-The Pennsylvania State Dental Association will meet at Bellefonte, Tuesday the 27th inst., and continue in session for three days. Addresses will be delivered and papers read on subjects of interest to the profession. A very interesting session is expected.

-On Monday, while Charles Fegley, aged 11, a son of Obediah Fegley, of Maxatawny township, was driving a pair of young animals in a reaping machine, the horses took fright and ran away. The boy fell in front of the reaper and was literally cut to pieces by the revolving knives.

-The alumni and students of Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, residing throughout Central Pennsylvania, will hold their next annual reunion in Bellefonte, Wednesday, July 28th. The preparations will be ample, and a full attendance is expected. Prof. E. J. Wolf, Prof. Himes and Rev. J. M. Reimensnyder, are expected to deliver addresses.

-Chailey Frankenger offers his home, near town, at private sale. Any person desiring a property of this size would do well to look at this one for there is not a more complete property in this neighborhood.

The buildings are all new and very complete. Good water in abundance all the year round and choice fruit of every kind.

Spring Mills Academy. The Summer Term will commence on Monday, July 26th, 1880. Tuition, $5 to $8. Boarding $2 to $2.25 per week.

-The early elections this year will come in the following order: Alabama, first Monday of August; Arkansas, first Monday of September; Vermont, first Tuesday of September; Maine, second Monday of September; Colorado, first Tuesday of October; Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, second Tuesday of October.

-A CAREFUL survey of the murders, suicides and other great felonies committed in the chief cities of the United States during the last ten years, says the N. Y. Post, shows that a heavy fraction of the perpetrators were atheists or free thinkers. These unhappy persons, persuaded that life is the le-all and the end-all here, imagine that in their calculations they can jump the life to come. A collection of the letters or other papers left by criminals when anticipating death shows a fearful number of instances, some of which many readers will recall, of absolute disbelief in the existence of a God or any reckoning for the wrong done in this life to be exacted in a future one.-Ez.

-New Berlin contributed about $250 in cash and provisions for Milton. That is certainly very good for a town that is always being riddled as the dulles in the state.

-The wonderful clock was in town and exhibited on Saturday evening, Monday afternoon and evening, to good audiences. That clock is quite a success and no doubt does a paying business.

-A lady lost a white silk handkerchief with small blue border, on her way home from the Evangelical church on Sunday morning. The honest finder will confer a favor by leaving it at the Journal office.

Among agents and families, the great demand now is for the new light running Combination Sewing Machine, because it has stood the test, and is better made, with more improvements. It is stronger, and is much lower in price, (only $30) than other machines, and having attained a merited popularity among the people for reliability, it is welcomed wherever it makes its appearance. It is built for strength and constant hard work, has interchangeable working parts, manufactured of the polished steel, and will run for years without repairs: is simple to learn, easy to manage, understood perfectly in an hour, and always ready to do every description of heavy or fine family work at least as fast, more easily, smoothly, and faster, and with less labor or trouble than any other machine at any price, ever sold, or can do. Thimble, quilters, rulers, hammers, binders, etc., free with each machine. No advance payments. Machines shipped to any R. F. station for examination before payment of bill. Agents make money rapidly, supplying the great demand for this the Cheapest Machine in the world. Territory free. For illustrated catalogue of prices, specimens of stitch, &c., address, office of the Combination Sewing Machine, 737 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

-Mr. James Haas, of Milliflinburg's efficient photographer, gave us a short call last week, and we were happy to make the acquaintance of such a thorough gentleman as we feel convinced Mr. H. is. He had with him two portraits of prominent Milliflinburgers--Rev. A. C. Whitmer and Dr. Steadman, now deceased. Mr. Whitmer's portrait is wrought in India ink and Dr. Steadman's is a crayon drawing, and both are executed in a very high style of art. Should any of our readers desire any work of this kind they are entirely safe in giving their orders to Mr. Haas.

-We had a letter from Mr. Philip B. Stover, of Pleasant Valley, Kansas, in which he writes of a very sudden death that occurred in Lincoln Centre, July 5th. There was a soldiers' parade and a race going on all day. Dr. Hayden, aged about 25 years, a gentleman of high social and professional standing also engaged in dancing, became overheated, went into a saloon and got a dish of ice cream and a glass of lemonade. While drinking the lemonade he fell down dead. The dance came to an end at once.

