

Local Department.

The canning season is over and next-sour-kraut will be ripe. The second hay crop in Snyder county is good. A good ten-plate stove for sale cheap. Inquire at the Journal office. A man in Cambria county shot 104 squirrels the other Saturday. Don't overlook the big Bee Hive advertisement in another column. Had a most gracious rain on Monday night. It settled the dust and replenished the wells. The boss place for cheap goods is T. R. Stam's. Go and see for yourself. FAIR OCTOBER 6TH, 7TH, 8TH. EVERYBODY is coming with "his sisters cousins and his aunts." Cider is selling here at an average price of about $2.50. Some have bought for less while others have paid more. John Bame will offer his home and lot on Penn street at public sale, Saturday October 16th next. Buy it. W. F. Reeder, Esq., will please kindly to accept our thanks for complimentaries to the county fair. ENTRIES are already being made and the coming fair will be the best ever held in Centre County. Go to Bellefonte next week and attend the County Fair if you want to spend a few pleasant days. Thomas Hosterman gives notice that he has taken out letters of administration on the estate of Samuel H. Moyer, deceased. We are right in the midst of a very active apple-butter campaign. Gentlemen who are sure to go to the "Semly need not die any. Rev. C. F. Deisinger was here again last week to shake hands with his friends, and see after his lands and houses. The officers are working hard to get every person to bring exhibits to the fair this year, and we may expect a grand success. Baaland & Newman, of the great Combination Bee Hive Store, Bellefonte, are just now opening their immense stock of fall and winter goods. Baltimore will celebrate her 160th Anniversary during the week beginning October 11th. The festivities will be of a grand scale. The officers of the Agricultural Society of this county are putting forth their best efforts, to make this year's fair a success. Saturday will be the last day on which you can pay your tax in order to have a vote. Democrats don't miss your votes for a few cents or dollars of tax. SUICIDE.—The other Sunday Daniel Reish, of White Deer township, Union county, committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a pocket knife. The celebrated Bate's Harvester, manufactured by the Central Mfg. Company, Lewisburg, was awarded the first prize by the recent state fair at Philadelphia. For anything in the Clock, Watch or Jewelry line call on C. A. Sturgis, who has a fine assortment as you will find most anywhere and sells remarkably cheap. If you go to Bellefonte by all means go to the mammoth Bee Hive store where they are now opening a tremendous stock of goods, most wonderfully cheap. The Centre County Fair next week will be the best one ever held before. Don't neglect to attend it, if you can possibly get away from home. The Democrats of Centre Hall talk of having a grand Hancock ball picnic on the summit of Nitany mountain where the Granger picnic was held, some time during the campaign. Go in boys. H. E. Duck, Esq., brought us a basket of potatoes such as would make the heart of an Irishman leap for joy. Don't say that you never saw any larger but we didn't. They are of the new Staring kind. Mr. A. G. Heckman, of Seville, Ohio, was actually picking apples on the afternoon of the 25th, ult. That's just what he wrote us when he sent us his subscription for the Journal. "Only that and nothing more." "Don't you forget it" that the boss merchants of the county are Baaland & Newman, and the boss place for goods of the first grade and at the lowest prices, is the celebrated Bee Hive of Bellefonte. That extensive and valuable property in Gregg township known as FARMERS' MILLS will be offered at public sale on the premises by the executor of the late Adam Fisher, deceased, on Friday, October 8th next. It consists of a flouring mill, saw mill, dwellings, out buildings and about forty acres of land. Fine chance for a man with capital.

