"Landslide from the Cash Store Store."

We can sell you goods 20 per cent cheaper than you can buy them in Penns Valley. "Overdrawn?" No sir, not up to truth by oceans. In every day-life you find shipwrecks, who, if they have to fight the battles over again, would fight and conquer under that excelsior Banner upon whose sicken folds were printed in ineffaceable letters of gold, "that silent, solid, omnipotent monosyllable, "Cash," the secret of our low prices. We submit our prices below, and all we ask is a comparison with old time prices.

We do not imitate in prices but ad prices to beat solid facts.

Table listing various goods and their prices, including coffee, sugar, flour, and other household items.

Large assortment of Ladies Coats, and Mens Gum Boots, lower than the lowest.

The New Cash Store, Penn Street, Millheim, Pa.

WANTED.—Good tailors, at the Bee Hive, Bellefonte.

Folks had a pretty fair taste of sleighing for a few days last week, but it is all played out again.

For your Gloves, Underwear, Shirts, Neckties and Boots, go to the Bee Hive, in Bellefonte.

The big hog "Pedro", at Watsonstown, which was butchered on Thanksgiving, weighed only 776 pounds.

James C. Condo will offer a valuable home at public sale, on the premises in Georges Valley, Friday, 21st.

Headquarters for Bargains is Bauland & Newman's Bee Hive One Price Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

Whoever lost that good, heavy, left-handed woolen mitten on Monday morning can have it free of charge by calling at the Journal office.

The job work done in the Journal Office will compare well with any work done elsewhere, and the prices are remarkably low. Give us a call.

Just the thing for this inclement season is one of Lewin's suits. He sells absolutely cheaper than any clothing house in Centre county.

Quite a variety of weather within the past week. A little snow, some rain, a day or so of beautiful sunshine and then again very cold.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

The Bee Hive Store, Bellefonte, Pa., has an immense variety of goods suitable for Holiday presents, for Ladies, Gentlemen and Children.

The centre of attraction in Bellefonte, at this festive season of the year, is Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Clothing Emporium, where immense quantities of clothing are sold all the time at the lowest possible prices.

After considerable wrangling about the matter it is at last agreed by all concerned, directly and indirectly, that the JOURNAL STORE is the boss place in Penns Valley for Holiday goods. Just the place to buy your presents.

A dear little deer came to pay its respects to Mr. Freeman Luse, at the planning mill behind the Evangelical church last Saturday. The innocent little creature gambled and frisked around for some time, knowing no doubt that Freeman would not be so cruel as to do it any harm.

Please call and examine our stock. Our motto is—"One price, and that the very lowest, and no misrepresentations."

The public's obedient servants, BAULAND & NEWMAN, Bee Hive Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

A WEEK OF JUBILEE.—A Musical Convention will be held in St. Peter's Reformed Church, Rebersburg, commencing Monday evening, December 7th, 1880, under the direction of Prof. J. A. Weaver. The Convention will close with a Grand Concert, on Friday evening, Dec. 31st. All lovers of music are cordially invited to attend. Convention Tickets 50 cents. Concert Tickets 25 cents. Children under 12 years, half price.

A. N. KORMAN, J. B. KREMER, W. M. LANDIS, Committee.

CHEAPER than ever, Fancy Alpaca for 6 cents a yard, at the Bee Hive in Bellefonte.

Remember the Holiday season is about opening and the Journal Store on Main Street is the place to get the finest and cheapest Novelties.

If you are blessed with this world's good you can earn a world of gratitude and blessing by making a Christmas present to some poor neighbor, of a good warm suit of clothing, such as you can get for almost nothing, at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

LADIES' Misses' and Children's Furs at a great bargain, at the Bee Hive in Bellefonte.

HOLD ON AND LISTEN!—J. Willis Musser is on the road again buying up Calves and Poultry, for which he pays the very highest market price and the solid cash. This is an announcement worth your attention.

