

Local Department.

Announcement.

ASSEMBLY. We are authorized to announce that R. F. HOPKIN, of Fenner township, is a candidate for Assembly, subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention.

—The new Millburg Cornet Band is out.

—John Bame will offer his home and lot on Penn street at public sale, Saturday October 16th next. Buy it.

—For good quality and low price of clothing, the Philadelphia Branch "beats 'em all."

—Mr. Cornelius Bower gives notice that he will settle the accounts of John Hubler deceased.

—The heirs of John Habler, late of Haines township, deceased, will have sale of the personal property of decedents, Saturday Sept. 11th.

—Thomas Hosterman gives notice that he has taken over letters of administration on the estate of Samuel H. Moyer, deceased.

—The St. Pauls Union Sunday School will hold its annual picnic next Saturday, the 18th. We wish them good weather and much pleasure.

—Andrew Adams, a young man of twenty-two, and Mary Hummel, a lady of seventy-four, were married last week at Kittanning.

—The Central Mfg. Co. of Lewisburg is exhibiting a fine specimen of their celebrated Bates Harvester at the state fair, Philadelphia.

—The sale notes of the estate of Jonathan Philips, deceased, are now due, of which all concerned will please take notice.

THE WORTH OF YOUR MONEY.—Yes you will always get the full worth of your money at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

—The Philadelphia Branch Clothing Store in Bellefonte, manufactures its own clothing and is therefore able to sell cheaper than the cheapest.

—Our friend Adam Shafer, residing near Madisonburg, sent us a lot of the finest apples we have seen in a long time. He says they are Hancock apples, and judging their solid appearance and delicious flavor we are satisfied that they are. Thanks.

—B. F. Frankenberger will please consider our hat off for a very nice basket of —oh, such delicious grapes. Such grapes we would consider ourselves happy to accept every day of the year.

—J. Willis Musser disposed of the stage route from Coburn to Millheim, Aaronsburg and Woodward to Robert F. Vonada, of Woodward, who has already taken charge of the same.

—You can not find two more obliging fellows in a day's travel than Boss Lewin and Salesman Sternberg, of the Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

—The lot owners of the Millheim Cemetery are hereby requested to meet at the Cemetery on Friday morning to clean and trim up their respective lots. By order of the BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

—The band wagon of the Millheim Cornet Band is painted in a very beautiful and elaborate style. Deutscher Bill done it. The "Boys" expect to dedicate it to-day going to the Granger picnic.

—The State College authorities have subscribed $10,000 for the completion of the L. & T. rail-road from Tyrone to the College, and it is hoped the road will soon be completed to that point.

—The Lewisburg Journal says that many persons are in favor of another Harvest Home near Lewisburg and that a more favorable day be chosen this time. The suggestion is a good one and the point of order well taken.

—The Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania will meet at Milroy next Tuesday evening 21st, inst., in Rev. S. G. Shannon's charge. The Sunday School convention of the synod will meet on Monday evening previous at the same place.

—DEININGER & MUSSER have just received a car load of marble direct from the quarries at Sutherland Falls, Vermont. This system of buying stock in large quantities from first hands enables them to sell work cheaper than other establishments that buy from jobbers.

—That extensive and valuable property in Gregg township known as FARMERS' MILLS will be offered at public sale on the premises by the executors of the late Adam Fisher, deceased, on Friday, October 8th next. It consists of a flouring mill, saw mill, dwellings, out buildings and about forty acres of land. Fine chance for a man with capital.

—Judge Taylor, of Venango county, has brought five juries to a realizing sense of their duties by fining them $10 each and costs for not being on hand when wanted in court.

—THE MILLHEIM CORNET BAND is growing in popularity, and deservedly so. It is conceded on all hands that it is the best band far and wide. In fact the "boys" are entirely fit to furnish the music at Hancock's inauguration and we move that arrangements be made to engage them for the glorious 'casion.

—Samuel Gramley, Trustee will offer at public sale Tuesday October 26th, next, one of the most valuable farms in Brush Valley. The farm contains 282 acres, of which over 100 is well timbered with oak, pine, hemlock and chestnut. Here is a rare chance for a profitable investment.

