—In Millburg a man whose name is not given tried to square his tax by striking the collector, a feeble old man of 75 years—by striking him with such force as to break one of the bones of his hand. That is one way to settle taxes.

SETTLED.—The number of sleighs manufactured by Millburg men during the current season, after a full canvass of all the returns is at last fixed at 597 plus 25 equal to 623. We are entirely satisfied with the result.

—Among the little items of personal comfort and economy are Ayer's Pills. They are the ready remedy which defeat many disorders, if taken in season, and should be kept in every family.

Noting Short of Unmistakable Benefits.

Considered upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the Indies of Potassium and Iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial, or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Scurvy, Boils, Tumors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases and all disorders arising from impurity of the blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often cures Liver Complaints, Female Weakness and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal. It tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and it is today the most valuable medicine for the suffering sick, anywhere.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS.

—That was indeed a hard bit which the Reporter gave us last week on the church subscription business. But we are pretty well used to such things and hope to survive it. But the queerest thing in that line may yet happen—namely, if the Reporter in a would for once take a liberal freak and come down with a subscription compared to which that of Reading, would appear contemptible. If he does—and he can so well afford it—we agree to proclaim the fact to the world—in a "short and modest form" as we did the contribution of the Reading namesake, but in real, bombastic, Reporter style, as far as we are able to imitate that which is inimitable. Yes, and we will use two line long primary antique extended type. That would cap the climax and ought to restore good humor all around. Fertig.

A Sadly Afflicted Family.

The saddest instance of the ravages of that terrible disease, diphtheria, was that which occurred in the family of Mrs. Lilly, one square south of this office. On the 22d of January the first child died, and on the 31st the fifth (and the last) was carried off by the fell destroyer—this embraced her entire family. During our thirty year's residence in this place we have not known of so great a fatality in a single family. Physician, mother and neighbors did all they could to stay the hand of the destroyer, but his fiat was imperative. The sympathies of the whole community are enlisted in behalf of this terribly afflicted childless widow.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

Sad and Fatal Accident. A CARD. To our Friends and Patrons in Centre county.

On Friday last our community was startled by the shocking news that Mr. Samuel Smith, residing on Mr. David Krape's farm near Centre Hall, had met his sudden death by one of the most singular accidents that perhaps ever happened. The particulars of the case as related to us are as follows: Mr. Smith had a cow with a sore eye, and it is supposed that he was in the act of applying some curative to the eye while the cow was tied in the stable, and that the cow violently threw her head back, and hit Mr. S. on the abdomen, knocking away his breath, and that in falling he got under the next cow. In this position he was found by Mrs. Smith, the cow standing with her fore feet on his breast, and his dead. This is the most apparent theory but just how it all was can never be known to a certainty.

Mrs. S. ran to the house, but was so horror stricken that she could not utter her husband's name—"Samuel." The hired girl ran out to the barn and extricated Mr. S. from his horrid position. At this time some neighbors had arrived to give assistance and the lifeless form of Samuel Smith, who an hour before had been a strong, healthy man, was carried to the house. Truly—"In the midst of life we are in death!" On Tuesday the remains were interred in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg, accompanied by a large concourse of grief-stricken relatives and friends. Rev. W. E. Fisher delivered a discourse at the residence of decedent, and Rev. Samuel Smith, in the Reformed church at Aaronsburg.

Mr. Smith was a son of the venerable John Smith, Esq., of Laurelton, Union county. He was married about two years ago, to Miss Susan Krape, daughter of Mr. David Krape, of Haines township. He was an industrious, intelligent man, a useful citizen, a kind husband, and a working member of the church. He leaves behind him a good record and many friends to mourn his early and tragic end. May he rest in peace.

"MUSIC HATH CHARMS."—The Musical Instrument Store of C. H. Hassenplog, Lewisburg, Pa., will henceforth be carried on by Hassenplog & Thomas. They have on hand a large variety of Pianos, Organs, Organettes, and other musical instruments of all standard makes, which they sell at very low prices. They are gentlemen of high character and integrity and have large experience in the business. Mr. Thomas, who is well and favorably known in these parts, expects to make a thorough canvass of this part of Centre county, selling instruments, and we hope he may meet with abundant success.

