

Local Department.

NOTICE.—Any of our subscribers who expect to change their residence this Spring will please inform us of the fact.

The editor is absent on a short trip. He expects to take in Bellefonte, Lock Haven, Williamsport and Lewisburg.

Good working suits at Lewin's for $4.75. Candid fact.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Millheim B. & L. Association on Monday evening money sold at 3 1/2 per cent. for permanent loan.

Job work of all kinds done at the Journal Office at prices as cheap as the cheapest.

Fine family and pocket bibles just received and for sale cheap at the Journal Book Store.

A full line of school books just received and for sale at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE.

You can get a fine chevrot suit at Lewin's Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa., cheaper than any other place in the county.

A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

A splendid line of Family and Pocket Bibles just received at the Journal Book Store, very cheap. Call and see.

F. P. Musser is going to have just a little the stylishest, prettiest, queerest, quaintest and altogether the handsomest verandah in town. Strasburg ahead.

Just received at the JOURNAL BOOK STORE, a full line of blank books, ledgers, day-books, dieters, pass-books, memoranda, etc., also a new lot of S. S. reward cards.

The JOURNAL BOOK STORE sells all the school books recently adopted by the school boards of Millheim Boro', Penn., Haines, Miles and Gregg townships.

The first organ grinder of the season passed through town last Thursday. Our friend D. H. Rote just happened to be here and went into ecstasies of delight over the music.

Oh my! but we are glad that our onions, lettuce, radish, peas, &c. are out. Why there hasn't been a day since fit to do such work. Cold, snow and frost alternate every day since.

LAW OFFICE.—Esquire Eisenhuth has taken possession of Mr. Keen's building next door to the Journal Office, for a Justice's office. That brings the law about as close and handy as we could wish.

SALMON TROUT.—Hon. J. P. Gephart procured from the state authorities three 3,000 small salmon trout which were emptied into Elk Creek above Musser & Gephart's saw mill. Don't know anything about the nature and habits of these fish, but hope they are of a kind that will grow and multiply amazingly.

Louis Doll, the clever fellow and tip-top mechanic, is just the chap you want to see, if you are in need of first class boots, shoes or are fit for a king to wear. But not only does he make boots, but keeps a large stock of shoes, gaiters and slippers. Please give him a call and you will find one of the most fair dealing men you ever met.

Our borough auditors had a meeting on Monday to settle the accounts of our borough officers, but much of the work was not ready and another audit is appointed for Friday evening. Gentlemen do your work correctly and legally, and then present your statement to the public in the manner required by law.

Rev. John Tomlinson, on Friday last, received notice of the death of his brother, Rev. B. W. Tomlinson, of Lockport, N. Y. Pastor Tomlinson left on Friday evening to attend the funeral of his brother which was expected to take place in Bedford county, the home of the Tomlinson family, on Saturday or Sunday.

The wind and rain storm last Sunday afternoon greatly damaged the brick church of the German Lutheran congregation on West Jones street, Lock Haven. About half of the roof was lifted off, the gable end was blown down and nearly all the stained-glass windows broken. The steeple was left intact, though at one time it was feared that it would be overthrown. The residence of Mr. Samuel Marsh, on the east, was injured by part of the falling roof of the church property. The damage to the church building was between $800 and $900.

April is positively the meanest cuss of a month in the whole year. He begins on the very first day of his existence by boring people for money, money, money, and the less people are able to satisfy his voracious demands the more unreasonable and inexorable he becomes. And then the weather—Ugh! Hot, cold, rain, hail, snow, frost, dust, and finally a mixture of them all. Just now we have very dry, windy and dusty weather, the most disagreeable combination possible.

The Lutheran church in Lock Haven was partly unroofed by high winds last week.

Mr. D. M. Cowher took charge of Joseph K. Moyer's mill in Brush valley, and expects to make business boom again at the good old stand. Mr. Cowher is a first class miller and we hope he will be liberally patronized.

Samuel Snyder bought the old George Snyder homestead, near Woodward, at public sale, last Saturday, for $1208.

Mr. Jonathan Harter's spring house, on the farm occupied by Jacob Breen, returned to the ground last Saturday afternoon. It is not known how the fire originated, as no fire had been built in the house since Monday.

Our new council met on Friday evening and made the following appointments: W. K. Alexander, Treasurer, Samuel Otto, Street Commissioner. No committees have as yet been appointed. The council expects to have regular meetings on the first Monday evening each month.

They have a man in Union county named Howard Miller, who is a preacher, teacher and census supervisor all at the same time. Plenty for one man.

