PENNSYLVANIA has reason to feel proud of her list of actual and possible Democratic candidates for President. It is doubtful whether any other state in the Union can trot out five such acceptable, good and great men as Gen. Hancock, Judge Black, Senator Wallace, Speaker Randall and Judge Trunkey. Any one of them is by much the superior of Garfield in everything do to ignore the matter thus. Speak that goes into the make up of Presidential timber. Don't you think so you. too, dear Republican friends?

If Garfield's vote throughout Obio sinks as much in proportion to the 185 for Tilden, 117 for Bayard, 68 for tation will be put on the offer and acwhole vote as it did in his congressional district when last he was a candi- man, 44 for Field, 37 for Hendricks field's defence is thus far in such weak date, he will lose the Buckeye state by and the remaining few scattered among and unskilful hands that he should forty thousand majority against him, other candidates.

Evidently Mr. Arthur was not nominated for Vice President upon the recommendations of President Hayes or Secretary Sherman, nor yet for any real or supposed merit of his own but solely to please "the proud and lordly Conkling." Hayes and Sherman ought to know as much of Arthur as any body, and they do give their opinion of him in language quite unmistakable, as the following extracts from their letters will show:

"You have made the costum house a centre of partisan political manage- votes in New York, Connecticut, New ment."-R. B. Hayes to Collector Ar. Jersey, or Indiana? And are there and all necessary outbuildings, all new and in thur, January 31, 1879.

"With a deep sense of my obligations under the constitution, I regard very slender ties? it as my plain duty to suspend you, in order that the office may be honestly

-R. B. Hayes to Collector Arthur, January 21, 1876.

"Gross abuses of administration have continued and increased during your incumbency."-John Sherman to Collector Arthur, January 31, 1876.

"Persons have been regularly paid by you who have rendered little or no service; the expenses of your office have increased, while its receipts have diminished. Bribes, or gratuities in the shape of bribes, have been received by your subordinates in several branches no case supported the effort to correct these abuses."-Secretary Sherman to Collector Arthur, January 31, 1876.

One of the most urgent demands of our timeis a system of education which shall train the young to apply their school learning. At the Pennsylvania State College practical instruction in Agriculture, Horticulture, Botany, Zoology, Mechanist, Chemistry, etc; is given, and thus theory in the class room is applied and enforced by experience in the field and laboratory. Spring session opens April 9th. For catalogue and full information address the Business Manager, State College, Centre

Polygamy Must Go.

SALT LAKE CITY June 15 .- The territoral democratic committee adopted a much arduous labor in several com resolution declaring it to be the sol- mittees, and many services for his emn duty of the government to pro- constituents. It is averred that he nevsion of polygamy, and their delegate to thing for that large counsel fee. If he Cincinnati, Allen G. Campbell, will did, let his friends present a bill of parurge its insertion in the democratic na- ticulars. If they can find nothing to tional platform.

Garfield made a speech at Washing ton the other day in which he said a great deal of war but not one moved of how he got so innocently mixed up with Credit Mobilier, and other disreputable transactions. James, it will not out. The people want to hear from

A CANVASS of the delegates to Cincinnati by the New York Herald shows Seymour, 84 for Hanceck, 67 for Thur- ceptance of the counsel fee? Mr. Gar-

[From the New York Sun.] A LOOK AT SOME FIGURES. It may now be instructive to take a look at some figures which bear upon the coming election. The whole number of electoral votes is 369, of which 231 are cast by 'the Northern States, and 138 by the Southern. The number necessary to the choice of the President is 185. As against Garfield, it is not too much to say that any strong, fair, acceptable Democratic candidate could get the entire 138 votes of the Southern States. Indeed, no Republican believes otherwise, or even pretends to to the contrary. With these 138 votes, the Democratic candidate would require 47 in the Northern States to give him the 185 which are requisite to an election.

Where could an acceptable Democratic candidate look, with a reasonable degree of certainty, for these 47 Northern votes? Here are four States that went for Tilden and Hendricks in 1879, when both political parties did their very best:

..... 6 Indiana .

It will be perceived that if the Democratic candidate could carry New York and Indiana, they would give him 50 votes, or three more than the needed 47. Precisely the same result would follow if he could carry New York, Connecticut, and New Jersey, though he lost Indiana. But it will be seen that even if he could obtain the 30 votes of Connecticut, New Jersey, and Indiana, he would be 47 short of the needed 47. Therefore he must carry New York, or make up for its loss by get ting the votes of some other Northern State or States.

Let us examine the Republican sit. uation. We will deal liberally with the chances of the candidate of that party, and give him the benefit of all doubts.

Of course 'Garfield will not get a yote in the South, and his refiance must rest wholly upon the 231 votes of politicians. He is a conservative and constituthe North. We will hist deduct from these the 65 votes of New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and Indiana, close them out. It is cheering to note that some which were cast for Tilden and Hendricks. This leaves 166, which is 19 less than the requisite number, 185. But to reach this result we have con ceded to the Republicans all the North ern States except the four which went for the Democrats in 1876. Are not the Republicans more likely to lose the States west of the Rocky Mountains than they are to get their 19 not States clustering around the upper lent and desirable homes in Pennsyalley. For lakes which the Republicans hold by Price and terms call on H. C. Frankenberger.

WHAT GARFIETD MUST EXPLAIN.

The Record That Garffield Must Meet and Justify or Avoid. From the New York Herald, Ind.

What is charged is that he had Credit Mobilier stock to the amount of two thousand dollars; that he never paid nor expected to pay a cent for it; that the dividends on other stock which went with it were so enormous that they paid for the Credit Mobilier stock and left a surplus of three hundred and twenty-nine dollars which 22-6t was paid over to Mr. Garfield, making of the custom house, and you have in the actual bribe two thousand dollars of stock which cost him nothing and the surplus which he received on money. When the exposure came he threw up and repudiated his stock; but had there been no exposure he might have retained it. His acceptance of the surplus of dividends beyond what was necessary to pay for the stock like an acknowledgment that the stock was his. There must be some better explanation than has yet been presented before the country will think otherwise. We are willing and anxious to see a defense which is not as damaging as original charge, Will any Republican contend that if the three hundred and twenty-nine dollars which Mr. Garfield received from Oakes Ames was a surplus of dividends on his stock he is fit to be President? If as Mr. Garfield tried to have it appear at the time, it was borrowed money, why did he borrow so singular a sum?
