THE PHILADELPHIA TIMES

The Times for 1881. This paper will enter the New Year with a large circle of regular readers...

A new administration will be inaugurated, new political occasions will create new political duties...

The Times will be the future, as it has been in the past, absolutely independent of political parties...

The Times aims to reach the highest standard of the independent newspaper. It fearlessly opposes corruptionists and rings in all parties...

The Times will begin the New Year strengthened in all its already exceptionally strong departments.

Terms: Daily—delivered by carriers, for twelve cents a week...

LET IT BEFREE ALL AROUND. A Mississippi newspaper hopes that the "South will remain solid until the elections are free and fair in Massachusetts as they are in Mississippi."

If, as Mr. Boutwell and the Stalwarts who are seeking a pretext for Federal interference assert, it is true that the ballot has sometimes been paralyzed in the hands of the negro by violence or threats...

We are for a free ballot everywhere. We want it not only in Massachusetts as it is in Mississippi...

AUDITOR GENERAL SCHELL'S administration of his office is winning "golden opinions from all sorts of people."

Onto sends John Sherman to the senate, Connecticut General Joseph R. Hawley, an experienced representative...

Hon. James G. Blaine is to be the new Secretary of State in the Garfield administration. At least so the knowing ones say.

Hon. L. A. Mackey, S. Woods Caldwell, Esq., and W. W. Rankin, are the candidates in Clinton county for legislature, vice Whaley, deceased.

Our state legislature has not done anything worth mentioning thus far—except to parcel out the offices among themselves.

Gen Grant was last week elected President of the New York Exhibition Company.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15, 1881. Only one question has been before Congress at this session which can be called "political."

That was the subject of the electoral court. I have never been able to understand why all the Democrats voted one way on that question...

On the appropriation bills and all other measures so far considered the House has voted with substantial unanimity.

There is a movement among leading Republicans to break up this desirable condition of things, and I think the Democrats, having a majority in every committee, should suppress any suggested measure of the kind.

The selection of Mr. Blaine as Secretary of State, the tenor of all advices from President-elect Garfield, and more especially his remarks yesterday to the negro delegation...

The President elect seems to appreciate the fact that sectionalism, and recollections of the civil war have dominated in politics long enough.

One of the unnecessary and also very irritating matters which may or may not be lengthily discussed is the Kellogg Senatorial contest.

Five appropriation bills have been passed by the House, and two of them have been amended and passed by the Senate.

They have got the Grant pension business at last in the U. S. Senate. Logan last Monday introduced a bill authorizing the appointment of Gen. Grant on the retired list.

Onto sends John Sherman to the senate, Connecticut General Joseph R. Hawley, an experienced representative and a gallant soldier...
