

Local Department.

—Fine lot of spring hats at the Philadelphia Branch.

—Our senior partner and his family left yesterday for a trip to Bellefonte.

—West Susquehanna Chapter of the Reformed Church will meet at Rebersburg, Wednesday, May 19th, proximo.

—Friday last was a cold "raff" day. Saw sparks of snow flying, just to give variety to the weather, we guess.

—Among the property advertised for sale by the sheriff of Union county is the Evangelical church at New Berlin.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Michael Swartz, brother of George Swartz, deceased, died very suddenly of heart disease, at Dubbersburg, on Tuesday, the 27th, ult.

New Books, New Books,

Just received at the Journal Book Store, the full set of school books now in use.

—We have had plentiful rains within the last week and vegetation is coming out wonderfully. Wheat and grass fields appear well.

—A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office.

—Lewin of the Philadelphia Branch, is continually receiving new goods. Don't fear that you can not be suited if you go there, either in style or price.

—Lest you might forget it we beg leave respectfully to remind you that the Building and Loan Association meets on Monday evening. Got your stamps ready?

—D. O. Bower & Son, (just exactly our initials, only we have no son) of Swenels, sold out their stock of store goods to Messrs. Zaring & Reitz of Shamokin, Pa.

—The JOURNAL BOOK STORE sells all the school books recently adopted by the school boards of Millheim Boro', Penn, Haines, Miles and Gregg townships.

—It gives us much pleasure to be able to report that our subscription schools, taught by Mr. Eisenhuth and Miss Laniach, are getting along quite successfully.

—Lewin, the enterprising manager of the Philadelphia Branch, is just now sending out beautiful chromos with his business card printed thereon. In business matters Lewin is up to any of them.

—Cornelius, of the Lewisburg Chronicle is mad, because spring is half over. He swears about the matter in the following profane words: Tempus fugit, Spring is half gone. Our faith in his piety is somewhat shaken.

—Kistler's tannery at Lock Haven, a big institution that employed about sixty men, and which was burnt to the ground recently, will be rebuilt at once. What's going to be done with the two defunct Millheim tanneries? Can anybody tell?

—Our friend Henry Bollinger will have sale of his personal effects, Saturday, May 8th, also on Saturday, May 22nd. He is preparing to emigrate to Dakota territory in company with a number of colonists from Stephenson county, Illinois. We wish him and his party much success.

We would again remind our correspondents that all communications to insure insertion the same week should reach us on Tuesday. If they come later it incurs a very much. Friends, please stick a pin right here.

—Business at the LOCK HAVEN BEE HIVE is booming. Mr. Everett and his corps of salesmen are busy as bees. We don't in the least wonder that such is the case, for there is no better place to buy in Pennsylvania than just Everett's Bee Hive at Lock Haven.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Lewisburg & Tyrone R. R. Company will be held at the office of the Company, No. 233 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, Pa., on Monday, May 3d, 1880 at 12 o'clock M.

Election for President and Directors same day and place.

JAS. R. MCCLURE,
Secretary.

—Ex-Sheriff Musser has taken an agency for the Southern Pennsylvania Mutual Relief Association, a company operated much upon the plan of the U. S. Aid Society. We know nothing of our own personal knowledge of this company, but the sheriff assures us that it is one of the solid institutions of the land. He is ready to impart any desired information to those who wish a cheap and safe life insurance.

—It is exceedingly difficult to write correct weather locals, unless they would be made very comprehensive. So whimsical is the weather that it changes at least several times a day. Saturday morning we had a very heavy frost. The ground was frozen and ice had formed fully half an inch thick, and yet we have not heard that vegetation was materially injured. On Sunday it was cold all day, but on Monday we had a fine, balmy spring morning.

GIRLS, don't fail to read the article headed "Cheap Girls." It is full of important lessons and they may do you a world of good if you heed them.

—The quitting business seems to be rather dull considering the fine weather we have had for the past few days. Harry, where are the "ringers" and the "standers"?

—We learn that council will meet in special on Monday evening to settle some misunderstanding about the crossings. Gentlemen, only don't get cross about it.

—Mr. Z. D. Thomas, of Aaronsburg, left on Tuesday for Altamont, Effingham county, Illinois. Like the sensible fellow he is, he subscribed for the JOURNAL before he left. Success to the man that has a prophet's name.

—Did you read Kamp, the shoeman's advertisement? What he says is entirely reliable. He is just as fair and square a man to deal with as you will find anywhere. We know whereof we affirm.

—If you desire to mark the last resting place of a dear departed friend with a tombstone, couch or monument, the Millheim Marble Works is your place to go to. You can buy as low here as you can in Philadelphia.

—Mr. Samuel Lewin, of the Philadelphia Branch Clothing Store, Bellefonte would like to see you, at his store. Better go at once—he wants to sell you the best and cheapest spring suit you ever had on your body.

—The many friends of C. M. Bower, Esq., will be gratified to see his short, handy and euphonious name on the Democratic electoral ticket of the state. Cal's picture in one of our illustrated papers would be a fortune to the publishers.