The new Church's Reformed Church at Madisonburg will be dedicated to the Triune God, Sunday, January 9th next. Divine Services will begin on Monday morning, January 3rd, and will continue during the week, mornings and evenings. Ministers from a distance will be present to officiate. The Christian public is cordially invited to attend.

W. M. LANDIS, Pastor.

ATTENTION!

Mr. MICHAEL LAMEY's gunsmith shop, on Penn Street, Millheim is the place for the finest Single and Double Barrel Guns, which will be sold at the lowest price. Also a full stock of ammunition for sale.

Repairing of any kind promptly and cheaply done.

A liberal patronage is respectfully requested.

REPORT OF MILLHEIM GRAMMAR SCHOOL FOR THE WEEK ENDING DEC. 8th 1880.

No. of pupils, males—23, females—21. Total—44. No. of pupils admitted, males—1, females—0. Total—1. No. attending, males—20, females—17. Total—37. Average attendance, males—17, females—13. Total—30. Per cent of attendance, males—85, females—75. Total—81. No. of pupils tardy, males—16, females—14. Total—30. No. of visitors—6.

During the week I overheard some of our business men complaining that there were too many boys loafing in the stores during the evenings, and that they could not see why parents did not keep them at home at their books, instead of having them out and engaged in using vulgar language. This should be sufficient to induce all to at least try and prevent the evil. Again I say come and visit us.

D. L. ZEBBY, Teacher.

LADIES' Coats and Dolmans in great variety, less than elsewhere, at the Bee Hive in Bellefonte.

The Centre County Teachers' Institute will again hold its annual convention in the Court House, Bellefonte, commencing Tuesday evening, Dec. 22th, and closing Friday evening Dec. 31st. Prof. Augell, late of the Shippensburg state normal school, Prof. D. M. Wolf, of Spring Mills, Miss Florence Chaffester, of Syracuse, N. Y. and C. L. Gramley, will by the stars of the first magnitude, while the lesser lights will be more numerous. We are glad to see that our young friend J. R. VanOrmer is to deliver a lecture on a very good, practical and comprehensive subject, viz: "The Work, Worker and Reward."

We wish the Institute all possible success, but if we were still in the ranks we would protest, kick up a fuss, strike and possibly hurt somebody before we would consent to attend a teacher's institute during the holidays. A more unpropitious time could not be chosen.

NEWS FROM BRUSH.

We did have a sleigh ride already! The Strohkeepers seem to be our most successful Nimrods thus far; they brought home three very fine deer, as a reward for their skill in hunting.

Mr. Philip Gramley slaughters five porkers to-day, (7th) whose aggregate weight is estimated at from 1900 to 2000 pounds. Let some one try to beat Philip.

Mr. H. G. Royer thrashed over 800 bushels of wheat from an ordinary four horse farm. Not bad.

We do not know of any serious accident since our pavements are in such an unpleasant condition, but we do know that several folks brought forth considerable merriment.

W. H. Leitzell, Geo. Brachbill and Roland Moyer, while returning home from Madisonburg, where they were attending a protracted meeting, were very unfortunate, and yet glücklich. They traveled in a buggy whose parts differed very much from those of the "Wonderful One Hoss Shy" as far as durability is concerned. One of the axle-trees broke, at which the horse took fright—became unmanageable—precipitated the boys into the mud and fence corners—and had things all his own way, until the buggy was a complete wreck. None seriously hurt.

Friday Evening. 7 Service of Song. 7:30 Lecture by Dr. Vincent. Subject: Modern Sunday-School Ideas. Saturday Morning, Dec. 18th 1880. 9 Prayer and Praise. 9:30 Business meeting. 10:30 Work Talks and Farewell Words.

It is earnestly requested that all the delegates attend the business meeting.