GREAT CRASH.—T. R. Stam has become the successor of his father in the store business and is now the sole proprietor of the concern. He started in with a general mark down in goods and his prices really seem to us to be lower than the lowest. We can not enumerate here but just go and see for yourself whether in 'dry goods, groceries, boots & shoes, he does not offer greater inducements than any store in this section.

—The Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association will hold its sixteenth annual convention in Lancaster, Pa., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 12th, 13th and 14th.

Rev. John Hall, D. D., New York; Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D., Rev. B. T. Vincent and John Wanamaker, Philadelphia; Rev. James H. Dubbs, D. D., Lancaster; James McCormick, Harrisburg; Rev. B. Young, Altoona, and other eminent Sunday School workers will be present. Hotel accommodations will be ample and cheap.

—The other Wednesday evening we had quite a neat little impromptu Democratic meeting, the occasion of which was the presence of Hon. W. A. Murray, one of our members of the lower house of the state legislature. The band was out, of course, and did its level best to entertain the honorable gentleman, he in return tried to please the band, and we risk nothing in saying that both succeeded admirably. Mr. M. made a lively speech which seemed to please everybody—especially the R-republicans. He gave facts and figures and instituted comparisons proving beyond reasonable doubt that Hancock will be elected. Mr. Murray is a very fair speaker, a trustworthy, competent servant of the people, and has largely increased the number of his personal friends in this end of the county.

THIS SETTLES IT.—There has been considerable discussion as to whether or not the liquor and beer sellers could open their places legally on election days after the closing of the polls. The act of 1872 limited their closing to the hours of election; but the act of 1875, which now regulates the matter, emphatically says: "It shall not be lawful for any person, with or without license, to sell to any person any intoxicating drink on any day on which elections are now or hereafter may be required to be held, nor on Sunday, nor at any time to a minor, or to a person visibly affected by intoxicating drink."

The Sunday School picnic at Pine Creek, last Saturday, was a big thing as well as a "decided success" besides. The Pine Creek, Elk Creek and Mountain schools joined in the celebration. A great number of people attended. The Millheim & Woodward bands discoursed the music. Rev. J. Tomlinson, Rev. E. Stambach, Hon. J. G. Meyer and Mr. Wm. H. Harter, of Hartleton, delivered addresses. The cakes and other etables are spoken of in the highest terms of praise—both as regards amount and quality. We felt real sorry—especially on account of the delicious cakes—that circumstances prevented us from going. We heard one objection though, to the manner in which this celebration was conducted, namely that there was no singing at all by the schools—all band music. This departure from the good old custom is certainly not commendable.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT MADISONBURG. A large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting came off at Madisonburg on last Friday evening. Big delegations from Rebersburg and Millheim attended, headed by their respective bands. The old burg was literally filled with people and we venture to say that never before did Madisonburg have anything like such a political demonstration as this. Just before the meeting a procession was formed and a parade was had. Most of the visitors from Millheim and Rebersburg had torches, and many of the Rebersburg boys caps and capes beside. The long procession with torches, banners, and music, was a most beautiful sight.

At about 8 o'clock the meeting was organized in the spacious and beautiful Town Hall. Hon. W. K. Alexander was appointed President, assisted by a number of vice presidents and secretaries. Speeches were made by Hon. F. Kurtz, W. C. Heinle, Esq., B. O. Deininger, Hon. W. A. Murray and Hon. J. P. Gephart, all of which were well received by the large audience. It was nearly midnight when the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the "superb" Hancock and the noble English.

The meeting was decidedly lively and the west end of Miles township is thoroughly shaken up and active for the success of the cause.

—The Patrons of Husbandry of Centre county will hold their 7th annual Picnic on the summit of Nittany mountain, above Centre Hall, on Thursday Sept. 16th inst. David Wilson, Esq., of Erie, C. S. McCormick, Esq., of Lock Haven, Hon. Seth H. Youcum, M. C. and Hon. C. T. Alexander, State Senator, are all expected to be present and address the meeting. Great preparations are being made by the patrons for a grand day of entertainment. All are urgently invited to come.

