money comes from and where it goes to. Especially interesting if not profitable is it to read over the list of tax collectors, some of whom are delinquent since 1871. Just how this matter is we do not know, but presume our commissioners are doing their best to make these chaps "pony up."

A District Sunday School Convention will be held in the Lutheran church, Aaronsburg, commencing on Monday morning next. This convention is specially intended for the benefit of the Sunday schools of Haines, Penn. Miles and Gregg townships. Mr. Austin Curtin, President of the county society and Rev. Crittenden, are expected to be present. Three sessions will be held, viz. on Monday morning, afternoon and evening. Ample provisions have been made to entertain delegates and others who will participate in the proceedings of the convention. A full attendance is kindly requested.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS.

Many sick people in and about town.

There is some talk of closing the primary school for a time until the measles shall have run their course. At one time there were thirty-four pupils of that school afflicted with them.

Mr. Wm. Zeigler, formerly of Madisonburg, now of Virginia, are visiting friends here.

Mr. Clarence Ettinger has returned from Poughkeepsie, having finished a course at commercial college there. He looks well and happy.

Mr. Frank Weaver is again suffering a good deal from the injury to his knee, received some time in the fall. He has been obliged to resort to the use of crutches.

Miss Emma Desher again left for Bethlehem, last week, where she attends school.

Mrs. Emma Hosterman had a serious fall. She fell from the top of a chair to its foot, and was badly bruised, and it is feared internally injured. She is unable to help herself at all.

A District S. S. Convention is to be held in the Lutheran Church on Monday next. It is to be composed of delegates from Haines, Penn. Miles and Gregg townships. A good time is expected.

Miss Emma Jordan spent a day in Millheim visiting. Hope she may have enjoyed herself.

[Any more "Emmas?" And if so what are they doing. Hope they are well. Ed.]

ECHOES FROM COBURN.

People are busy storing away the cold snap in the form of ice. More than a hundred loads are taken daily from Kersteter's dam.

Last week they had an accident on the mountain. Two of Mr. Cassler's employes while attempting to compel a halcyon horse to pull, broke the animals jaw-bone, making it necessary to kill the suffering brute. This was quite a loss to the owner, but a gain to science, since it goes to prove the superiority of the horse to the donkey. The jaw-bone of an ass may hold good to kill a thousand men, but it takes two asses to break the jaw-bone of a horse.

There are, at present, no prospects that Coburn will be enlarged next summer. There are a large number of lots for sale, put at such prices as would better suit a millionaire than one who has his million to make. Land owners should know that business men are not anxious to invest their capital in a few square rods of land without a good assurance that the future has a fortune in store for them. If Coburn is to be built up, land must come down to a reasonable figure.

NEWS FROM BRUSE.

Candidates are looming up. Plenty of snow but very poor sleighing. Confound that ground hog.

Our ice houses are now being replenished, with that precious, and yet at times, useless article—ice.

Dr. Kirk has left us, and will open up shop with his brother in Bellefonte. The Dr. has left many good friends, but we trust he may be properly patronized in his new field of labor.

Our friend Mr. J. F. Wate, ultimately turns up as an auctioneer. Go on John we trust you will find money in it.

Our Singing Society is becoming quite large, although organized less than one week ago, nearly sixty have subscribed. It meets twice a week.

Father Bossler, although enfeebled by age, preached a very satisfactory sermon last Sunday in the Reformed church. His theme was, 'The three christian graces.' He is Rev. Landis' father-in-law.

News Miscellany.

On last Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Whitmer, of the Reformed church, this place, informed his congregation that if any member thereof would sign an application for tavern license he would be excluded from the communion table, and also deprived from voting or holding office in the church. A brave, righteous order from a well-meaning and consistent minister. Now, why should not the same command be given from every other pulpit in Millheimburg. If this were done, no license could well be granted by our court. Let there be another move along the entire line against the license system—a system that creates drunkards, impoverishes, and causes untold misery.—Millheimburg Telegraph.