He further states that the summer is exceptionally dry, but that some farmers still have 20 to 25 bushels of wheat to the acre, while others have none. The corn crop looks well.

-On Monday Aug. 2nd Mr. D. L. Zerby will open a subscription school, in the Grammar department room, Millheim School house. A share of the public patronage and the hearty cooperation of parents, is solicited. Any persons desiring to send upon whom Mr. Zerby has not called, are cordially invited to do so. Charges moderate. Mr. Zerby desires all parents who send to him to see to it that their children are at school at the proper time, with their lessons prepared also that they are not there much before they are wanted, viz before the 1st ringing of the bell, and last, but not least that they are kept in check during the evening, so as to prepare their work for the following day. Upon these terms satisfaction will be guaranteed.

Mr. Editor: The campaign on the Democratic side was formally opened here last Saturday evening, by a rousing ratification meeting. Speeches were delivered by W. A. Morrison, Esq., J. L. Spangler, Esq., D. F. Fortner, Esq., W. C. Heinle, Esq., and a few happy remarks by Maj. R. H. Forster, all of Bellefonte. The speeches were first class, the best of feeling prevailed, the enthusiasm for the "superb" Hancock was without bounds. The Democracy of Brush Valley is thoroughly aroused and will do a big thing in November. Mark it, Mr. Editor.

JACKSON. Rebersburg, July 19th. 1880.

BELLEFONTE ITEMS.

Crowded streets on show day. "Reese" says that his sisters, his cousins and his aunts were all in to see him.

"The owl" ceased to (H)owl. The editor was arrested in Milliflin and held in $900 bail to appear at court.

The Lutheran Sunday school intends picnicing on the summit of Nittany mountain next Thursday. Ditto the Reformed school next Tuesday.

Judge Orvis held court here last Thursday, to be repeated next Friday.

Rev. Z. A. Yearick, of Turbotville, filed the Reformed pulpit last Sunday morning and evening. He had a full house both times.

The quiet community of Milesburg was startled last Friday night between the hours of twelve and one, by the through freight being thrown off the track. It was caused by a freight car being run on to the track. There were 23 cars piled upon each other to the height of about 20 feet. The engine was found in an adjoining field some 50 feet distant. One hundred workmen were employed on Saturday to clear the track. Fireman Dawson stuck to his post till he saw that it was safe to jump for his life. He was hurt, some but not seriously. Crowds visited the wreck on Saturday and Sunday.

-Huckleberries sell for five cents a quart.

-The State of Virginia hires out five hundred and twenty-five of her convicts to work on her railroads and other public improvements, for whom the State receives twenty-five cents each day.

TAKE NOTICE.-Persons attending camp meeting in Weaver's grove, just below Aaronsburg, will find first class accommodations at moderate charges, at the Penn House, Aaronsburg. J. C. SPRINGER, Proprietor.

-The Milton sufferers have appointed Judges Elwell, of Columbia, Rock-celler, of Sanbury and Cummin, of Williamsport, a committee to distribute the relief fund, which amounts to about $80,600.

-Mr. Elias Lose has moved his carpenter shop and planing mill building bodily on to the island in the rear of the Evangelical church. The new location is decidedly a much better one as it gives them much more elbow room.

-Brother Schoch, of the Telegraph, recently enjoyed the rare luxury--of an editor of a carriage ride all the way from Milliflinburg to Lock Haven, a distance of 42 miles. Of course the carriage didn't belong to him, nor the horses either, but George enjoyed the ride all the same, perhaps better, than if they had. He speaks in ecstasies of the country and towns passed over and through, viz: Long Narrows, east end of Brush valley, Sugar valley, Logansville, Nittany valley, Salona, Mill Hill, Flemington and Lock Haven, but seems to be particularly pleased with the many good Democrats he met, prominent among which he mentions the old veteran, John DeLong, Gen. Heckman, Hon. Geo. A. Auchenbach, J. C. C. Whalley, and others.

-Lewisburg wouldn't just now draw the highest premium for good order, according to the following. We hope the state of things complained of may continue but temporarily as it does not seem at all natural for Lewisburg:

Some months since our borough council instructed the constables to keep down loading at street corners and to arrest disorderly persons. This is not done and it is time the constables themselves are shaken up a little. Scarcely a night but parties pass up and down our main streets cursing and using the most indecent language, insulting women and men. Drunkenness abounds, and there seems to be no law or law officers to prevent it. In times past our citizens took pride in the good order that prevailed in our borough, but every good citizen must be ashamed of the lack of good government that now prevails. Can't something be done to improve matters?--Journalist.