WOODWARD CHIPS.

The recent cold snap has rendered the streets quite slippery; consequently the walk and conversation of some persons is often not exemplary.

The Woodward Hotel property is again to be put under the "hammer" on Thursday the 24th instant. The property is valued at $200 but I fear, at that figure the "hammer" will never fall. If it does, it will knock the stuffing out of somebody.

Mr. J. C. Motz's mill is filled to repletion with the best wheat Pennsylvania can produce, and Mr. Wm. C. Vonella, than whom there is no better flour, is busy day & night turning out flour that will silence even a shrew. The J. C. Motz brand is a recognized standard wherever known.

In spite of rain and snow a party of our young bloods attended the German Exhibition at Millheim. Concerning its merits they express themselves in their most gushing style.

SHLEGELFELDER has been discovered at last. He was seen to emerge from a front yard on Sunday morning and hastily wend his way up Maine Avenue, while Lizzie quietly closed the door.

JIM SCHROEDER.

with the killing of Kintzler and his wife, who had lived for many years in a quaint old log house and were known to have considerable money. The murder was committed in December, 1877, and soon after several of the suspected parties were tried for the murder of the old man, but the jury discarded the testimony of one of the accomplices, a young girl, and they were acquitted. The case was then placed in the hands of Detective Lyons, of Reading, who has devoted nearly two years to the pursuit of the murderers, who were the second time put on trial for the murder of Kintzler's wife. The court directed the sheriff and Detective Lyons to convey the murderers to jail.

The public debt statement for January shows a decrease of $7,342,167. Since June 30, 1880, the debt has decreased $50,372,727.

Three children of a colored minister in Sumter county, South Carolina, were burned to death last Sunday evening, by the explosion of a coal oil lamp, during the absence of their parents from home.

People who live in all kinds of glass houses have things at the editor, who can do nothing to please them. For instance, if he lets wrongs go unmentioned he is a coward; if he exposes them he is spiteful; if he omits anything he is lazy or careless; if he calls things by their proper names he is not nice, not fit for his position; if he speaks of things precisely as they are he is mean; if he covers them with varnish he has been bribed; if he gets off jokes, he is a clown; if he does not hit a numskull; if he indulges in personalities he is a blackguard; if he does not hit his own man. And so on to the end of the chapter—Ez.

An old mountaineer visiting Sacramento and unacquainted with street cars dropped a whole dollar into the box and was astonished to learn that he could not get it out. The Bee says: "Finally he solved the problem of getting even with the railroad company by notifying the driver that he would use up the money he put in the box in rides. This he did by remaining on the car for twenty trips, and armed with a flask of whisky and a bunch of crackers and cheese, the old fellow had a picnic all to himself."

News Miscellany.

Four years ago a school boy in Monroe county, Indiana, threw a dead rattlesnake around the neck of a little girl, and it has made her permanently insane. During all this time she has recognized no one, but daily sits with her slate on her lap, marking out the same figures she had been given as a lesson at school on the fatal day, occasionally crying out. "Take the snake away."

Farmers, Don't be Caught.

Two men recently canvassed some portions of Union county with a patent grain drill. They managed by some swindling process to catch several farmers, one in Kelley twp. for over $700. We learn that they are now in Northumberland county playing the same game. Keep on the lookout for swindles of all sorts. Don't invest in anything that agents or canvassers promise to return you from 50 to 100 per cent. in a short time.

THE KINTZLER MURDERERS.

They are Refused a New Trial and Sentenced to be Hanged. MIDDLEBURG, February 8.—The court to-day overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Emanuel Ettinger, Israel Erb and Jonathan Moyer, convicted of the murder of Gretchen Kintzler, an old woman, and pronounced sentence of death on all of them. They had all separate trials, and in each case the evidence as to their guilt was conclusive. Moyer was tried in December last, and the testimony against him was even more conclusive than that elicited at the trials of Ettinger and Erb, additional facts having been obtained as to the horrible murder from a young woman and Detective Lyons, who worked up the case, to whom the defendant had made a confession of his connection
