Local Department.

NOTICE Any of our subscribers who expect to change their residence this Spring will please inform us of the fact.

Job work of all kinds done at the JOURNAL Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

A full line of school books just received and for sale at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE.

A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

The Reformed church in Bellefonte had a little fire last week, which did not nearly as much damage however as the water thrown in to quench it.

A splendid line of Family and Pocket Bibles just received at the Journal Book Store, very cheap. Call and see.

Furors who have been notified to attend court the third week need not go. It has been concluded not to hold court that week.

Wm. H. Reifsnnyder offers his services to the public as auctioneer. He only asks to be given a fair chance in his new business and guarantees to give satisfaction.

Mr. Simon Sides is the name of the new conductor on our railroad. Mr. Fury quit and went west. We are not yet acquainted with Mr. Sides, but expect to be. In the meantime we hope he will always take sides with the right side.

CALVES.—The subscriber gives notice that he is all the time prepared to pay the highest cash price for calves, fle will come and fetch them at any place in Penn or Haines township, if notified.

J. Willis Musser, Woodward, Pa.

From the Watchman we learn that our friend Thomas Mingle is engaged as salesman in Goldman's Clothing Store, Bellefonte. Tom is just the fellow for such a place. He is a gentleman through and through.

The Watchman fellow seems to be out of humor over the season, because, as he says, it is "too warm for whiskey and too cold for lager beer." Poor fellow, too gladly would I help him out of his trouble, but we are entirely ignorant in the premises.

Just received at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE, a full line of blank books, ledgers, day-books, blotters, pass-books, memoranda, etc., also a new lot of S. S. reward cards.

The JOURNAL BOOK STORE sells all the school books recently adopted by the school boards of Millheim Boro', Penn, Haines, Miles and Gregg townships.

An old-fashioned wood-chopping took place near Milton the other day under the supervision of Peter J. Hart and Charles Burton. There were ninety-two choppers in the party, and they cut 450 cords of wood in four and a half hours.

Michael Ulrich is the executor of the estate of Adam Morr, deceased. See notice in another column.

The English Lutheran Congregation at Lock Haven has recently elected Rev. P. A. Heilmann pastor, vice Rev. J. A. Hackenberg, resigned.

We have reliable information that our friends who recently went to Kansas are now settled on their respective homes and that they like it right well. Hope they may all prosper.

The result of the election of the Bellefonte, Aaronsburg and Young-namtown turnpike company is as follows: President, Wm. Fichthorn. Secretary and Treasurer, John C. Motz.

Managers, Wm. Fichthorn, John Stoner, Adam Weaver, John Fredrick and Samuel Smith. Mr. Samuel Smoot continues as collector at the eastern gate.

A CARD.

The undersigned takes this method of informing the citizens of Millheim that he intends teaching a select school in Millheim, commencing on or about April 12th, next. A share of public patronage is respectfully solicited.

W. H. B. EISENHUTH. Did you read Willis Eisenhuth's card? He has proved himself a competent teacher and is an excellent young man.

Miss Teresta Lanich, a young lady of irreproachable character and fine attainments also expects to open a subscription school. We hope our citizens and parents will support these teachers as they deserve to be.

Handsomeness Income.

REPORT OF MILLHEIM PRIMARY SCHOOL FOR MONTH ENDED MAR. 23, 1880.

Number enrolled—56. Number attending—48. Average attendance—37. Per cent. of attendance—82. Visitors—Misses Rosa Musser, Lullie Deminger, Maggie Alexander and Lizzie Swartz. Mr. F. O. Metzger, Mr. J. W. Loe, Prof. H. Meyer, Co. Supt., A. C. Musser, Esq., Director, Dr. John F. Harter and Mr. Samuel Weiser, Jr. Miss Jennie Lukenbach did not miss one day during term, and Master Jos. E. Chambers was present at every roll call.

The school is composed principally of bright little folks, and in the majority of cases the progress was marked and rapid. I thereby thank the good citizens of Millheim for many tokens of kindness and good-will extended during the term, and think, under the circumstances, the work of the term will bear ordinary inspection.

J. R. VAN ORMER, Millheim, March 23. Teacher. Spring Mills Academy.

The Spring Term will begin on Monday, April 12, 1880. Tuition, $5 to $8. Boarding $2 to $2.25 per week. For further information address Rev. D. M. Wolf, Spring Mills, Pa.

Samuel Snyder, administrator of the estate of George Snyder, late of Haines township, deceased, will offer the homestead of the late decedent at public sale, on Friday afternoon, April 9. See notice in another column and sale bills.

The Adhesion Club of Bellefonte, seems to depart from the usually beaten path of literary societies, sometimes to take up some practical political question. Two such questions will soon be up for discussion, which if they are fully and impartially analyzed and examined, will do much for the cause of political and historical truth. The first one is—

"Resolved, that the President and Vice President of these United States should be elected by a direct vote of the people."

The other one is—

"Resolved, that, under the present Constitutional provisions governing the length of a presidential term, it is inexpedient to elect any one man for more than two terms to the position of Chief executive of these United States."