-A queer incident, which very nearly came to be a dreadful accident, happened in Lancaster county recently. Four children were left alone at home while the father and mother were busily engaged in the harvest field. In the house was a chest, with an old fashioned spring lock. In the course of the day one of the children put the key in to his pocket and with the two younger ones got into the chest and shut the lid down, the lock, of course, making them close prisoners. The oldest child immediately gave the alarm, and the neighbor's wife broke the lid with an axe and liberated the prisoners, but not until the two youngest children were so nearly suffocated that it was feared for a time the babe would not recover.

News Miscellaneous.

Littlestown, Adams county, is growing enthusiastic over the recent discovery of gold in that vicinity. A reduction company composed of some of the best men of that place, Hanover, Gettysburg and other places has been formed. Mining operations will begin as soon as possible. It is said the minute particles of gold in the crude ore are distinctly seen with the naked eye. Chemical analysis has proved some of the ore to yield over $300 a ton.

COLONEL HENRY ALTMAN and Edward Cowan, a Colorado journalist, waylaid by highwaymen near South Arkansas, Colorado, a few days ago, and commanded to "stand and deliver." As quick as thought Mr. Cowan leaped upon the head of the spokesman and snatched a revolver from the hands of the prostrate "mirion of the moon." Colonel Altman, no less prompt, seized another of the footpads, whereas the rest of the gang of assailants fled. Then was witnessed the rare spectacle of the robbery of robbers, for Altman and Cowan rifled the pockets of the two fallen fellows, horsewhipped them and mounting their horses galloped away.

A Georgia man rigged himself up as a bear to have some fun, and he got it, for the inhabitants turned out with dogs and ran him four miles over a stumpy country before he could make them understand that he wasn't a bear; and then they talked of tarring and feathering him for alarming the women folks of the neighborhood, and finally gave him three days to leave the country. He won't play back any more.

The New York Sun estimates "That there are over 100,000 Sunday schools in the world, that 1,000,000 teachers are engaged in them, and that they are attended by 10,000,000 scholars. In the United States alone 7,000,000 of these scholars are reported."

The Rev. Washington Gladden, of Springfield, answers the question, "Why don't the masses come to church?" by asserting that they do; or, at least, that proportionately there is more church-going now than there was in the last century. At the time of the Revolution there was one church to 1,538 inhabitants, while the present ratio is one to 535; and he thinks the churches are as nearly filled now as then.

Kicking a boy for cutting a shade tree with a knife cost a Galesburg man $12,000. The lad was taken with a spinal disorder, which has disabled him ever since.

John Steele, the "Coal Oil Johnny" whose astounding prodigality made him notorious throughout the country, is now a well-behaved and reasonably prosperous farmer at Franklin, Pa. It was in 1864, when he was just 21, that the striking of oil on a farm that he had inherited began to yield him an income of $3,000 a day. This wealth turned his foolish head, and he began to spend the money in the most reckless and grotesque manner. He squandered all his property in three years. His wife had managed to get hold of $75,000, out of that was lost in a bank failure. Steele gradually came to his senses, went to work at his old occupation of teamster, next became a railroad baggage master, and slowly saved enough money to buy the farm on which he now lives.

FATAL ACCIDENT.-Albert Vollmer accidentally shot himself in the woods in Benzinger twp., Elk, last Thursday. He had been sitting on a log with his gun resting upon a knee. When he was ready to start he pulled the gun, with the muzzle toward him, when the hammer caught on a piece of bark and the load was discharged, wounding him so badly in the breast that he died the next day.

A boarding tent will be opened at Wayne Camp grounds about August 1st, provided a sufficient number of applications are made to pay the expenses. Address communications to J. N. Welliver, Secretary, Lock Haven, Pa.

Gored to Death by a Bull.

From the Norfolk (Va.) Landmark. Yesterday morning a young man by the name of Miller, grandson of Mr. Peter Miller, owner of the Vue de Leon farm, was found imbedded in a marsh, whither he had been tossed by a furious bull, which was in the pasture. Although horribly gored, one of the horns of the animal having entered his neck and passed out on the top of his head, the young man was still alive when found, and lived for several hours after being taken to the house.
