DEININGER & BUMILLER.

Local Department.

-Only one price and that a very low one prevails at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

Sunday School Reward Cards Tickstore, Bellefonte.

-HEADQUARTERS for Books and Stationary, at the Model Book Store of John C. Miller & Co. Bellefonte, Pa.

-WANTED. Two good stout girls for kitchen work. Permanent situathe JOURNAL OFFICE. A VETERAN .- Rev. J. G. Anspach, of Mifflinburg, has served fifty years in the Lutheran ministry. He is still hale and hearty and in active service

-A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this of-

-Chromos, Brackets, Wall Pockets, Picture Frames, Toilet Setts, Fancy & Co, Bellefonte, Pa.

-The board of Trustees of Pennsylvania State College at a session held at mew who was sitting on his door steps wania State College at a session held at Bellefonte, May 27th, elected Prof. Joseph Shortlidge, of Concordville, Delaware county, Pa., President, vice Dr. James Calder, resigned. The new President is a brother to Col. Wm. Shortlidge, of Bellefonte.

—Tile Millheim Marble Works

mew who was sitting on his door steps a few rods further on that "some foolish fellow up here shot." The two re turned to the spot and found Brown lying on the board walk face downward. Mr. Bartholcmew turned him over but he drew only a few more breaths.

Deceased w. 8 a son of Heury Brown,

The Millheim Journal," and in "The Reformed Church Messenger," and that a copy of the same be sent to Mr. Mussina.

U. W. E. Sirgell, Wm. T. Meyer, Committee.

Harvey Musser)

-THE MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS a departed friend the Millheim Works was paid to his talk. is the place to serve you.

-Had a pleasant little call from Rev. J. Benson Akers, Monday morning. We find Mr. Akers an agreeable, well-informed gentleman, a fluent conversationalist and a faithful minister of the gospel. May his labors on Pennsvalley charge be both pleasant and profitable.

-If you desire to mark the last resting place of a dear departed friend with a tombstone, couch or monument, the Millheim Marble Works is your place to go to. You can buy as low here as you can in Philadeldhia.

-Wednesday of last week Rev. John Tomlinson officiated at a wedding and at a funeral, all in the forenoon. The wedding was that of Rev. E. H. Dornplaser and Miss Cannie S. Bright, and the funeral that of Mr. George Fowler,

-The JOURNAL BOOK STORE sells all the school books recently adopted by the school boards of Millheim Boro', Penn, Haines, Miles and Gregg town-

VERDICT OF THE LOCK HAVEN JURY .- The coroner's jury in the case of Mrs. Friedel, whose remains were found in the burning ruins of her house, rendered a verdict that she came to her death at the hands of some person or persons unknown. Wagner, who was arrested on suspicion, has been released.

-The Lewisburg Chronicle says that the happiest set of fellows in that region are those who are insured in the Lycoming Insurance Company. The idea that they are privileged to assist their afflicted neighbors to such a great extent gives them such sweet repose of mind.

tending Union Seminary, at New the pillow. Berlin, has safely survived "commencement" and is at home. Just exactly where the young "man" expects to attend mostly from this on we can not positively say as we didn't ask him, and what is more it is none of our Farmer's Mills whom I recognized as business, either.

-Mr. Charles Mussina, of Williams dort, than whom you can't find a more elever fellow within a radius of about fifty miles, did about the nicest, neatest, most appropriate act we heard of in a long time, in presenting a fine silver communion service to the Reformed congregation of Aaronsburg, his native town. How we wish that some body would remember us poor Lutherns in Millheim, in the same way. Hope some one that can stand it will aprove the opportunity.

PASS HIM: AROUND .- In another olumn we publish the card of Rev. J. Benson Akers, in which he calls attenion to the character and acts of a certain Jeremiah Brobst, formerly a respected citizen of Catawissa, but now a miserable, filthy thramp and first class fraud, who makes a living by imposng on Free Masons and Odd Fellows. He is a sleek, smooth talker-just the ellow to deceive the unwary. He succeeded in obtaining money from several of our Odd Fellows here, and in one case that we know of from a ges please copy.

SUICIDE IN MILLHEIM.

Elmer E. Brown Shoots Himself Dead on the Public Street.

