

Local Department.

New side walks on Penn street have been built by Mr. Elias Lose and Mr. E. D. Keen. Go on.

Only one price and that a very low one prevails at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

Willis Musser sprained his ankle by jumping over a fence last Sunday. He is obliged to use a cane in walking.

Sunday School Reward Cards Tickets, &c. at John C. Miller & Co, Book store, Bellefonte.

Rain is rather abundant just now and it seems as if the grass crops would pick up considerably yet.

The largest clothing store and the best and largest stock of clothing in Centre county can always be found at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch.

HEADQUARTERS for Books and Stationery, at the Model Book Store of John C. Miller & Co. Bellefonte, Pa.

Money brought 27 per cent premium for permanent loan at the meeting of the B. & L. Association on Monday evening.

JOHN C. MILLER & Co. of Bellefonte, have the finest assortment of Wall Paper ever brought to Centre County.

Elder Avery T. Long, of the so-called "Tunker" persuasion will preach in the U. B. Church next Sunday afternoon. The elder is said to be an able preacher.

WANTED. Two good stout girls for kitchen work. Permanent situation and good wages. Apply at once at the JOURNAL OFFICE. If.

Mr. Wm. H. Harter, administrator, will have sale of the personal effects of the late George Fowler, deceased, Saturday, June 19th. A great many articles of farming utensils and household goods are to be sold. See the bills. 2t.

A splendid private residence with the good will of a medical practice for sale. For particulars apply at this office. If.

A. R. Alexander and family of Potter, were here over Sunday on a visit to relatives and friends. Just how many there are in all we do not know, and had't time to count them, but thought the large two-horse carriage was chock full.

A large stock of gentlemen's summer suits at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch, Bellefonte. By all means come and see what fine goods and low prices you will find at Lewin's.

Chromos, Brackets, Wall Pockets, Picture Frames, Toilet Sets, Fancy China Ware and Velvet Frames, all in endless variety at John C. Miller & Co, Bellefonte, Pa.

Big WHEAT.—Mr. S. K. Faust brought several stalks of wheat into our office on Saturday the longest of which measures five feet and three inches in length. It is of the "Russian" kind and has large, well developed heads.

THE MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS are prepared to furnish anything in their line of trade, from a little headstone to a costly and elaborate monument, at prices that can not be understood in the state. If you want anything to mark the last resting place of a departed friend the Millheim Works is the place to serve you.

PICNIC.—The town schools will picnic in Dutweiler's grove next Saturday. All persons are cordially invited to attend.

Baskets will be taken to the ground and safely returned in the evening if left at the school house before half past eight o'clock in the morning. The owners of the baskets are requested to attach their names to the same.

If you desire to mark the last resting place of a dear departed friend with a tombstone, couch or monument, the Millheim Marble Works is your place to go to. You can buy as few here as you can in Philadelphia.

Judge Allison informs us that they had a severe storm in Bald Eagle valley on Sunday. Many trees were blown down and buildings unroofed and otherwise damaged. Two bridges crossing Bald Eagle creek at Lock Haven were unroofed.

THE JOURNAL BOOK STORE sells all the school books recently adopted by the school boards of Millheim Boro, Penn, Haines, Miles and Gregg townships.

KEEP COOL.—It is very essential to health and happiness this warm weather to keep cool. Don't get excited. Don't allow anything to ruffle your temper. Drink no stimulents—but above all provide yourself with one of Lewin's splendid and comfortable summer suits. Our word for it if you follow these directions you will be serene and happy.

The Central Normal school of Lock Haven has re-elected the following officers: President, ex-Governor Bigler; vice president, Gen. Jesse Merrill; secretary, S. M. McCormick; treasurer, Thomas Yandley; steward, E. W. Bigony; matron, Mrs. E. W. Bigony. There are now nearly 250 pupils in the school.

—Cherries will be plenty in Lewisburg, but scarce in Millheim.

—The proposed paper mill at Lock Haven will employ 150 hands and distribute $30,000 a month in the neighborhood.

—We understand that our town council is about to fill up the mud puddle in the diamond and make other improvements. Hope they will.

UTICA was ten months subscribing $3,000 to finish a church building, and only four days raising $50,000 to establish a new brewery.

—John D. Foote's brick pavement in front of the old Harter property was all out of kilter, and so he had it taken up and will relay it one of these days all level and smooth.

—The Womens' Christian Temperance Union of Lewisburg had a festival recently and realized $99.29, sixty dollars of which some was sent to the Ladies' Relief Society of Milton.

—The General Conference of the M. E. Church, now in session at Cincinnati, passed a resolution forbidding members of the church to sign applications for tavern license. Expulsion from the church is the penalty for offenders.

—It seems that every fellow from Millheim who was in Bellefonte last week called at all the printing offices up there just to get his name in the paper and be called a prominent citizen of Millheim. That's just how some men do.