—Had a private letter from our friend Dr. J. B. Wagner, of Lebanon, in which he states that they are all well again, but that his brother David's wife has just recovered from a severe spell of sickness. Business is good. The Dr. may touch Millheim some time during the summer.

That tooth is all right, Dr. It was simply a splendid job.

MEETING OF TOWN COUNCIL.—Our Town Council had a meeting on Monday evening at which we understand considerable business was done, but we have not the proceedings at hand nor do we feel authorized to publish details, but hereby remind the council that we are entirely willing to publish their proceedings just as furnished us by their clerk, without any charge whatever. It is entirely proper that the proceedings of council should be published for the information of the citizens.

—We made a statement several weeks ago for which we owe an apology to somebody, if we only knew to whom. We stated namely that the mud puddle right in the middle of town was being filled up, which was true only as far as one or two loads of stone are concerned. The mudhole is still there, an eyecore both to strangers and citizens. But we beg pardon of the pike company or the town council—whomever it may concern, for having stated what is not true. No, the mud puddle is not filled up, but whether it ever will be is another question.

AN OLIVE BRANCH.—Married folks have their ups and downs too, just like other people. There is no absolute perfection in this life anywhere and least of all are those southern animals, called husbands, perfect. Were it not for the house-cleaning and garden-making seasons, most of them would do well enough, and the household peace would last pretty much all the year round. But these are the times that try men's souls in an emphatic and peculiar way. The man that can pass through such a season without grieving his better half at all should exhibit himself as a model husband.

There are no doubt many wounded hearts all over the land at this particular time caused by the thoughtlessness of men toward their wives. All such we would advise to restore peace and good will without delay. Go at once to Kamp's great Boot and Shoe Store, Lock Haven, and buy your wife a pair of Gaiters, Slippers or Walking Shoes and that will be a proof that you still love her and all will be well again. Try it.

ACCORDING TO THE Harrisburg Patriot the delegates to the Cincinnati convention will stand as follows: Tilden—18; Anti-Tilden—36. It is thought that a majority of the whole number is for Hancock.

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.—In seeing so many children on our streets at night, the thought strikes us that some parents are not giving their off-spring the care and attention necessary to a proper training. The earnest aim of parents should be to know the whereabouts of their children when night has fallen. It is a duty they owe them; and the dangerous practice of allowing children to be out, roaming the streets and mingling with those whose morals are corrupt; staring at and insulting passers by, should not be tolerated. And undoubtedly, if parents would pursue the proper course, a vastly different result would be noticeable. Keep your boys and girls in the house and provide them with good books, papers, and pleasant amusements and they will soon cultivate a taste for such ennobling pursuits and have little desire to roam the streets and form pernicious habits. The fruits of such course will be evident in after years when they have grown up to manhood and womanhood. They will be better prepared to fulfill their mission in life and become examples for those who will follow them. Parents, remember that the basest habits are formed on the streets, and now determine that your children shall not receive such an education.—Ex

CAUTION!

All persons are hereby cautioned not to buy a note drawn by me in favor of Thomas Harper, and held for collection by Solomon Ettlinger, as I will not pay the same unless compelled by law, having an offset against said note for almost twice its amount.

JACOB NEIDIGH.

Woodward, Pa., Apl. 23d, 1880.

—We would respectfully inform "Jonath" that we cannot publish his "Aaronsburg Sketches", first and mostly because he does not give his real name. This is required in all cases. The rule is imperative and without exception. And again because "Jonath" handles some of his neighbors a trifle too freely. He says "A." is very dull this week for the only reason that the proprietors are absent" and then indicates unmistakably who the proprietors of Aaronsburg are. That's a style of wit that people don't like a bit. Lastly we have a good, efficient itemizer in A. who dishes up the weekly news in the most approved style. Only this week, for some reason, he failed to come to time.

—Lewisburg has nearly if not as many preachers as she has lawyers. For evidence note the following: Evangelical—Reids. E. Kohr, Z. Hornberger, Geo. Hunter, W. M. Croman, S. T. Buck, W. P. Thomas, —Reeser, —Detweiler. Lutheran —Rev. W. W. Criley. Reformed —Reids. Layton Gearhart, J. C. Bucher. Christian—Rev. E. Abbot. Presbyterian—Reids. —M'Donald. —Krum. Methodist—Reids. H. G. Dill, M. K. Foster. Baptist—Reids. —J. R. Loomis, F. W. Tustin, Geo. Frear, David Williams, A. K. Bell, S. W. Zeigler, D. J. Hill. Besides the above the College contains a number of ministerial candidates.