On Monday evening, just as the shades of night were lowering upon the earth our community was startled by a rumor that Elmer E. Brown, a young Editors and Proprietors. man aged about eighteen years, had shot himself and was dying on Penn street. In a few moments a large crowd of people had gathered together around the corpse, for such it already was, There lay the body of the young man, on the side walk just below Henry Kreamer's shop, with upturned ghastly face, 'fifs clothing over the breast ets, &c. at John C. Miller & Co. Book stained with a large spot of blood, showing where the fatal bullet had entered. ...

'Sacob Eisenhuth, Esq, who was present, at once proceeded to organize JOHN C. MILLER & Co. of Belle-R. B. Hartman, Wm. F. Smith, R. A. of wire. fonte, have the finest assortment of Bumiller, C. A. Sturgis, H. N. Kresm-Wall Paper ever brought to Centre er, John Stoner, Augustus Huey, S. K. 4t Faust, W. L. Bright, Charles Eiserman, W. K. Alexander and Jacob Gephart, who after hearing a number of tion and good wages. Apply at once at witnesses rendered the following verdict: That Elmer E. Brown, did by his own act, and with a revolver-a deadly weapon in his own hands, shoot himself in his body about two inches below and to the right of the left nipple causing a mortal wound, of which mortal wound the aforesaid Elmer E.

Brown then and there instantly died. Three young ladies, Misses Emma J. Ulrick, Clara Stover and Maggie Alexander were sitting on Mr. Jonathan Harter's verandah, just over the street when and where Brown shot himself. China Ware and Velvet Frames, al Harvey Lamey had just passed him a in endless variety at John C. Miller few paces when he heard the report, but passed on not thinking of anything serious, and remarked to Mr. Bartholo-

Deceased was a son of Henry Brown, are prepared to furnish anything in a resident of Millheim since April. No their line of trade, from a little head, cause is positively known for the rash stone to a costly and elaborate monu- act. He was much depressed and it is ment, at prices that can not be under- reported that he told one of his sisters sold in the state. If you want any- in the afternoon that he would do thing to mark the last resting place of away with himself, but no attention portion of our paper. This proposition comes from a responsible House, which

NEWS FROM BRUSH.

Prof. Meyer is sick. Mrs. Burkert, wife of Rev. Cyrus

Burkert, is here on a visit. It is supposed that eleven hundred people were in town on Decoration

Day. Two hundred and fifty children were in procession. Our new school board has organized by electing J. A. Gramley, Prest., J. C. Smull, Sec. and H. G. Royer, Collector and Treasurer. One of the members has already won for himself a world-wide reputation by suggesting to reduce the tax to one and a half mills, defray all other expense bliss it is folly to be wise. shoes, some coffee and several other the value it should have represented. small articles. They gained an entrance through the wood house.

first and then let the teachers have the flimsy balance. Where ignorance is

A few nights after the above occurtim to thieving.

through the cellar, entered the room his work.-Ex. essary to say that these depredations are her with savage fury, and finally killed the result of home industry. It is the her. Her son, maddened by the sight, general opinion that we have an orga- chopped the brute to pieces. nized band of robbers in our valley, and if so our good people may rest as- sis in a Michigan sawmill. He fell Mr. E. D. Keen, who has been at- and not a few sleep with a -under but utterly helpless. The saw had cut

> Quis? For the Journal. AN IMPOSTOR.

MR. EDITOR: A few days ago I met a man near an old acquaintance. He was formerly among the well-to-do class of citizens of Catawissa. He is about six feet in height-about 50yrs of age, rather friendly and pleasant in his address and bearing. His hair is slightly tine ged with gray. He had on a slouch hat (brown I think,) and a long linen duster. He told me he was in the secret service business and was looking for a couple of Mollie Maguires who were furking around in the community. He professed to be a member of the Masonic Fraternity and by imposing himself on some of the members of the order to procure money from them. He stopped all night at the Spring Mills Hotel but was so shockingly filthy (lousy) that the proprietor drove him away the next morning. His real name His family connection are among the back on after the honeymoon. respectable and well-to-do class of

J. BENSON AKERS. ven of the press; help him along; exchan. short time he will serve the public by ond, with 21, and York has 20, the first class work. Come soon.

pass him along-and especially let the Freemasons beware of him.

