†Amos Alexander.†

Mr. James Alexander, father of Amos, emigrated from Maryland to Centre county, Pa., in the year 1795, now. and settled on the farm of Wm. Potter, Esq., about a mile east of Old Fort. Here the subject of this notice was born, August 2nd, 1811; and here on the same farm the father and two sons-Francis and Amos-lived together in peace and harmony for fifty-two successive years.

In 1854 Amos Alexander bought and moved upon the farm belonging to the estate of Judge Kryder, deceased, in Penn township, where for a number of years he was very successfully engaged in farming.

In 1861 he was elected to the office of County Commissioner, which pesition he very creditably filled for a term of three years.

In 1865 he purchased the property of John V. Forster, deceased, in Millheim, and for several years was engaged in the mercantile business. Failing health however induced him to he lived a private and quist life for some sixty years prior to his death.

Rushing from the champers, they were confronted with a falling fire brand from the dome of the capitol, which was already all ablaze. A hook and ladder company, with headquarters near by, hurried to the scene, and with the aid of these ladders the members all escaped, some of them slightly singed. The building burned rapidly to the ground, entailing alloss to the state of over $100,000.

The pamphlet laws of 1879 provide hat the terms of all township officers ending with the first Monday in April shall, beginning with the year 1881, end on the first Monday of March and that the term of the new offices shall begin on that day, which affects all except School Directors. Section 2 provides that the settlement shall be made on the second Monday in March. Other laws, which have not been altered, require the publication of the statement either by hand bills or in a newspaper within ten days after the settlement has been made. The penalty for neglect of any of the provisions of the acts of Assembly is $20.

In the whole History of Medicine. No preparation has ever performed such narvelous cures, or maintained so wide a reputation, as Ayer's Chenry Pectoral, which is recognized as the world's remedy for all diseases of the throat and sangs. Its long contained series of wonderful cures in all climates has made it universally known as a safe and reliable agent to employ. Against ordinary colds, which are the forerunners of more serious disorders, it acts speedily and surely, always relieving suffering, and often saving life.