AUSTIN CURTIS, President. CLEMENT DIXIE, Secretary. ALFRED NICHOLS, Treasurer. Rev. S. E. FURST, Rev. JAS. M. SMITH, S. D. GRAY, H. L. HARVEY, GEO. S. GRAY and J. WESLEY GEPHART, Executive Committee.

MARRIED.

On the 16th ult., by Rev. J. A. Koser, Mr. George Krape, of Argostownship, and Mrs. Catherine Decker, of Pine Grove.

Go to the Bee Hive in Bellefonte and get a good warm suit of clothing made to order.

Honesty is the best policy in medicine as well as in other things. Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a genuine preparation, an unequalled spring medicine and blood purifier, decidedly superior to all others in the market. Trial proves it.

AN IMPORTANT SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY.

Only one day of the kind for Bellefonte since 1870. In some respects different and it is hoped also better than any Sunday School day yet enjoyed in Centre County. For the first time Rev. John H. Vincent, D. D., of New York, Chairman of the International Sunday School Committee will be present to give us his best services throughout that day. Not only Sunday School workers, but all of us like need the benefits that will be offered on Friday, Dec. 17th, by the County S. S. Association. One third of the population of Centre County is outside of the Bible School on the Lord's day.

More than one half of the precious souls living among us are yet unshaved, "having no hope and without God in the world." It is certain that these thousands will remain away from the Savior as long as they live uninterested in "the truth as it is in Jesus." By united Christian effort, we must seek to interest them "in the Word of Life." Laborers together with God, is it saying too much that we ought at least to devote one day in united and prayerful consultation over these momentous interests. Let us then come together thus that we may go forth and work together more intelligently, more devotedly and more effectively in efforts to bring to the Savior these thousands unshaved in Centre county. Dec. 1880. C.

MAKE FRIENDS.—Life is very critical. Any word may be our last. Any farewell, even amid glee and merriment, may be forever. If this truth were but burnt into our consciousness, and if ruled as a deep conviction and real power in our lives, would it not give a new meaning to our human relationship? Would it not make us far more tender than we sometimes are? Would it not oftentimes put a rein upon our rash and impetuous speech? Would we carry in our hearts the miserable suspicions and jealousies that now so often embitter the fountains of our lives? Would we be so impatient of the faults of others? Would we allow trivial misunderstandings to build up a wall between us and those who ought to stand very close to us? Would we keep alive petty quarrels year after year, which a manly word any day would compose? Would we pass old friends or neighbors on the street without recognition, because of some real or fancied slight, some wounding of pride, or some ancient grudge? Or would we be so chary of the kind words, our commendations, our sympathy, our comfort, when weary hearts all about us are breaking for just such expressions of interest or appreciation as we have in our power to give?—Ez.

Kansas Constitutional Amendment Jubilee.

Kansas is legally redeemed from the curse of the liquor business.

What Kansas has done, Pennsylvania can do.

The Pennsylvania Constitutional Amendment Association, invites all christian people and all philanthropists of the State, to hold a thanksgiving service some time during the last week in December. Let the Pastors preach and the people rejoice with thanksgiving that the enemy of all good is cast down and the way of the gospel prepared. The redemption of Kansas is a promise of the redemption of every State, and of the United States. Let the pastors and people of every location adopt their own method of celebrating the Jubilee.

Write to the Secretary for Petitions for the Amendment. Daniel Agnew, Pres. Elbow F. Swift, Treas. D. L. Starr, Sec.

Robella, P. O. Allegheny County, Pa.

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. Ayer's Hair Vigor will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It soothes and cleanses the scalp, giving it healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on lanky, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce a gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

Ex-Mayor Bridges, who has connected with him a Mr. Snyder, has a contract for grading, etc., nine miles of the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, in Penn's Valley, from the Pennsylvania Furnace, eastward. This, when completed, only leaves eight miles of the road to grade. The firm of Bridges & Good (Gen. S.) are pushing work on their railroad contract near Saratoga, N. Y.—Clinton Democrat.