BELLEFONTE ITEMS.

The street corners are crowded with excited politicans discussing the probabilities of the Chicago convention. There is no chance for a little fellow to get near the bulletin boards in front of the Pest Office and Telegraph office.

The Band was out on the streets on last Friday evening and gave our citzens a musical treat. Under the teaching of Prof. Willis the "Mountain City Band" is fast becoming one of the best, if not the best band in this section of the state. The boys can congratulate themselves on having secured the services of so good a teacher.

A great crowd was gathered in front of the Court House, on Saturday after. noon to hear a man give a lecture on 'Locks." From what the man said there is no use any more to lock our doors, as any one can open a lock of an inquest with the following jury: any kind with a penknife and a piece

We had the pleasure of listening to Greenback speech ou Wednesday evening. After delivering his so-called greenback speech he passed his hat aroand, into which each one could put from ten cents to one dollar, in return for which the speaker gave each contributor an envelope containing jewelry worth about two cents. The whole business was a profound fraud. B.

> For the Millhelm Journal. Resolutions of Thanks.

Whereas the Reformed congregation at Aaonsburg, Centre Co., Pa., has recently been made the recipient of a very handsome silver ommunion service, the gift of Mr. Charles C. Mussina, a former resident of our town, and now an enterprising jeweler of Williamsport,

Resolved, That we, the undersigned commit-Resolved. That we, the undersigned committee, appointed by the consistory to draft these resolutions, in giving expression to the sentiments of the congregation, desire hereby to convey to the kind donor our high appreciation of the Christian friendship, and hearty, good feelings, which prompted him to place within our Sanctuary this appropriate and lasting memorial. Resolved, That, in the name of the congrega

A FREE BOOK!

Those who are out of health, and looking about to see what they can do to better their condition, would do well to send to the Murray Hill Pub. Co., for the free Book, advertised in another would hardly offer anything even as a gift, which has not some real value, or matters of interest to those for whom it was intended. SEND FOR IT. -

News Miscellany.

A LAW POINT.

No man who builds up to his line has the legal right to open a window upon his neighbor's land. The main reason for refusing such a privilege is that after twenty years' enjoyment it becomes a vested right, so that the owner of the land upon which the windows open cannot build it 'up, and thus by his own walls close up the windows. An owner of a lot recently allowed his neighbors on each side to open side windows to their houses upon it, supposing that they could on ly enjoy it until he wished to build. After twenty-ROBREBIES. A short time ago one years he found that he could not Daniel Brumgard's home was entered build so as to close the windows, nor by some thieves who stole a pair of could be sell the lot for anything like

WHEN we see a elergyman kissing the male members of the flock as wel as the female-the tobacco-chewing, rence Mr. John Hubbler also fell a vic- pipe-smoking, beer-drinking old sinners, as well as the young and pretty ones-The thieves gained an entrance we begin to believe that his heart is in where Mr. & Mrs. Hubbler were sleep- A ferocious buldog broke his chain ing, ransacked several drawers in a at Wheeling, Va., and attacked a very bureau and obtained $81.50 as the booty old woman. She made all the defence of their expedition. It is hardly nec- she could, but he threw her down, bit

A man was struck down by paraly. sured that this band will quite fre- across a log which was being sawed. quently give evidence of its existence. and was carried with it slowly but Our citizens are beginning to rouse up, surely to the saw. He was conscious, half way through his arm when his awful predicament was discovered.

> Robinson Warren of St. Clairsville, Ohio, had always been so submissive under the domination of his wife, that when he finally nerved himself to protest against her clubbing their child, she furiously caught up a handy revolver and killed him.