The Lock Haven Journal gives the following account of the patient sufferings of a young lady aged 24 years, near Wolfe's Store, in Brush Valley, who has been an invalid all her life time, and has never been removed from her cradle. We never heard of this case before, although Wolfe's Store is but 9 miles from Millheim:

At Wolfe's Store, Centre county, resides a family named Minch, which has for a member a young lady now aged 24 years, who has never been able to sit up a minute. From her infancy she was afflicted with a remarkable growth of the head, the other parts of the body remaining slender and powerless. Instead of the perietal bones uniting at the top they separated, and the "soft spot" common to children under one year remains yet, while the entire head is elongated and has a circumference about as large as that of a common peck measure. She is about five feet in length and has spent all her days in the cradle. It is impossible for her to raise her head by any muscular exertion, and she requires the same attention that was necessary when a mere baby. She is quite sensible and converses with members of her own family, but is exceedingly averse to strangers. The eye of curiosity so often obtained upon unfortunate beings of this class, causes her to wince and blush and give other signs of uneasiness, showing a native sensitiveness. She seems to bide her wearisome situation with a resignation seldom found in the human kind.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

Spring Mills Academy, in charge of Prof. D. M. Wolf, is flourishing.

Mr. J. A. Grenoble has taken a half interest in the stove and tin store. The firm name is Bingham & Grenoble. Success to you, gentlemen; but advertise in the JOURNAL and try the virtue of printer's ink.

Mr. Henry Krumrine returned from Snyder county the other day with the tallest bride ever seen in these diggings. The "boys" serenaded them twice already.

Duncan's family have removed to Lewisburg to reside. Very sorry to lose so worthy a family that has been identified with our local history these many years.

Duncan & Son will continue the mercantile business at their old stand. Mrs. Greining, the lady who purchased the Duncan property, arrived on Tuesday. Mr. Runk, her agent, contemplates some great improvements on and about the premises.

The communion services at Penns Creek Lutheran church last Sunday was an interesting and impressive occasion. A very able sermon was preached by pastor Tomlinson. Nine persons united with the church. May they remain faithful and become largely useful.

Cheap Girls.

A girl who makes herself too cheap is one to be avoided. No young man—not even the worst, except for a base purpose—wants anything to do with a cheap young lady. For a wife, none but a fool or a rascal will approach such a woman. Cheap girls are nothing but the refuse, and the young men know it, and they will look in every other direction for a life long partner before they will give a glance at the pinchbeck stuff that tinkles at every turn for fascinating the eye of any that will look. You think it is quite the correct thing to talk loudly and coarsely, be boisterous and hoydenish in all public places, to make yourself so bold and forward and commonplace everywhere that people wonder whether you ever had a mother, or a home, or anything to do! So be it. You will probably be taken for what you are worth, and one of these years, if you do not make worse than a shipwreck of yourself, you will begin to wonder where the charms are that you once thought yourself possessed of, and what evil spirit could have so befuddled you. Go on, but remember cheap girls attract nobody but fools and rascals.—Ex

News Miscellany.

The Square Truth About It.

The Altoona Tribune says that the most liberal men to deal with, no matter in what business they may be, are always those who advertise liberally, and persons who are about to buy will always find it to their advantage to consult the columns of the newspapers to find out, where they can buy the best. It is not safe to patronize a man who won't advertise, for the same sluggish spirit and lack of enterprise as shown by his lack of appreciation of advertising will be found preying his whole business. Men who advertise are those who come out boldly and do business above board. They say here are our goods and these are our prices, and we will suit you in both. They can afford to sell cheaper and do, because by doing a large business they are enabled to buy and sell cheaper and make money in the long run. It is folly to expect a man who does a small, slow and old fashioned business, to sell as cheaply as one who pushes things along and is up to the times in all things. It can't be done, and those persons who wish the most for their money will always patronize the men who advertise their goods and wares and deal fairly and squarely with the public.

AN IMPORTANT INVENTION.—Daniel Williamson of Sunbury has patented a machine of his invention which binds a sheaf of grain with a band made of straw taken from the sheaf. The inventor has already been written to by Mr. Whitley of the Champion Reaper Co., of Springfield, Ohio, a Reaper Manufacturing Co. at Samsbury, Ohio, and also by the Osborne Reaper Co. to open negotiations for the purchase of his invention. The binder can easily be attached to any reaper and the additional burden will be trifling. Mr. Williamson is a Pennsylvania German, a tailor, and aged about 52 years.

IT SHOULD OPERATE AS A WARNING.—Mrs. Aggie Beach, a woman in Whitehall township, Lehigh county, Pennsylvania, was "jawing" her children, the neighbors, a hired girl and every body in general, when her husband entered and interposed a mild word. She opened her mouth for an angry reply, but a spasm contracted her cheek, her lower jaw fell, and she could neither speak nor shut her mouth; her tongue hung out and her eyes nearly started out of their sockets. She had dislocated her jawbone in her violent effort to make a stinging reply to her husband.

PRETTY WELL SUPPLIED.—Northumberland county has sixty-nine attorneys, thirty-seven of whom live in Sunbury, ten in Milton, ten in Shamokin, four in Northumberland, three in Watsonstown, two in Mt. Carmel, one in Montandon, one in Turbotville and one in River-side.
