STATE TICKET.

SUPREME JUDGE, GEORGE A. JENKS, Jefferson Co, AUDITOR GENERAL, ROBERT P.DECHERT, Philadelphia.

MARYLAND MOVING.

The State Democratic Convention Yesterday Declares for Bayard.

BALTIMORE, June 9 .- The Democratic state convention met here to day. The whole proceedings were characterized by entire harmony. The resolutions decline to instruct, but express confidence in the distinguished ability of Thomas Francis Bayard, of Delaware. The following delegates at large to the Cincinnati convention were selected: William Pinkey Whyte, Philip E. Thomas, John Lee Carroll and Bernard Carter, esq. The nominations for electors at large were I. Nevett Steele and J. Thomas Chop-

The convention recommended the adhesion to the two thirds rule in making the nominations for president and vice president.

Bruce, the colored candidate for Vice President before the Chicago convenlicans love the negroes.

WHAT THE LEADING PAPERS SAY.

A Weak Ticket.

From the Philadelphia Times. The nomination makes every southern state democratic, makes Ohio doubtful, makes New York and New Jersey hardly debatable for the Republicans, and makes Indiana, California, Oregon and even Pennsylvania depend upon the verdict of Ohio in October. If Garfield's own state shall be lost in the preliminary October, the ensuing contest will be ended and his defeat overwhelming: while if he shall carry it by a reduced majority, as is inevitable against a strong democratic ticket his election will be then no more than possible. He will be assailed in his own state and by his political friends with uncommon bitterness and his integrity will be as positively questioned asthe defamers of Blaine have question. ed the purity of his public record. His own constituents and party associates have made this possible by standing out as his accusers. * * * * And as if it was predetermined that he should be overweighed in the race, the nomination of Arthur for vice president was loaded upon him to make the battle for the controlling state of New York a hopeless one. It is possible for democratic folly to elect the Garfield ticket. Its election will be impossible if states. manship and patriotism shall be among the conspicuous attributes of the dem ocratic candidates.

From the New York Herald. But when we come to consider the actual candidate we do not know whether we ought to congratulate the republican party or to condole with it Mr. Garfield is one of the most estimable and popular men in the repub lican party; but he is not the man whom the party would have spontaneously selected as its standard-bearer in an important presidential election. His claims were never thought worthy of discussion in advance, and his nomination is one of the accidents or freaks of an abnormal political situation. * * * * The selection of General Arthur is judicious almost to the extent of art-

From the New York Sun. "In cousidering this nomination we desire first of all to thank God for the bring. defeat of Grant and the decisive overthrow of the third-term conspiracy. people in a body may well offer up reliberty and of the rights of men in all than I can properly do to-night. nations under the sun should join with them in the manifestations of their Gartield such a man that patriotic cit izens of the United States can well and wisely support him for president? Can the executive authority of the republic be safely intrusted to him? These are questions which every voter should now ask; and we answer calmly and emphatically that he is not such a

From the New York World. Mr. Garfield being thus merely an average republican candidate—a man whose strength in no way transcends the party strength, as does General Grant's strength, for example, and who will for the reason we have given fail to command even the party strength in the all important states of New York and Pennsylvania-it is plain that only ordinary sense and ord. inary prudence will be required at Cincinnati to make a democratic victory

The Chicago convention, we repeat, has opened to the democrats the road to the White House, and only wilful blindness can prevent the democrats from taking it.

From the Baltimore Gazette. Like Mr. Hayes he comes from Ohio, but unlike the present occupant of the White House he cannot hope to take his seat through fraud and violence, and there is very little probability of his securing it through any other medium. During the canvass Mr. Garfield's record will come to the surface and there will not be found in it much to encourage the people to support him at the polls. His nomination recalls an ugly episode in connection with the disgraceful reign of the board of public work of Washington under the Boss Shepherd regime.

THE FIELD BOOM.

Gets a Fresh Send Off in the Georgia Democratic Convention.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 9 .- The democratic state convention to-day selected Gen, A. R. Lawton, George T. Barnes, E. P. Howell, editor of the are J. E. M'Donald, D. W. Voorhees, Constitution, and General P. M. B. Young, delegates at large to Cincinnati. The convention recommended adhesion to the two third rule. The delegation is represented as solid for Field, except one for Bayard and one for Tilden.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR THURMAN.

FAIRMOUNT, W. Va., June 10 .--The first district democratic convention received only eight votes out of tion elected delegates to Cincinnati.

The Republican Panic.