Public Sale Register.

The Henry Hess property, near Woodward, will be sold at public sale, by the executor, Mr. Samuel Kreamer, on Tuesday, April 27th. It is a very desirable home of its kind. See bills.

CALVES.—The subscriber gives notice that he is all the time prepared to pay the highest cash price for calves. He will come and fetch them at any place in Penn or Haines township, if notified.

J. Willis Musser, Woodward, Pa.

The grain fields in Union county look well, so says the Lewisburg Journal.

Mr. C. W. Sturgis, father of C. A. Sturgis, our watch-maker and jeweler, after a residence of some twelve years in Lewisburg, now goes back to Lancaster, whence he came and where a splendid situation awaits him. Mr. Sturgis is a gentleman of the first grade and a tailor that is hard to beat.

When in Aaronsburg a few days ago we called to see D. H. Rote's Brown Leghorn fowls, of which Dan had told us considerably, and we confess that we were very much pleased with them. With their gay plumage and lively appearance, they are among the finest of "chickens." From what Dan tells us the Brown Leghorns, are the boss fowls of the day whether for fancy or profit. They mature early, commenced laying when six and a half months old, and have been laying ever since. Some have been known to lay at 3 months old. At six weeks the young ones are perfect chickens, the young cockerels crowing. They are "non-sitters"—laying during the entire season.

Mr. Rote is selling these eggs very cheaply—15 for 50 cents, while other dealers are selling 13 eggs at $2.50 to $8.00.

This is the opportune season of the year to clean up and trim up around about the premises. Rubbish and refuse have accumulated all winter about the house and outbuildings and it is absolutely necessary to give the entire establishment an over-hauling preliminary to the coming of the spring foliage. Straighten up and white wash the fences, put the flower beds in order, if you have any—if you have none then make some. They will only cost you a little labor and will give you and your families very much pleasure. Manifest some concern how your home appears outside. Make it pleasant and attractive, for yourself and your family. Don't consider every hour spent in the kind of work here indicated as so much time lost—so many hours robbed from your lazing time.

AARONSBURG CRUMBS.

We are having a general touch of old Winter again. Hope it is his final call.

Rev. John Tomlinson was summoned to his old home, in Bedford county, to attend the funeral of his brother, Rev. B. W. Tomlinson, of Lockport, N. Y. It is only a few years since that another of this family, then a student in the Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, died. The family is indeed called upon to pass through the waters of affliction.

Prof. W. T. Meyer and Mr. C. E. Ettinger took a trip of a week, visiting Beech Creek, Tyrone, Altoona, and other places, returning in good spirits. Miss Lulu Duncan, of Spring Mills, has been visiting Miss Muzze Foster. Glad to say that M. M. Musser is about again. Had rather a serious cold.

Rev. J. B. Akers was to preach in the M. E. Church on Sabbath P. M., but by some misunderstanding the church was not heated and the appointment failed.

The mountains all around us are on fire. Much wood that was cut last winter, and that could not be hauled for want of snow, will no doubt be consumed. X. Y.

GREAT BRITAIN has a population of 31,628,000, and of this great number only some 3,000,000 are voters. Magna Charta, and fundamental law in the "mother country" need an overhauling sadly.

THE Iowa delegates to the Democratic National Convention are not instructed, but are strongly for Tilden, according to the Chicago Tribune.

Pantaloon at $1.00 up at the Philadelphia Branch Store.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Dr. Elright and family, of Ashland, Pa. are here on a visit to friends.

Had a lively run off in town the other morning by Mr. A. Alexander's team. Amos was pitched out of the wagon but fortunately not much hurt.

The boss parsnip was grown by Mr. S. Kennelly. It was two and a half feet long and ten inches in diameter. Good for Sam.

Last Friday night some one entered Duncan & Son's store. Entrance was gained through the cellar. But little was taken.

On Monday morning Mr. W. F. Weaver, of Logans Gap, came to town in a great hurry after a tramp, whom he had lodged the night before, and who left in the morning early, but before he had exchanged his own old clothes for Mr. Weaver's best suit. [Well, did he catch him? Ed.]

Spring Mills Academy opened with 28 students—a very good beginning, and more are coming.

YONEY.

The Brockerhoff House in Bellefonte is now owned by Mr. W. R. Teller, who is at present giving that hotel a thorough over-hauling by changing, renovating and repairing the office, dining-room, bar &c. Mr. Teller is the right man in the right place. Under his proprietorship the guests can't help but feel at home at the Brockerhoff, because he is a first-class hotelier and a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman. Our readers, who go to Bellefonte, would do well, to stop at the Brockerhoff House.

