-Our editor is off attending a Lutheran conference at Mifflinburg. That is to say he started for that place. We wouldn't be the least surprised though, if upon his return he would relate how the ruins of Milton look, how business is booming at HARRIS' STANDARD STORE in Lewisburg, or how Christ is getting along at New Berlin. That's just the way he acts. When he says he is going to a particular place one is never sure that he goes only to that one place. Guess he begins to think he has business most anywherein the world.

HEAVY SHIPMENTS .- The lumber shipments over the Lewisburg & Tyrone Rail Road have increased very beavily for the last few months and are becoming really a big thing. About 25, to 30,000 feet are shipped from Coburn Station daily. Fully three fifths of this amount is oak car stuff. the balance pine, nemlock and shingles. 3 cars loaded with oak and 2 with other lumber, is about the average number of cars sent daily from Coburn. Large quantities are also sent from other points along the road-Spring Mills and Fowler particularly, but we have no means of knowing just how much. Viewing the matter simply from a business point we can not but "Woodman, spare that tree."

Bellefonte boasts a street sprinkler, which early 'every morning cuts the the dust and renders that agent of discomfort harmless.

Even the public officers have not neglected the all essential house cleaning. And especially prothonotary Harper's quarters have been cleansed, the documents dusted, refiled and relabeled.

Our social circles are rejoiced at the return of several of their number who had strayed away during the winter. Misses Kate Curtin, Lizzie Forster and Clara Lyon are among those who recently made their appearance.

Among the graduates at the Reformed Theological Seminary at Lancaster, last Thursday was Mr. Frank Wetzel, of this place. Mr. Wetzel is wellknown in Jenns Valley, and has preached at various times in almost all the towns in the valley. Also a subscription list was opened and liberally subscribed to. The whole amount of all the donations in cloth ing, food and cash was near a thousand dollars. Thus by this timely response to an afflicted siste r town, our citizens erected a monument of their generosity which will be never obliterated. They demonstrated to Gov. Hoyt's saying, "That they who give timely give double."

DECORATION HYMN.

BY Rav. W. H. VENABLE. TUNE-AMERICA. 1. Beneath the summer sky,
How peacefully they lie
At rest from wars;
Oh, sacred hold the grave,
Of each devoted brave,
Who poured his blood to save
The Stripes and Stars.

2. Their marches now tre o're, They wield the sword no more To smite our fees;
No sound of hostile drum
To their low tents may come;
Or break the silence dumb
Of their repose.

But grateful throngs shall bring Each year their offering Of grief and love; Bright garlands should be spread, Anp tribute peardrops shed For patriot heroes dead, minutes and inform me where that cheap store is the people talk so much about?"

"Oh, yes, with pleasure. The Philadelphia Branch, you mean?"

"Yes, that is the name. It sounds down the valleys and up the plains."

"Do you see away down that street yonder, where that great crowd of People is congregated?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, that is the place. It is unnecessary for me to enumerate their goods; they have them. Only go ahead, you will not be disappointed, either in quality or price. You will find everything you want, in their line, and very accommodating men to wait on you, and show you goods, whether you buy or not. Be particular in going through to make your selections, as you might be detained in getting the second opportunity. They will adhere strictly to their motto: "One Price" and no overcharge to catch the customer, and all goods marked in plain figures. So you can see for yourself. Go ahead, neighbor; you cannot be disappointed in buying clothing there and such other goods as they keep. So good-by neighbor, I must be jogging along."

"Say, hold on! I will not detain you long. As you have been there and priced their goods, be kind enough to tell me their prices?"

"Oh, with pleasure; then you will wouder how they sell so cheap."
