Crow-Crow.—Two heads of cabbage cut fine; one-half peck green tomatoes; one half peck onions; five dozen cucumbers, slice the large ones; three quarters of a pint of small red and green peppers; sprinkle with one pint of salt, and drain all night; pour off all the juice and add one ounce pepper-grain; one ounce white seed; one ounce turmeric; one ounce cloves; three table-spoons of ground mustard; two pounds brown sugar; enough horse radish, grated fine, to make a pint. Cover all with strong vinegar and boil 30 minutes...

HUMOROUS.

"This is the healthiest place in America," said the landlord of a Niagara hotel to the tourist. "Nobody ever dies here." "No," said the traveler, in the tone of a man who was thoroughly convinced of it. "No I reckon not. Nobody would stay here long enough to die."

John Randolph.

When a bashful Hamburg lover begins to hitch his chair a little nearer the idol of his affections, can it be properly called "Hamburg edging"?