Special to the PATRIOT. WASHINGTON, D.C., June 13.-There is a marked uneasiness among republicans in this city regarding the candidacy of General Garfield. The resurrection of the various scandals in which he was at one time and another engag ed, and the indubitable and unanswerable documentary evidence which can be produced to fasten them upon him, have almost created a panic among the leaders of the party. Governor Forster, in a recent speech, attempted a defense against the Credit Mobilier and De Golyer charges, but his reasoning was so lame and impotent that it is admitt. ed en all hands mere harm than good was accomplished by it. The thirdterm advocates do not conceal their satisfaction with this condition of affairs, and the best informed lookers on here readily predict that the party organization will go to smash unless Garfield. upon bis arrival, can point a way out of the difficulty.

Last week President Hayes sent in to the senate, the name of Ex-Goy. Hartranft, for Collector of Philadelphia. Poor fellow-he ought to have

WHAT GARFIELD HAS TO SAY.

The Republican Naminees Off cially Informed of their Selection.

CHICAGO, June 9.—The committee appointed by Senator Hoar to wait on generals Garfield and Arthur and notify them of their nomination found them in the club room of the Grand Pacifick hotel, and Senator Hoar, as chairman, made an appropriate speech. Gen, Garfield replied:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: I as sure you that the information you have officially given to me brings the sense of very grave responsibility, and especially so in view of the fact that I was a member of your body, a fact that could not have existed with propriety had I had the slightest expectation that my name would be connected with the nomination for the office. I have felt, with you, great solicitude concerning the situation of our party during the struggle; but, believing that you are correct in assuring me that substantial victory has been reached in the conclusion, it gives me a gratification far greater than any personal pleasure your announcement can Senator Hoar, in the same manner, presented the nomination to General Arthur, who accepted it in a brief and informal way.

pecial to the PATRIOT. PHILADELPHIA, June 13.-There has been talk in the inner circle of republican politicians here of the possibility of Garfield's name being taken off the national ticket. It is becoming painfully apparent that the republican party cannot move forward to success with the load of obliquy which their candidate's connection with the Credit Mobilier and other congressional scandals has brought upon them. Hence the talk of forzing him to withdraw. In the event of his withdrawal it is thought electoral tickets would be run in the several states pledge to candidates who will suit the preferences of the republican woters with a view of permitting the electoral college to select in the end.

Washington Letter,

Washington, D. C., June 12th, 1880. The New York Herald of yesterday has a long editorial article concerning the charges of official corruption against Garfield. The Herald says that Garfield is the first Presidential cansays that Garfield is the first Presidential candidate against whom charges of the kind were ever made, and that he should show them to be false or should cease to be a candidate. The main accusations are two: First, that he received Credit, Mobilier stock or scrip from Oakes Ames, as some other members of Congress did, without paying for it; drew dividends on it; denied before the lave-tigating commutate that he owned or ever had owned any and on it; denied before the investigating committee that he owned or ever had owned any, and when confronted with full proof made a lame explanation. He was one of the Republican members in whose case the Republican investigating committee gave no opinion, though, in other cases, if the evidence showed the accused members to be imposent the committee hasten. members to be innocent the committee hasten members to be innocent the committee bastened to say so.

The other charge is that he received money corruptly from contractors in this district. The circumstances may be given in a few words. Several years ago Congress investigated our former District government. That Government, which may be summed up as "Boss Shepherd" was bankrupt, and was endeavoring to get a yery large appropriation from Congress. Garfield was chairman of the House Committee on appropriations, and a friend of Shepherd. He also had some Western friends who asked for and received from Shepherd, while the question of the appropriation was pending, a contract of the appropriation was pending, a contract covering three-quarters of a million dollars. Garfield received from these contractors, it was shown, $5000 pefore the contract was given out. He claimed before the Investigating Committee that this was a fee for a legal opinion as to the quality of the pavement to be laid by the contractors. But no such opinion was ever put on file, and, upon being pressed Garfield could only remember that he met Shepherd on the street and "spoke to him about it." These matters are all of record here, none of them can be denied. Garfield never has denied them. Neither has be satisfactorily explained them, nor can be do so. These charges are those which if true, the Herald says should cause Garfield to "step down and out," as a Presidential candidate. Presidential candidate.

Whatever course Garfield may pursue, the exposure in his case teaches the Democrats a valuable lesson by which it is to be hoped they may profit. No man's name shedid be considered at Cincinnati unless he can show a clean personal and official record, or against whom the public has any reason to believe charges as damaging as those against. Carfield can be damaging as those against Garfield can be CARROLL.

It was pretty generally believed that that boss of a blatherskite, congressman Hendrick B. Wright, of the I accept the trust committed to my 12th Penna, district, voted with the hands. As to the work of our party Republicans and Greenbackers, in the It is an event on which the American and as to the character of the cam- Curtin Yocum contest, just to please paign to be entered upon, I will take the Greenbackers and thereby secure the doubtful honor of a nomination by them, for President, but the Green-back convention at Chicago last week with trains on L.