MUST BE PUBLISHED .- Auditors of boroughs and townships too often neglect the publication of their accounts. The law requires that it should be done and affixes penalties for neglect of such duty. Cases have come before the courts in several counties of the State, and the auditors have settled their accounts they are in duty bound to publish them as the law directs. When the borough or township has no indebtedness neglect to publish incurs a fine of $20; but if the borough or township is in debt the neglect incurs a fine of $1,000 .- Exchange. It it

A KNOWLEDGE of cooking is not assential to the happiness of a bride and is Jeremiah Brobst from Catawissa. groom, but it is a handy thing to fall

The Secretary of the commonwealth that community. It would be well to has completed a list of all the cities and boroughs in the State for the Department of the Interior at Washington, and reports that there are 24 cities and Mr. E. L. BERGSTRESSER, the 550 boroughs. Schuylkill has 24 borwell known Photographer, has fitted oughs, the largest number of any coun-Mason too. Give him a "puff" breth- up Mr. Bollinger's gallery where for a ty in the State. Westmoreland is secthird highest in number.

-Neighbor F. P. Musser, "the man 1880. what writes up the people," brought a strawberry into our office on Monday morning that measured four inches in circumference. Pierce gave no special name for his strawberry, but on general grounds we are entirely safe in calling it a good, big kind, and Penns Vallies Join Nittany On the 2nd instant, at Mountain Home, the residence of the bride's pare nts, by Rev. John Tomlinson, Rev. E. H. Dorn blaser, of Lamartine, Clarion Co., Pa., to Miss Cannie S. Bright, of Aaronsburg, Pa. The marining of the day that marks this hap-py event the sun rose gloriously over the east-ern hills awaking this beautiful valley into life.

MARRIED.

It was a perfect morning !—a morning just in-tended for a wedding. Miss Bright is one of Aaronsburg's most es-teemed and loved daughters. Rev. Dornblaser one of Nittany's most promising sons—an earnest, thorough student and excellent preacher. They enter the holy state under the most favor-

The wedding was quiet and without ostentation. The attendants were Rev. Charles Schnure of Laurelton, and Miss Jennie E. Bright, the charming and accomplished sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Tomlinson, the bride's pastor, in the presence of only the most intimate friends of the bride and exom. The presents were well-chosen, substantial

The presents were well-chosen, substantial and pretty—expressing the esteem and best wishes of the donors

The bridal party left on the 10,30 train for Lewisburg, Lock Haven, and other places, and a week from the wedding day they expect to go to Mr. Dornblaser's charge in Clarion county. They both have many friends who wish them all the joy, happiness and success that follows earnest, devoted, christian lives. May the new home be adorned and protected by all the lovellest graces of earth, unfolded moarest Christ the great Sun of Righteousness.

The bride will be greatly missed in the church the Sunday school and the social circles of Aaronsburg. Her departure causes some tender wounds; but her friends have the sweet consolation to know that she is in worthy hands, and lation to know that she is in worthy hands, and that after earth's wearlsome pilgrimage is over that after earth's wearisome pilgrimage is over they will "Meet—ne'er to sever."

The bride takes most excellent qualifications with her into her new and important sphere. Among Aaronsburg's many estimable and exemplary young ladies, she was a shining light—one of the "brightest and best." And yet we are safe to say that much material is_still left there eminently fit for ministers' wives.

The following are the names of the guests who enjoyed this happy affair: Mr. & Mrs. Wendler Roland, of Lewishnrg; Rev. Charles Schaure, of Laurelton; Miss Ella Dornblaser, of Lock Haven; Misses Meyer and Dornblaser, of Clintondale; Prof. W. T. Meyer and lady; Mr. & Mrs. B. O. Deininger; Miss Alice Bright, Miss Jennie E. Bright, Miss Annie Sahn, of New Berlin; Rev. & Mrs. John Tomlinson; Mrs. John Yarger, Dr. J.J. Deshler, Mr. James Lenker, Miss Sue Lenker, Miss Alice Bollinger.

Nearly ali of the guests accompanied the happy couple to the depot at Coburn to give them a last kind parting word. Now the signatis given—hats and handkerchiefs are waved—the train moves—rounds the curve and is soon out of sight, but it is followed by the warmest prayers of those that are left behind.

??D,

At the Evangelical parsonage, Madisonburg, April 22nd, 1880, by Rev. W. H. Stover, Mr. John J. Shultz, to Miss Sarah C. Bressler, both of Miles township, Centre Co., Pa. May their voyage through life be pleasant.