By order of the COMMITTEE.

—Money sold for 25 per cent for permanent loan of the Building Association on Monday evening.

—We could not attend Miss Kate Shriner's school entertainment, being otherwise engaged, but all who were present speak of it in the highest terms of praise. We congratulate teacher and pupils on their success and hope they may have a pleasant and profitable session during the coming winter.

News Miscellany. There is a telephone line between Watsontown and Turbotville, seven miles distant, which is a great convenience. The ticking of a watch can be distinctly heard at the end of the line.

A DOG STORY.—Less than a year ago J. H. Hughes, of Bridgeport, presented to Judge Hummel, of Lewisburg Union county, a fine fox hound. The Judge expected to use the dog for deer hunting. One day recently the hound reappeared at his former master's home in Bridgeport. How the hound found his way from the farther side of the Susquehanna, across Northumberland, Schuylkill and Berks, is a puzzle to the people of Bridgeport, for he was sent to Judge Hummel by rail.

Emanuel Ettinger was arrested and placed in jail at Middleburg week before last. It will be remembered that Ettinger had been arrested and made his escape at or near Schoolcraft, Michigan, by jumping from the cars. Thus all the parties implicated in the Kintzler tragedy have been caught, and it is said the Commonwealth will leave no means untried to convict them. The success of the prosecution depends upon the proof in their possession. The attorneys for the Commonwealth are working most assiduously for conviction, believing that the evidence will warrant it.—Tribune.

The Pennsylvania Argus states that there is a woman in Conellsville who has just given birth to her twenty-fourth child.

A Baby Killed by a Rat.

READING, Sept. 7.—The family of Franklin Kantner, living near Womelsdorf, this county, were this morning aroused from their slumbers by the screams of their four-months old child. To their horror they found a rat biting the baby in the throat. The rat, hearing the approaching footsteps, jumped from the cradle and escaped. The child died of convulsions and loss of blood.

ALMOST INCREDIBLE.—The Christian Intelligencer vouches for this story: A well known firm of New York undertakers received a singular order recently. It was to furnish a rich cloth covered casket with velvet trimmings. All this for a dead dog belonging to a wealthy family up town. The animal had been nursed and taken care of for the past twenty years. The dead animal lay in the casket, wrapped in a mantle of white satin, with silk ribbons around the neck. The remains were taken to a cemetery close to New York, and put into the family vault. Six carriages, containing the friends of the animal, followed the remains to the cemetery.

Mr. John B. Leathers, the Mt. Eagle potter, is erecting a large cider mill, in which he expects to grind two hundred bushels of apples per hour.

WAS HE MURDERED?

Covered with $40,000 Insurance.

From the Northumberland Press, Sept. 3, 1880.

A man named Brandt, about seventy-three years of age was seriously hurt, at the depot on last Monday night, from the effects of which he died yesterday morning, at Mrs. Julia A. Johnson's hotel, where he had been placed by the overseers of the poor the morning after the accident. We have not learned where he is from, or how the accident occurred, but as his hat and cane were found about the freight depot it is supposed that he met with the accident while attempting to board a freight train which passes this place west about 9 o'clock in the evening. But there are grave doubts about the accident having occurred in this way, as the bruises on his body, we are informed by Dr. H. W. Burg, the attending physician, do not look as if he had been knocked down by being struck by a car. It is stated that different persons have an insurance of $40,000 on his life, which leads many persons to think there was foul play. A son, who is in the employ of the P. & E. R. R. Co. at Williamsport, called to see him on Tuesday but left again on the same day. Mr. Geo. Guyer, of the National Hotel, at Selingsgrove, who has, we are informed, $15,000 insurance on the deceased, was also here on Tuesday to see the old man, and directed that the best care should be given him, and that he would foot the bill.

LATER.—Two sons are here to look after the burial of their deceased father, and Mr. Guyer was here yesterday and paid all the expenses for the keeping of the deceased.

A post-mortem examination of the body will be made to-day in the presence of a coroner's jury.