Latest style hats at the Philadelphia Branch Store.

NEWS FROM BRUSH.

Judge Frank is in Bellefonte on biz. Our Select School has opened under favorable circumstances.

Master Eddie Miller broke his arm by falling from a vehicle a few days ago; he is doing very well under Dr. Hillbush's care.

Our Steamer has changed hands. Mr. Kennedy sold it to a Mr. Granley from Sugar Valley.

Some of our village belles (?) promenade the streets at a very unusual hour in the night. Remember girls your reputation is at stake.

The Rebersburg Union Sabbath School held its annual meeting on Monday evening for the purpose of electing officers to serve one year, and transact some other important business. The officers elected are the following: Pres. C. L. Gramley; Supt., S. Gramley; Asst. Supt., A. Leitl; Sec'y, L. B. Frank; Lib., Miss Alice M. Small; Reporter, E. Stover. The Treasurers re-joined for the year ending Apr. 1, 1881 semi-d to meet the approval of all. The school raised the amount of $26.00 and expended about $30.00 leaving a handsome sum in the Treasury. I don't whether any other S. S. in our valley can present a more healthy condition financially. The attendance for the quarter ending April 1, 1880 was 85 per cent.

and looked out, but could not distinguish any one. Next she heard glass breaking and soon afterward thought she heard voices on the first floor. She waited nearly an hour, listening intently, and then stole silently down the stairs leading into the kitchen. When she reached the foot of the stairs she pushed the door open, and, to her surprise, there stood a strange man near the gaslight. He wore a mask. With an oath the burglar turned upon her, raised a jimmy which he had in his hand, and struck her on the head. The girl fell to the floor and blood gushed from her nose and ears. As she fell she caught sight of a saucepan on the stove. It was full of boiling water and as the burglar rushed at her again, she jumped to her feet and dashed the contents of the pan into his face. With a yell and many curses he ran out of the back door, and cried to his accomplice who was standing in the yard: "Run, I'm scalded." The girl set up a shout, and as soon as the fellow got out of the kitchen she bolted the door. She also fastened the cellar door, which had been burst open, and then she fainted. It is feared that her skull is fractured.

THE WELSH MOUNTAIN THIEVES.—Reading, April 7. Three masked robbers, members of the Welsh mountain gang of thieves, called at the country residence of Isaac Seldombridge, a Dunkard farmer, near New Holland, and gained entrance. The farmer and sister heard the noise below and came down stairs. The robbers drew pistols and demanded silence and obedience.

The elderly lady was bound and one of the robbers held a pistol to her head. The farmer was compelled to deliver up all his money, after which the thieves departed but not before they had stripped the house of all the silverware and other articles. As they left they exclaimed "good bye, old fraud! The next time we call to see you have more stuff about you." They secured about one hundred dollars. The thieves are members of the band now terrorizing East Pennsylvania. They wore black masks.

A mother propped up her baby in a chair in a photograph gallery in Columbus, Ohio, to have its picture taken, and then excused herself for a moment. She has not yet returned.

In 1827, in Jessamine County, Ky., were born at the same hour and of the same mother, Martha, Mary, and Margaret Debol. They grew up together, caring for no other society; when they were just verging into womanhood their father died, having first extracted from them their promise never to marry and never to separate until death. They have kept the vow, and now in their fifty third year live in their old home.

MARRIED.

On the 4th inst., by Rev. W. M. Landis, Mr. Wm. Auman and Miss Lizzy C. Bieley, both of Tylersville, Clinton Co.

DIED.

On the 9th inst., near Woodward, Daniel Warutz, aged 65 years.

On the 23rd inst. in Haines township, Foster, son of Nathaniel Boop, aged 2 years and 1 day.

On the 4th inst., in Haines township, Infants of George and Mary J. Musser, aged 8 months and 9 days.

On the 7th inst., at Centre Hall, Dr. F. D. Neff, aged 63 years, 4 months and 15 days. Dr. Neff was called away in the morning to see Mrs. Baumgardner, a patient, near Centre Hill. He found Mrs. Baumgardner in a very critical condition, and sent for Dr. Jacobs, also of Centre Hall, in the afternoon. When Dr. Jacobs entered the sick room he found the friend and colleague sitting in a chair beside his patient—dead! While in the act of passing Mrs. Baumgardner's hand to her daughter, the lady expired.

Dr. Neff had been troubled with heart disease for some time, and had supplied with the excitement of that hour, by that dying woman beside his bed—his end.