Count us on the affirmative side every time. Letter from Kansas.

ROSETTE, Lincoln Co., Kan., March 13th 1880.

Editor JOURNAL. Dear sir—I have concluded to write a few lines to our old friend, the JOURNAL, to let you people know how matters stand in this part of the world.

The "Woodward Car" arrived safely and emptied its load of human freight on Kansas soil. Mr. Edgar, of Madisonburg, has located in our midst on 160 acres of land, and his little house is nearly ready to be occupied.

Henry Hinkson also purchased 160 acres of land and will occupy it in a few days. P. B. Stover and A. Vonnada are not in our immediate neighborhood.

Mr. Stover has moved into his new house which is quite a mansion for Kansas.

Emigration is pouring into our country in a full and constant stream. It is filling up fast. In 1878 our population was 500, and now it is 7000.

We have the first snow of the season, about 4 inches deep.

Our crops look well and our farmers feel encouraged.

Truly Yours, J. A. PECK. Appointments of the Central Penn. Conference of the A. S. Episcopal Church, held at Altoona, Pa., March 10, '80.

A Terrible Accident.

Two Persons Killed and Many Wounded.

The town of Lincoln, in Lancaster county, was the scene of a fearful tragedy, on Saturday night, which carried suffering and death to many homes.

An entertainment was given by the Loccom of the village to a crowded house. Between five and six hundred persons are supposed to have been present.

The building is a two-story structure, the hall, where the entertainment was given, being on the second floor. At about 9 o'clock a loud report was heard in the back part of the room which was densely crowded, and in a few minutes the whole rear end of hall broke down to the floor below, a distance of twelve feet.

A scene of indescribable confusion followed. The screams of the wounded and dying were painful to hear. Many rushed from the floor to the platform, while others jumped from the windows to the ground a distance of twenty feet, sustaining severe injuries.

As quickly as possible aid was summoned and the work of extricating the dead and wounded from the debris began, and as fast as they were brought out they were taken in charge by friends.

The following is a list as near as could be had: KILLED.

Mrs. Annie Haas, aged 25 years, neck broken. She leaves a husband and three children.

Kate Brubaker, aged 22 years, neck and back broken.

SERIOUSLY WOUNDED. Mrs. Jacob Koenigsmacher, Mrs. Alice Bowman, Ida Sprecher, Ada Miller, Laura Erb, Christy Finkbone, Sarah Campbell, both legs broken, Julia Miller, one leg and arm broken, Julia Meeker, arm broken, Alfred Hicks, both legs broken, Cyrus Durr one arm and leg broken, Agnes Brockert, aged 15 years, both arms broken and head badly fractured. She will die.

Susan Hughes, aged 16 years, arm broken. Annie Hynneman, arm broken and head fractured. She will not recover.

Sarah Boyer, ankle broken and spine injured. Rosa Duherry, arm and ankle broken. Daniel Miller, aged 28 years, back and leg broken. He will hardly recover.

Annie Yoke, aged 28 years, back and leg broken. He will hardly recover.

The greatest excitement prevails in the community over the affair, and today hundreds of people visited the scene. The building is said to have been very unsafe and so many people should not have been allowed to crowd into the hall.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS. Miss Alice Ballinger is taking a trip to Lock Haven—the first she has indulged in for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bright have gone to visit Rev. J. A. Bright, of Jersey Shore. They intend to take in several other places on their way.

The public schools here all close this week—two of them on Wednesday and the other on Friday.

Mr. John Zeigler's leave our valley on Thursday. They had public sale of their goods on Monday.

Almost everyone is suffering from a cold this week. It would be easier to say who is well than who is sick, for such a list comprises nearly the entire population.

Rev. Samuel Smith, of the Evangelical church, preached his introductory sermon on Sunday. Good preacher and real nice, sleek looking man.

Rev. M. L. Young, Financial Secretary of Pennsylvania College, preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning, in the interests of that institution. He is collecting for the endowment fund.

Mrs. Rogers and her brother, Mr. Emerick, of Nitany Valley, spent the Sabbath with friends in Aaronsburg.

The domestic ills of life will soon succeed each other in rapid succession. Flitting—garden-making—house-cleaning—Ugh! Get ready, brooms and brushes, shovel and hoe—and oh, for a full, large stock of grace and patience for the season that "tries men's souls."

A FATAL QUARREL BETWEEN BOYS.—Pittsburg, March 16. At Turtle Creek, Pa., this afternoon, Thomas Coughlin and Joseph Hoff, two lads, aged about fourteen, quarrelled over a piece of tobacco. Hoff hit Coughlin on the leg with a stone. The latter thereupon assailed Hoff with a coupling pin, knocking him senseless and crushing his skull. After realizing what he had done Coughlin fled, leaving Hoff still senseless, lying upon the railroad track where he was found by some train men. Hoff will probably die. Coughlin has been arrested.

The Ohio Temperance Convention was held on Saturday, at Alliance. Three hundred and twenty-three delegates were present. Resolutions were adopted to sustain principles rather than party, but to labor in causes and at the polls to secure sober men for officials.