At the residence of John F. Price, Esq., o Sugar Valley, by Rey. D. P. Kline, May 16, 1880. Mr. Albert R. McCaleb, of Mackeyville, Clinton county, to Miss Mary Musser of Wolfe's Store, Centre county.

DIED.

On the 31st ult., in Haines township, Mr George Fowler, aged 75 years, 4 months and 3

Deceased was born in Berks county. Pa. bu came to Centre county many years ago and purc hased about 900 acres of timberland and engaged in the lumber business. He vigorously encouraged the building of the L. C. & S. C. railroad. He was of a kind, charitable disposition and leaves are many tribulates mourn his tion and leaves very many friends to mourn his departure. He has been afflicted with cancer for several years before his death. He was a great sufferer but hore his affliction with com-mendable patience. J. T.

On the 29th ult., in Lebanon, Pa., Mrs. Wagner, wife of David B. Wagner, aged about 5

At Hublersburg, May 22nd, 1880, of tumor in stomach, Mrs. Hunnah Swartz, wife of George Swartz, foundryman, aged 55 years. On the 24th ult., in Sugar Valley, John William, infant of John S. & Amanda Jones, aged 7 months and 7 days.

On the 26th ult., in Sugar Valley, Miss Susannah Hahn, aged 79 years, 4 months and 16 days. (Clinton county papers please copy.) On the 7th inst., in Aaronsburg, Hannah Maria Parker, wife of Henry B. Fullmer, aged 55 years, 11 months and 5 days.

Millheim Market.

	Corrected every	Wednesday by	Gephart.
	Wheat No. 1		1.10
1	Wheat No. 2		1.00
- 1	Corn		.45
,	Rye		760
. 1	Oats White		33
'	Oats, Black		30
	Buckwhest		50
-1	Flour		6.00
	Bran & Shorts, per to		20.00
- 1	Salt, per Brl		2.00
1	Plaster, ground		10.00
	Cement, per Bushel.		45 to 50
1	Barley		59
	Tymothyseed
1	Flaxseed		43
- 1	Cloverseed		5.00
: 1	Butter		15
	Hams		10
П	8ides		7
1	Veal
	Pork
-	Beet
	Eggs		12,
1	Petatoes
	Lard		6
1	Tallow
•	Soap		5
	Dried Apples
2	Dried Peaches
	Dried Cherries		- X- 7 (A)
	COAL	MARKET.

Stove "Chestnut" NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

OPENING!! Just received a Full Spring ock of MILINERY & CODS consisting of Bonnets, Round Hats, French Flowers, Feathers, Ribbon andall kinds of Fancy Goods, Mrs. Anna M. Weaver's.

Dress Making a Speciality!

She invites her many friends and customers to call at her place of business on PENN STREET, MILLHEIM, PA.

RVIN HOUSE (Most Central Hotel in the City,) COR. MAIN AND JAY ST., Lock Haven, Pa.,

S.WOODS CALDWELL, PROPRIETOR Go d Sample Rooms for Commercial Traveler on Arst floor.

BEE HIVE! To my Friends in Penns and Brush Valleys!

THE LARGEST

RY GOODS

1880

Stock for the Spring of 1880.

which is simply Immense in all its Departments. 30,000 Yards Bleached and Unbleached Muslins,

A large stock of 10-4, 9-4, 6-4, 5-4 UTICA BLEACHED and UNBLEACHED SHEETINGS and PILLOW CASINGS 3000 Yards Good (alice, Fast Colors. Beautiful Styles, 6 Cents a Yard.

The Largest Stock of TABLE LINENS ever shown in this City at old prices. 500 TOWEES at 25 Cents, worth 40
Cents. 35 dozen 3-4 Bleached all LINEN NAPKINS at $2.65, worth $3.40. 18 inch Twilled Heavy Towelling, 18

Yards of Summer Pantings Bought early in January, since which time they have advanced 20 per cent., but will be sold at old prices of a year ago.