Tylersburg, Clarion county, has an old lady, Mrs. Allen, who is one hundred and six years old. The amusement department will be under the care of Dr. J. D. Geisinger and D. Ray, Esq., and they promise to make it "superb" at the fair this year. Mr. Cyrus Bowers and lady, of Sandusky, Ohio, were here last week on the sad errand of the burial of their daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Wolf. Mr. Bowers was a citizen of Millheim some thirty years ago and is still remembered by many people here. To-day our young friend George S. Frank, son of Judge Frank, of Rebersburg, goes to Philadelphia to attend medical lectures. In course of time D. V., he will be Dr. Frank. Glueck zu. Mr. Samuel Wilson, of Potter township, died the other Saturday at the advanced age of 90 years. He was one of the jurors before whom James Monks was tried and convicted of murder, about 55 years ago. Monks was the first man ever hanged in Centre county. Next Saturday there is to be a big Pole raising at Clintondale, Clinton county at which occasion first-class addresses will be given. Ex-Governor Curtin and Hon. C. T. Alexander are the speakers. Several bands will be present. J. R. VanOrmer did a noble deed when he presented us with that fine Hancock Book. Just like him, though he does give expecting nothing in return. But such the Lord has promised to bless, and we trust Reese will come in for his full share. Skilled Granley, Trustee will offer at public sale Tuesday October 26th, next, one of the most valuable farms in Brush Valley. The farm contains 282 acres, of which over 100 is well timbered with oak, pine, hemlock and chestnut. Here is a rare chance for a profitable investment. DEISINGER & MUSSER have just received a car load of marble direct from the quarries at Sutherland Falls, Vermont. This system of buying stock in large quantities from first hands enables them to sell work cheaper than other establishments that buy from obbers. The Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association will hold its sixteenth annual convention in Lancaster, Pa., Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 25th, 13th and 14th. Rev. John Hall, D. D., New York; Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D., Rev. B. T. Vincent and John Wanamaker, Philadelphia; Rev. James H. Dubs, D. D., Lancaster; James McCormick, Harrisburg; Rev. B. Young, Altoona, and other eminent Sunday School workers will be present. Hotel accommodations will be ample and cheap. DON'T—Don't let your angry passions rise when you discuss politics. Don't get mad and call the other fellow a liar. It can do no good and may do much harm, if not to the "cause" then certainly to yourself. If you insist on talking politics on street corners and in stores don't forget that you are a man, a neighbor, perhaps a friend to the opposite man. Conduct yourself so that when the campaign is over you will have no pardons to ask for insults given; no bitter feeling and heartburnings to heal up against such with and about whom you must live every day. Don't do it. Wm. C. HEINLE, Esq., deserves to receive every Democratic vote in the county. He is a young lawyer of ability and merit and has worked his way up to his present social and professional standing from a poor boy. He will make a capable and faithful public officer, in whose hands the commonwealth business of the county can be safely trusted. He will not be ashamed to speak Deutsch to his old neighbors and friends when they will have occasion to visit him on business or pleasure, after his election, for elected he will be, of course, and we hope that the valleys where everybody knows him, will give him their full vote. "The melancholy days have come The melancholy of the year." There now—don't you say that we are just trying to be the first one this year to remind you of the coming stern season in the poets immortal lines. No; it is not the frightened hares nor the rustling leaf that makes us sad; there isn't poetry enough in our soul for that; but the thought that soon—ah! very soon, we need—yes must have—lots of coal, wood, apples, potatoes, for those dependent on us, to say nothing of a new supply of shoes and other clothing in which to appear decent and keep warm. These and the thoughts of a strunked, shriveled and mostly empty purse, are what make our poor heart so tender. The trying realities of life—not the poetry—yes, there's the rub. The gunning season is at hand, and it is now in order to warn persons against the careless handling of firearms. The skilled sportsman never risks his own life or that of others by holding or carrying his gun in such a position as to endanger any one by its discharge. He appreciates the dangerous character of his weapon, and is, therefore, careful in handling it. Now that breech-loading arms are so generally used, there is no excuse for keeping them loaded, but whether loaded or not, the muzzle should at all times be kept away from the body. It is just as easy to acquire careful habits in handling guns as to get other habits that place one in constant danger of being self-wounded or perhaps killed.

