GARFIELD THE MAN.

The Chicago National Republican convention after an intense agony of six days, on Tuesday afternoon nominated James A. Garfield, of Ohio for President. A week ago perhaps not a single man throughout the entire United States thought of Garfield even as a possibility and to-day he is the nominee of the Republican party for the highest office in the nation. His is a nomination by the politicians-certainly not by the people in any sense.

As a politician and partisan Mr. Garfield ranks high, but as a statesman and candidate for President he is very it would carry the country, too .- Lewordinary timber. Mr. Garfield has one lucky point in his favor-he is from Ohio, a state that has more office holders to the square mile than any other state in the Union. He will have load enough to carry as a candidate bowever, not the least of which will be his connection with the Credit Mobilier scandal and the De Golver contracts. But we will see what we will see.

The Vice Presidency. LATEST BY TELEGRAPH-On Tuesday evening the convention nominated on the first ballot Chester A. Arthur, of New York. This is the man that was removed from the collectorship of New York city, by President Hayes and Sezretary Sherman, for general unfitness.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION IN DETAIL.

The Republican National convention of 1880 was the most boisterous and disorderly body of its kind that ever assembled in the United States. Even the Charleston Convention of 1890. was no exception in its fayor. Bitterness, hisses, groans, howling and a mixture of all possible noises make a perfect pandamonium of the convention. All this proves that the party is about played out and fast" approaching dissolution. We give some of the details of Friday night:

CHICAGO, June 5-12.01 A. M .-When Storrs in his speech mentioned Grant's name the applause was vocif.

12.14 A.M.-New York delegation singing "Marching Through Georgia," All hands join in.

12.15 A. M.-Now strigging "Rally Around the Flag." Great cheering for Frant, John Wentworth looms up the past week, brought about by the in midst of Illinois delegation with hat on cane.

12,16 A. M .- Emory A. Storrs is assisting the chairman in restoring order, his collar hanging down his back. Three cheers are now being given for Grant.

12.17 A. M .- The tumult and confusion now exceeds any other, the cheer ing being changed for Blaine, and the entire convention now on their feet. 1278 A. M.—The convention is a a ballot. 12.20 A. M.-Cat calls, yells, swinging umbrellas and banners and excitement beyond any possible description. 12.21 A. M .- The excitement continswuag most furiously.

12.22 A. M.-The platform about the speaker occupied by the national committee and distinguished guests, who have just arisen in spirit of the occasion, is a scene of the wildest excite-

12.24 A. M.-At this moment there seems no possbility of checking the tumult. It is not mob, but an expression of enthusiasm beyond description. The chairman has abaudoned all efforts at enforcing order.

12.25 A. M.—Conkling and a portion of the New York delegation are quiet ly sitting in their seats as if nothing was going on. Pandemonium continnoise and gesticulation to compel the and indfferent.

12.30 A. M.-Grant banners have albeen dropped down and are hid in the vast crowd. The chairman is trying to restore order. Banners are now being returned to their state location.

12.34 A. M.—Order has been partially restored. 12.42 A. M.-The chairman has suc ceeded in restoring comparative order, the delegates and guests in his favor having tired themselves out.

12. 45 A. M.—Sherman's name being mentioned there was great cheering, which continued for some time.

1 A. M.-A motion to adjourn lost. 1.02 A. M.-The question on adjournment was put the second time and lost. The roll of states has been ordered on adjournment.

1.06 A. M.—The roll of states resulted against adjournment.

1,20 A. M .- A motion that the min ority report on the contested districts of Illinois be submitted for the major ity report was lost, and the roll of states was demanded now being 'called.

1.58 A. M.—The roll of states on the adoption of the minority report on the contested Second district in Illinois in place of the majority resulted, in favor of 353, against 387.

Justice Field, of the U. S. Supreme Court, has a strong support for the Democratic nomination for President, Col. Wm. R. Morrison, member of Congress from Illinois, is popular for the same honor. But we incline to think as good a ticket as could be nominated would be Hancock for President. and Morrison for Vice President, and isburg Journal.

That's what we call hitting the nail square on the head, Brother Whitman. Let the Cincinnati convention give us Gen. Hancock and success is all but certain.

The South Carolina delegation to the Democratic convention are in fal vor of Bayard for President.

Looming Up.

We clip the following from a reliable Washington correspondence. It shows plainly in what high estimate General Hancock is held and indicates strongly that the brave general may yet be the coming man, Let every Democrat in the old Keystone give the Hancock boom a hoist:

General Hancock's friends here continue to receive evidences of his steadily growing strength, though they are not making any noise about him, believing as a prominent New Yorker wrote in a private letter the other day, that as soom as the dead wood is cleared away by two or three ballots, Hancock's popularity will begin to show itself. Private letters from Kansas say he is the choice of that delegation. He will have advotes in every southern delegation and a majority in several of them. His friends claim that it is not politic to take a candidate specially identified with any of the questions, such as free trade, greenbackism, or railroad monopolies, which have been the cause of dissension within the party during the past decade; that what is ent democratic principles, with as many of the elements of popularity as possible, and with a Union record about which there can be no possible cavil or mistake, These conditions they think Hancock fulfils in a preeminent degree. About the only democratic leader who can be called a statesman and who is not disabled in some way by his past record is Seymour, and the idea of making him a candidate has at last been abandoned even by the Washingerous and continued for several min- ton Post, which has advocated him persistently for six months past.

The Kintzler Murder in Snyder County.

A great deal of excitement has been prevailing in Middleburg, Snyder Co, rearrest of some of the alleged Kintzler murderers, one of whom was tried in December, 1878. A detective has been in the employ of the County Commissieners upwards of a year in ferreting out those who perpetrated the foul deed, having first confined his operations to this county until Emanuel Ettinger and Mary Hartley, his paramour made their escape into Ohio, and finally Michigan, where they were traced. howling mob. There is no prospect of During the week District Attorney Grimm received a 'dispatch from the detective stating that he had the parties in custody at Kalamazoo, Michigan, and on Friday morning arrived, bringing with him Mary Hartley, Etues, hats being thrown from the gal- tinger who was handcuffed, having the banners of New York state being it was running at the rate of thirty miles an hour.

Immediately upon the receipt of the dispatch three men in authority were ordered to make the arrest of Israel Erb and Jonathan Moyer, living along Jack's Mountain. They were arrested at night without any difficulty and imprisoned in the county jail, where they will be held for trial until September term of court. No arrests were made until sufficient testimony was obtained to make conviction sure, as the difficulty at the former trial was because there was no testimony offered by the commonwealth sufficient to corroborate the evidence of Mary Hartley, an accomplice, in a material point, and it was so held by his Honor Judge Buch-12.28 A. Many of our readers will recall the circumstances attending this murder, Two old people, man and wife, who lived in seclusion, in Adams township, Snyder Co., were evidently murdered for the money they were known to have in their old house, and the house was burned to hide the crime. This took place in December, 1877. It is more than probable than this affair will lead to the erection of the first gallows in Snyder county.

One of the most urgent demands of our time is a system of education which snall train the young to apply their school learning. At the Pennsylvania State College practical instruction in Agriculture, Horticulture, Botany, Zo. ology, Mechanist, Chemistry, etc; is given, and thus theory in the class room is applied and enforced by experience in the field and laboratory. Spring session opens April 9th. For catalogue and full information address the Business Manager, State College, Centre