—The Centre County Agricultural fair is to be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 6th 7th and 8th, next. What is the time fixed for the Union county fair. Are they both on the same time again?

—At a citizens' meeting at Lock Haven on Saturday night sufficient money was subscribed to secure an extensive paper and pulp manufactory, to be built by Armstrong, Dixon & Co., of Philadelphia.

—On Tuesday was the day of appeals for Penn townships and Millheim borough. The entire board of commissioners, Messrs. Gregg, Dunkle and Swab, were present. Quite a number of our people appeared from their assessments and many succeeded in having their valuations lowered. Some difficult questions also arose for the consideration of the commissioners.

—Dr. Musser has discovered a very minute worm at work upon the growing wheat which threatens to do considerable damage. It is found at the grains and destroys their growth, and is so small that it can scarcely be seen by the naked eye.

Mr. Amos Alexander informs us that a similar insect did much damage to the wheat crop in Penns Valley, some forty years ago, but it disappeared after one season.

—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad Company, held on Tuesday the 8th in Philadelphia, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Strickland Keess; Directors, G. B. Roberts, Edward Smith, Wistar Morris, J. N. DuDarry, Eli Sliffer, James P. Ooburn and G. F. Miller.

—Lock Haven is a tax stricken community, as a fifty-six mill rate was adopted at a recent council meeting. According to the Journal it requires eight mills for city purposes, fourteen mills to pay interest on bonded debt, nine mills to support the poor, five mills for street repairs, fourteen mills for water and six mills for fire expenses.

—Neighbor D. A. Musser is making very fine walks in his yard, fronting the house. He first digs a trench about a foot deep and fills it up with broken stone nearly level with the ground. He then covers the stone with a mixture of cement and pebbles, and on that a coating of cement mixed with sand is applied which makes a fine, smooth surface. If these walks are proof against the action of frost they will certainly be the best and cheapest walk yet out.

—The Potter county Enterprise is informed that English, the notorious outlaw of Elk, spent two nights last week on a branch of the lower Sinnemahoning. He was well armed, had plenty of money and was not at all backward in talking of the murder. He also showed the scar on his leg where the ball grazed when he was escaping from the scene of the murder. English stated that he had slept but a single night and said he would never be taken alive.

—A rose on an apple tree is surely a rare growth; yet that is what we are enabled to report on authority of Rev. Jacob Morris, of West Salem. On a crab tree in his orchard appeared this spring a fine, full white rose, which was plucked and is now to be seen at this office. It is a case of voluntary hybridization, and a very remarkable one at that.—Greenville Argus.

If the Rev. Jacob Morris will but just examine the matter a little closely he will find the fine white rose is nothing but an over grown apple blossom. We have had the same thing here. Roses don't grow on apple trees any more than do figs on thistles. That's all.

NATURE.

The leaves complete their patterns fine. What artist gave them the design? The flowers their matchless hues display.

What master's hand can paint as they? The birds find their old haunts—who showed?

To them th' unmarked, aerial road? The pines their stately trunks uprear With ease, with leisure, year by year;

The cheerful sun the clouds updraws And fills the rivers without pause; And all the planets run their round Without a sign of toil or sound.

Thus nature holds her onward course, Sweetly unconscious, rich in force. C. C. Zeigler.

SPRING MILLS ITEMS.

The Spring Mills Academy, Prof. D. M. Wolf, principal will close its spring term this week.

The Star Literary Society will give a public entertainment on the evening of the 18th inst.

Mr. John Grove is making preparations to build a steam saw mill on the Tressler timber tracts.

Mr. Geo. Jamison, of Farmville, Va., is here on a visit to his many friends.

J. A. Leitzell has painted his house. Makes it look well.

The citizens of Spring Mills are going to have a permanent picnic ground near town. This is a move in the right direction. Success to it, gentlemen. YONEY.

News Miscellany.

Louis Nitscher of Utica wished to make his wife believe he intended to commit suicide; so he swallowed a full ounce of laudanum, believing that the dose would be harmless in consequence of its amount. He found however, that the drug had a speedy and alarming effect. He ran to a police station and begged that all the physicians in the city be sent for. Three were brought, and for nine hours a most remarkable struggle was maintained to save his life. He was violently exercised and stomach pump was used, but he fell into complete unconsciousness, and ceased to breathe. Artificial respiration was kept up by alternately raising his arms above his head and depressing his breast. His heart ceased to beat, and its action was revived by electricity. Stimulants were forced into his stomach and injected under the skin of his legs. But he died nevertheless.

THE ARMY WORM.

Terrible Ravages Committed by the Pest in New Jersey.