—Mr. L. B. Frank, of Rebersburg just dropped in a moment the other morning to see us, on his way to the city for goods. Lute can't get over his big, Democratic heart to slight us—he always calls. Has such a warm feeling for the Journal, its editors and correspondents. —Mrs. David Skifer of Brush Valley brought us two cabbage heads the other day weighing respectively 6 pounds 8 ounces and 6 pounds 4 ounces. It is of the new and popular Hancock kind, is thoroughly solid and has a most delicious flavor. Now if any rampant radical rascalion can do better let him or her step to the front or forever hereafter shut up on the kroust kwestion. THE CENTRE COUNTY FAIR.—The premium list for the Centre County Fair was distributed last week, and has no doubt given satisfaction, as the amounts to be awarded are more liberal than usual. The Fair will open on the 6th of October, and from all that we have been able to learn, will be an entire success. Much interesting news has been ascertained in all parts of the county, which presupposes a large number of entries and an exciting and beautiful display. The ladies, we understand, intend to be fully represented by all the useful and beautiful articles that ladies manufacture, while the farmers, the stock-raisers, the mechanics, machinists, etc., etc., propose to contest for the premiums in the liveliest manner. The Fair will continue for three days, and Thursday, the 7th, will be the "big day" of the exhibition. Entries will be received until and on the first day, and we hope every man, every woman, every boy and every girl who has anything interesting to show will put it on exhibition. Whoever has the best, the biggest, the prettiest, the cleanest, the most beautiful, or the most tasteful and ingenious, will get premiums, and whoever gets a premium will of course have a proud feather in his or her cap. So let all make up their minds to contribute something to make the Fair generally attractive and interesting. THE MEETING IN AARONS-BURG. The Democratic meeting in Aaronsburg on Saturday evening was a large and lively one, yet everything passed off in best order. The Democrats of Brush Valley had promised to turn out in force and most nobly did they re-deed their promise. They came in uniform, with music and torches, and were joined here by the Millheim delegation, which was also headed by our corner band. The entire procession that left here was large and presented a beautiful, imposing appearance. The people present at the meeting must have numbered nearly one thousand, and it was perhaps the largest night meeting ever held in this end of the county. The meeting was organized by appointing D. A. Musser, Esq., President, assisted by a number of vice-presidents, J. H. Reifsnyder and J. W. Runkle, Secretaries. C. T. Alexander delivered speeches. These were at once able, eloquent, comprehensive, and as we believe convincing. They were well received by the vast crowd. The valleys are thoroughly shaken up and will give a good account of themselves at the election. SPRING MILLS ITEMS. The Hancock boom is still booming. A meeting of the Gregg Hancock Club at Decker's school house was addressed by W. C. Heinle, and Hon. F. Kurtz, both making telling speeches. Mr. Kurtz made the boss speech of the evening. The club will have another meeting in Brush Valley Thursday evening Sep. 30th. Mr. A. E. Miller has gone to Tyrone and is now firing an engine there. His family will soon follow. Our community was painfully grieved on Saturday morning by the death of Josey A. Jordan, who was taken sick with putrid sore throat on Tuesday previous. Our loss is his eternal gain. The boss picnic was held in the Seven Mountains on Saturday. Everybody was surprised and pleased. All present enjoyed themselves very much. The day will long be remembered with pleasure by all in attendance. Mr. T. B. Jamison is able to get around again with the use of a cane. Hope he may soon be able to lay it aside. His bruised toe is very much better. UNCLE TOM. Among agents and families, the great demand now is for the new light running Combination Sewing Machine. It has stood the test, and is better made, with more improvements, will last longer, and is much lower in price (only $25) than other makes, and having obtained a merited popularity among the people for reliability, it is welcomed wherever it makes its appearance. It is made of strength and constant hard work, has interchangeable wheels, and is provided with fine polished steel, and will run for years without repairs; is simple to learn, easy to manage, understood perfectly in an hour, and always ready to do every description of heavy or fine family work, at less cost, more easily, smoothly, and faster, and with less labor or trouble than any other machine at any price, ever did, or can do. Tickers, quilters, rufflers, hemmers, binders, etc., try with such machine, to see how easy and profitable it is. Agents make money rapidly, supplying the great demand for this Cheap Sewing Machine in the world. Territory free. For illustrated catalogue of prices, specimens of stitch, etc., address, office of the Combination Sewing Machine, 737 Broadway, New York, N. Y. News Miscellany. AFAMINE AT HOME. Caused by the Failure of the Wheat Crop. DES MOINES, Ia., September 23.—Levi Johnson, of Norton county, Kansas, is here soliciting aid for the people in Phillips, Sherman, Decatur, Sheridan, Rawlins and other counties. In Norton county 1,800 people are in absolute want of food. The wheat crop in all the above named counties failed and in June was plowed up and planted in corn, which has been destroyed by the worms. A public meeting will be held here this evening to procure supplies.

Henry Herbert Crane lived childless at Gratton, Ohio, until he was 65, then his young wife gave birth to twins. The joyous father hired a band of music and marched through the village bearing a banner on which was inscribed the word, "Victory." John Sweet of Buena Vista, Iowa, grew tired of his old wife and gave her half of his property for a release from his matrimonial bond, then he eloped with a younger woman, who speedily stole his remaining money and deserted him. Dishonest and penniless, he returned to his wife, and she took him in. It is stated in the newspapers from the various counties that the potato crop in Lancaster, Chester and Berks will be almost a total failure. An elephant travelling in a car next the locomotive on an Indiana railroad, opened the tank, drank all the water, and so compelled the train to stop. John Y. Smith and family arrived in Norristown from Ellis county, Kansas, a few days ago, having traveled the entire distance in a wagon drawn by two mules and two Texas ponies. The family, which consisted of eight persons, started July 7. The members of the family slept on a scaffold of boards on the wagon, and cooked their food by the wayside. Mr. Smith says that he wants no more of the "Go West" cry. He reports that business of all kinds is much worse in Kansas than in Pennsylvania. The chestnut crop throughout the state promises to be very large. The Juniata county jail is without an inmate, save one insane man. There are now five hundred men employed at the Pittsburg locomotive works, nearly all of whom work till midnight. The wife of W. G. Kemp, a wealthy farmer, of Berks county, on Sunday afternoon drowned herself by jumping into the Ontelauncie creek, near their home. She was insane upon religious matters. Two years ago she cut her throat with a razor in the attic, but her life was saved. Later she severed an artery with a razor while in the woods, but timely medical aid prevented her death. She was closely watched afterwards. On Sunday afternoon she was sitting on the veranda of their country home with her husband and children. Mr. Kemp went to the barn a few moments and as soon as he had his back turned the wife embraced her little ones and then rushed to the river, took off her shoes hurriedly and jumped in. Her body was recovered ten minutes afterwards. A NEW TREATMENT. The Golden Elixir of Life. Wonderful Cures.
