An Independent Republican Candidate.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—It is announced in influential quarters that if Gen. Grant is nominated at Chicago, his Republican opponents, or at least the more determined portion of them, will hold a Convention and bring out another Republican candidate, and run him independently of the Democrats, Greenbackers and everybody else.

This purpose is entertained only by those very earnest Republicans whose hostility to the Conkling-Cameron Carpenter machine, and to a third Presidential term goes to the extent of preferring a Democrat to Grant. They say it would be impossible to unite their voters upon the Democratic nominee, whoever he is, and therefore they must have an independent candidate of their own party.

Of course, some of this is mere talk. Nevertheless, it is undoubtedly true that the line of policy above indicated is seriously contemplated by a portion of the Republicans in case Grant is nominated. They appear to be quite in earnest.

DON CAMERON feels very sure that Grant will be nominated at Chicago even without the formality of a ballot. Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri are supposed to be sure for Grant.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 20, 1880. The fangs were yesterday taken out of the Federal election jaws, so far as the House could extract them. Probably the senate will do its part.

I hope the Democrats who are looking out for a candidate for the Presidency, and who desire success, will not base their expectation on an easy victory, if Grant shall be nominated, on any Republican allegations that he is a weak candidate. He is not that. On the contrary, he will have support in various sections, that no other candidate of his party can have.

The public printer gets all, or nearly all the money he asks for. I never for a moment supposed that Mr. DeFrees stole a dollar of the public money which passed through his hands. There is no well supported charge of that kind. But he is very old, and gives hardly any personal attention to the business of his office.

In relation to the rumor that Justice Hunt of the Supreme Court would retire and Senator Edmunds succeed him, it is now said that Justice Hunt after determining to resign consented to remain at the request of Senator Conkling, who desired that a New York man should be appointed in his place.

THE "ROOSTERS."

It will be made to the Board of Pardons for the pardon of Charles B. Salter, William H. Kemble, Jesso R. Crawford, William F. Rumberger and Emil J. Petroff, in the cases respectively against them in the court of quarter sessions of Dauphin county for corrupt solicitation.

The above notice appeared in a Harrisburg paper and shows that the brazen impudence of our legislative "roosters" is only equalled by their utter corruption. The penitentiary would have been the legitimate home of these patrefraying scoundrels in the shape of men, years ago. Who does not know that Kemble and Petroff especially, are as rotten, morally, as any two men that could be found from Philadelphia to Erie?

Save Me From My Friends.

It is lamentable that a great soldier, who did such good service in the field, who in civil office rewarded so many men in a manner so lavish, should now be so destitute of real friends as to be permitted to rush blindly to a great humiliation, which friendly counsels could save him from. Gen. Grant is now at the most momentous period of his life; he has surrendered himself to be used by the very men who used and abused him during his second presidential term. They have fooled him to the top of his bent with the belief that they can again make him President.

THE Democratic State Convention will meet at Harrisburg, April 28th. Both time and place are well chosen.

Third Term Notes.

Hamilton Fish favor a third term. Grant raised him from the political grave, where he had been quietly interred, and made him Secretary of State.

Elihu B. Washburne tolerates a third term. Grant made him Secretary of State and then Minister to France.

Colfax warms to the third term policy. Grant preferred him for Vice President in 1868, instead of Gov. Fenelon.

Senator Conkling pushes the third term. Grant earnestly desired him to be his successor in 1876, provided he could not succeed himself.

Don Cameron is working with all the proverbial energy and skill of a Winnebago for the third term. Grant appointed him Secretary of War.

Secor Robeson pants for a third term. Grant made him Secretary of the Navy, and enabled him to get rich out of corrupt Rings in his Department.

Columbus Delano longs for a third term. Grant made him Secretary of the Interior, and thus opened up to him the fat places of the Indian Rings.

William W. Belknap is extremely solicitous for the third term. Grant appointed him Secretary of War, and thus gave him an opportunity to make money out of post-trader contracts, and when he got caught allowed him to resign and thereby escape impeachment.

Edward Pierpont is going to the Chicago Convention to support the third term. Grant first appointed him United States District Attorney, then Attorney General, and finally Minister to England.

John A. J. Creswell, familiarly known as Chorpensing Creswell, is trying to get a delegation from Maryland to Chicago for the third term. Grant appointed him his first Postmaster-General, and Creswell is understood to have put his influence where it would do the most good for himself and friends.

George H. Williams is tolling for a third term. Grant made him Attorney General, and tied to put him on the bench as Chief Justice, but the Senate proved refractory.

Joseph P. Brady decides in favor of the third term, and so does William Strong. They were placed on the bench of the Supreme Court by Grant for the purpose of overruling one of his previous decisions.

James N. Tyner is traveling the country for the third term. Grant made him Postmaster General, and he is supposed to have got fat on the drippings of unclean contracts.

Father Taft is for a third term. Grant lifted him out of comparative ship.

Boss Shepherd believes in a third term. Grant took him to his bosom, and enabled him to coin money in the rascally Rings which ravaged the District of Columbia.

Gen. O. E. Babcock is laboring for the third term. Grant appointed him his confidential private secretary, and saved him from destruction as a member of the Whiskey Ring.

Gen. Arthur runs the machine for a third term here in New York. Grant appointed him Collector of New York.

Gov. Cornell brings all his influence to bear in behalf of the third term. Grant made him Surveyor of New York.

John F. Smyth is ardent in his advocacy of a third term. Grant surprised the State of New York by appointing him Postmaster of Albany.

The list might be greatly extended; but the foregoing will do as samples of the whole.—N. Y. Sun.

The Voice of a Patriot.

These words have the ring of an honest utterance, fearlessly spoken: "If Gen. Grant be a candidate in the present temper of political parties, I fear an effort to inaugurate him whether elected or not. The danger of Mexico to this republic is greater, in my judgment, than the temporary success of the Democratic party. When the rule of the majority is once broken, the result is either anarchy or monarchy. In preference to either of these give us the peaceful rule of any party. The one may be remedied without blood; the other never."

The man who made the remarkable speech from which this passage is taken is a Republican of long standing, a partisan whose politics are concerned a veteran of the Union army in the war of the rebellion. He is not opposing Grant in the interest of any rival candidate. His convictions and his fears in regard to the third term are shared by hundreds of thousands of his fellow Republicans; he has had courage to say aloud and in plain language what he thinks and what he fears, while others have contented themselves with thinking and fearing in silence.

Gen. JOHN B. HENDERSON earned the right to be called a patriot in 1861, when he did so much to keep Missouri in the Union. His speech last week at St. Louis gives him a second title to the honor that outlives party organizations.

WILLIAMSPORT and Reading are the prominent candidates for the Democratic State Convention. Either will do but we vote for Reading every time.

THE Legislature of Mississippi has imposed a yearly tax of three dollars upon negroes over 25 years of age. It pays to be the head of a family.

HON. C. S. WOLFE is opposed to having legislative corruptionists paraded. A majority of the people are no doubt with Mr. Wolfe.