LONG BRANCH, June 10.—The ravages of the army worm upon the wheat, corn and timothy crops in Ocean and Monmouth counties and other parts of New Jersey still continue. Farmers who at sunset see their grass and rye doing well awake at sunrise to find acres on acres destroyed. The rapidity and thoroughness with which these worms do their work are appalling, and coupled with the late drought this new scourge is likely to make the year 1880 one of serious disaster to a large part of New Jersey. About Long Branch the worm appears in the greatest numbers. Hardly a blade of grass is standing in John Hoey's Hollywood park, the destruction of the forty acres comprising the park being accomplished in two days. Forty loads of sod cut on Tuesday by Superintendent McKay, of Hollywood, to replace bare spots, were totally eaten up in three hours, looking as though a fire had swept through them. On a foot square of sod 587 were actually counted. In the vicinity of Freehold the worm has made terrible ravages upon the corn fields. Between Red Bank and Long Branch the Central New Jersey railroad track is black with the worms which are traveling westward. Saturday's express train, as it sped along by Little Silver station, threw hundreds of insects into the coaches of the New York way train standing on the track.

SENTENCED TO DEATH.

George Smith and Catharine Miller, Who Murdered the Latter's Husband.

Special Dispatch to THE TIMES. WILLIAMSPORT, June 11. To-day Judge Cummin filled an elaborate opinion denying the motion for a new trial of Catharine Miller and George Smith, convicted of the murder of Andrew Miller, near Jersey Shore, on the night of the 18th of March. Catharine Miller was the wife of the murdered man and she conspired with Smith to put her husband out of the way, so that they might live together. Her paragon, deceived the old man out to the barn, killed him with a club and then suspended him by the neck so as to create the impression that he had committed suicide. Mrs. Miller furnished the rope. Both confessed and were committed on the 10th of May. After the Judge had denied the motion for a new trial District Attorney Hart moved for judgment, when the Court pronounced the terrible sentence of death upon them as they stood side by side. Such a scene was never witnessed in this court before and before the Judge was through with his unpleasant duty he was visibly affected. This is the first woman convicted of murder in Lycoming county. While the man will undoubtedly be hanged it is thought the woman will escape with imprisonment.

The Storm in Clinton County.

LOCK HAVEN, June 14.—A terrible wind and rain storm passed over this city and county yesterday afternoon. Houses and barns were unroofed, bridges were damaged, and fruit orchards, gardens, shade trees, fences and sheds were destroyed. The city flouring mill, of this place, was blown out of line. No lives were lost.

Jacob Bennett heard angry voices in his house at Sedalia, Mo., and on peeping in saw that the wife whom he was lying with was confronted by the wife whom he had deserted. He cautiously stole away and sent a policeman to separate the women, who were found fighting furiously with knives.

A MIDNIGHT HORROR.

A Collision in Long Island Sound. Great Loss of Life.

STONINGTON, Conn., July 12.—Between 11 and 12 o'clock last night the steamers Stonington and Narragansett collided, off the Connecticut river, in Long Island Sound. The Stonington plunged her bow into the starboard of the Narragansett, just in front of the wheel. The side of the Narragansett was crushed in and cut almost to the water's edge. Water poured into the hole and the steamer began to sink. But this was not all. The gas began escaping. It caught fire and the flames spread rapidly over the whole ship. A scene of wild confusion followed. In a moment the ill-fated steamer was filled with the shrieks and cries of the frightened passengers. Lights were finally procured and then the passengers fought for chairs, mattresses life preservers and every article that could possibly aid to float them. Then there was a rush for the boats with which the Narragansett was well supplied. These were sometimes overcrowded and capsized. Many of the passengers jumped into the water. It was a wild awful scene. People were clinging to rafts, to boats, to everything movable, that could be thrown overboard, or were supported by life-preservers, or were swimming without any support.

The total loss of life is not yet known but is supposed to reach about fifty. The entire number of passengers was between 350 and 400.

SECOND ARRIVAL OF SPRING CLOTHING AT THE PHILADELPHIA BRANCH Allegheny Street, Opposite Reynold's Opera House

"Hello, neighbor! Will you be good enough to hold my horse minutes and inform me where that cheap store is the people talk much about?" "Oh, yes, with pleasure. The Philadelphia Branch, you mean?" "Yes, that is the name. It sounds down the valleys and up the plains." "Do you see a way down that street yonder, where that great crowd of people is congregated?" "Yes, sir."

"Well, that is the place. It is unnecessary for me to enumerate their goods; they have them. Only go ahead, you will not be disappointed, either in quality or price. You will find everything you want, in their line, and very accommodating men to wait on you, and show you goods, whether you buy or not. Be particular in going through to make your selections, as you might be deceived in getting the second opportunity. They will adhere strictly to their motto: "One Price" and no overcharge to catch the customer, and all goods marked in plain figures. So you can see for yourself. Go ahead, neighbor; you cannot be disappointed in buying clothing there and such other goods as they keep. So good-by neighbor, I must be jogging along." "Say, hold on! I will not detain you long. As you have been there and priced their goods, be kind enough to tell me their prices?" "Oh, with pleasure; then you will wonder how they sell so cheap."