2.000 Yards All-Wool Cassimeres, FANCY CHIEVIOT SUITINGS.
French Diagonals and Shirtings, 1,000 Yards Black all wool Cashmeres, Cheaper than ever. 2000 yards Beautiful Spring Cashmeres at 15 cents, worth 20. French Momie Cloths, Full Line of French all wool Buntings in Plain and Lace Goods, Silk Grenadines, French Organdie and Linen Lawns, nice patterns. 500 YARDS BEAUTIFUL SUMMER SILKS,

At 50, 55 and 60 cents a yard. The Largest, Handsomest, Cheapest lot of Plain and Brocade, Black and Colored Silks ever shown. Large lot of Ladies' Coats at Half Price. The handsomest Stock of

In this section of the State. Large lot of Window Shading and Fixtures. 1,500 fbs. Cotton and Wool Carpet Chain.

of Penns and Brush Valleys should avail themselves of the advantages we are now ofof Penns and Brush Valleys should avail themselves of the advantages we are now of-fering, by buying their goods early at the BEE HIVE. Thanking my Patrons for their liberal patronage in 1878, we hope by continuing to keep only first-class goods, with a full assortment of all the Novelties of the Season; by representing goods on MERIT ONLY, and selling at LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES to merit even a much larger share of the patronage in 1830, as we have decided advantages over every competitor on account of the immense quantities we buy. SPECIALINDUCEMENTS to Large Buyers and trade from a distance.

ATTENTION. THE REMEMBER THE PLACE. Great Bee Hive Dry Goods House, LOCK HAVEN, PA

J. J. EVERETT, Preprietor.

PHILADELPHIA BRANCH

Allegheny Street, Opposite Reynold's Opera House

"Hello, neighbor! Will you be good enough to hold my horse a few minutes and inform me where that cheap store is the people talk so

"On, yes, with pleasure. The Phila lelphia Branch, you mean?"
"Yes, that is the name. It sounds down the valleys and up the plains.
"Do you see away down that street youder, where that great crowd

"Do you see away down that street youder, where that great crowd of people is congregated?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, that is the place. It is unnecessary for me to enumerate their goods: they have them. Only go ahead, you will not be disappointed, either in quality of price. You will find everything you want, in their line, and very accommodating men to wait on you, and show you goods, whether you buy or not. Be particular in going through to make your selections, as you might be detained in getting the second opportunity. They will adhere strictly to their motto: "One Price" and no overcharge the catch the customer, and all goods marked in plain figures. So you can see for yourself. Go ahead, neighbor; you cannot be disappointed in buying clothing there and such other goods as they keep. So good-by neighbor, I must be jogging along." bor, I must be jogging along."
"Say, hold on! I will not detain you long. As you have been there and priced their goods, be kind enough to tell me their prices?"
"Oh, with pleasure; then you will wouder how they sell so cheap."

D. A. MUSSER P. GEPHART

DEALERS IN

Grain. Cloverseed. Flour & Feed. Coal. Plaster" & Salt

MILLHEIM, PA

Delivered either at the BRICK MILL or at the old MUSSER MILL, in MILLHEIM.

COAL, PLASTER & SALT Always on hand and sold at prices that defy share of the public patronage respectfully

Boors, Shutes Sash, Window Pine Flooring constantly kept on hand. With thanks for past favors he solicshort notice and in the hest ossible vors he solicits a continbest ossible manner

uence of the

MILLHEIM.

TENTRE COUNTY FARMERS' HOME.

Prices to Suit the Times Improved Stabling and careful Hostlers. Low special rates to Jurymen and Witnesses. Cleanliness, comfort unexcelled.

NO DISCRIMINATION. against the Producers, than whom none are more worthy, or more entitled to attention. The Bush House having over three times the capacity of other hotels, there is no eccasion or disposition to place the guests in artic rooms. This accounts for its growing Local Trade. We do not trust your houses to the care and profit of parties disconnected with the hotel.

I. H. MYERS.

J. H. MYERS,

J. Jordan Deshler ESHLER & SON.

PHYSICIANS & SURGEONS. Aaronsburg, Calls promptly answered day or night-

TOHN H. GRAY.

Fashionable Barber. Two doors west of Millheim Htel.

R. D.H. MINGLE

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Main Street, Millheim, Pa

BROCKERHOFF HOUSE

BELLEFONTE, PA First Class in all respects.

CENTRALLY LOCATED. Just the place for the business man, the farmer, the mechanic.

Omnibus to all trains. W. R. TELER, Proprietor.