The Nebraska Democrats.

Election of Delegates to the Cincinnati Convention.

COLUMBUS, Neb., April 1 .--- The democratic convention this morning elected delegates to Cincinnati, headed by Dr. Miller, of the Omaha Herald. They are uninstructed.

The committee on resolutions pre sented a separate report advocating hard money and low tariff and denouncing the wrong inflicted upon the democratic party and the county at large by the republicans in 1876, and pledging the Democrats of Nebraska to right those wrongs as far as possible and punish the wrougdoers. The re port was adopted,

THE following are the prominent Democratic candidates for President, with large sections of country yet to hear from." It is a splendid list of statesmen, to select from, and presents a fine contrast to the meagre list of Republican timber available for the same use. Pick out any three at random, and they are the superiors ip attainments, qualifications and culture. of Grant, Sherman, Blaine:

Horatio Seymour and Samuel J. Tilden. of New York. Gen. Winfield S. Han cock and John Smith, of Penfisylvania : Thomas F. Bayard, of Delaware ; Joel Parker, of New Jersey : A. G. Thurman and Hugh J. Jewett, of Ohio;

as A. Hendricks, of Indiana.

-Andrew Gregg, George have a "rider" forbidding payment of ter, about the year 1848 or 1849. Wm. money for the transportation of troops to the polls or for their services or sub sistence there.

Speaking of Mr. Blaine that eminent build zer in debate, seems to be likely to have his hands full at this session, without seeking guarrels with Democrats; Messrs. Carpenter and Edmunds commenced the other day a system of contemptible nagging. which they supposed very annoving to Mr. Blaine. They with Mr. Conkling and General Logan, all Grant men, have clear control of the radical minority in the Senate, and will probably see to it that the S-nator from Maine shall be deprived of as many honors as possible. The object of course is to kill him off as a