An old lady in Wichita says she never could imagine where all the Smiths came from until she saw in a New England town a large sign, "Smith Manufacturing Company."

Grant Kemering while chopping wood near Middle Valley, Pa., accidentally struck his daughter with the axe, killing her instantly. Kemering was taken home insane.

G. W. Sachs, a jurymen in the case of Henry Smith, on trial in a Memphis court, on Saturday, Jan. 17, for the murder of Cany Long, burst into tears when he gave the answer "guilty" as his name was called. Soon after he fell in a fit, so terrible did it seem to him to consign a fellow creature to the gallows.

A most remarkable accident occurred at the Vulcan Iron Works, Wilkesbarre, on Friday. A couple of workmen were striking a bar of hot steel with sledge, when a scale was thrown off, about as large in diameter as a three cent piece, but not thicker than letter paper. This scale struck the arm of one of the workmen just below the elbow, passed through the arm and came out above the elbow on the opposite side. It made a frightful wound. An artery was severed and the blood spurting in jets until pressure was applied to the artery above the place. A physician soon arrived and dressed the wound.

HEAVY JUDGMENT AGAINST THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—Cincinnati, Feb. 2. Notice was given to-day that next Thursday an order will issue from the United States circuit court to enforce its decree rendered some months ago to compel payment of nearly $3,000,000 unpaid rent by the Pennsylvania Central to the Columbus, Chicago and Indiana Central railroad. Col. Tom Scott is expected to come on and satisfy the judgment in person.

A REAL LION KILLED IN TENNESSEE.—An animal of a ferocious type, ten feet from tip to tip, and weighing nearly three hundred pounds, was shot seven miles south of here yesterday, while prowling cat-like near a squad of children. At first it was pronounced a wild panther, of huge size, but to-day it turns out that an American lion, or Cougar, escaped from Cole's menagerie six weeks ago, some forty miles north-east of Memphis, and it is now evident that the brute is from that caravan, and that he had an appetite whetted for a tender young darkey when killed.—Memphis Avalanche.

The oldest females of Lewisburg are Mrs. Hummel (mother of Judge Hummel) aged 91 years and 6 months; Mrs. Nicely, aged 93 and Miss Ruth Thompson, aged 93.

The new prohibitory liquor law proposed by the State Temperance Union contemplates and amendment to the constitution authorizing women to vote.

When Miss Butler, an eighteen-year-old daughter of John Butler, of Pittsburgh, retired to her room on Saturday night, she was horrified to see a man with a blackened face under her bed. Before she had time to scream for assistance, four men, all disguised, leaped from various places of hiding, bound and gagged Miss Butler and tied her to the bed. The burglars then broke open her trunk and took therefrom $600, afterwards making their escape.

Bishop Jesse Peck will preside over the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference, meeting at Altoona on the 10th of March ensuing, in place of Bishop Haven, deceased. Bishop Peck was formerly president of Dickinson College.

MARRIED. On the 28th ult., Mr. F. P. Duck with Miss Anna M. Wise, both of Penn Hall. On the 20th ult., by Rev. W. H. Stover, Mr. J. B. Royer with Miss Mary Long, both of Centre Mills.

DIED. On the 28th ult., in Haines township, Rebecca Regina, daughter of John Zeigler, aged 5 years and 22 days. On the 10th inst., in Nittany Valley Mrs. Margaret Smith, wife of Dr. Charles Smith, formerly of Penn Hall. On the 9th inst., at Centre Hall, Jacob Dinger, aged 41 years, 5 months and 24 days. Mr. Dinger was for some time afflicted with cancer of the arm. In the fall he went Philadelphia and had the arm amputated by skillful doctors, but the hoped for relief and cure did not come. Soon after it became evident that the dread disease was preying on upon his vitals, and it was with reluctance that his family and friends gave up the hope of his recovery. The church of his choice one of her most faithful and consistent members, and his family a kind husband and beloved father. "He sleeps well." R. D. A.
