Spence, a well-to-do and intelligent merchant, was sentenced to thirty day's Mr. MICHAEL LAMEY'S guismith. imprisonment in jail by a Magistrate's Court for an attempt to kiss Mrs. M. E. Waller, a lady highly connected. Spence's counsel took an appeal to the Superior Court of the county. To-day the case was submitted to the jury, who returned a verdict of guilty, and Judge Gudger reaffirmed the thirty day's imprisonment, but afterwards changed the penalty to a fine of fifty dollars. The Court expressed sincere regret that the law limited the punishment, as it was satisfied that the offense merited a much heavier sentence.
