On Tuesday morning the train going east found a large pile of rock in the tunnel at Baldy's mountain. Of course the train was obliged to return. A gang of workmen were set to work to remove the obstruction and late in the afternoon the track was again clear. The mass of rock was variously estimated at from twenty to fifty tons.

BRANCHING OUT.—B. Harris' Notion & Millinery store in Lewisburg has been removed to 230, Market street, where they have a much larger room and better accommodations for their many patrons and friends. They have increased their stock, and have made ample preparations for an enlarged business. They are determined not to be undersold by any establishments of their line in Central Pennsylvania, and cordially solicit the patronage of their friends in Penns & Brush Valleys. See advertisement in another column.

PROCEEDINGS OF TOWN COUNCIL.—Our venerable borough fathers had their first stated meeting in the Journal office, Saturday evening. The first Monday evening of each month was fixed upon as the time for regular meetings. High Constable Samuel Weiser, Jr., was elected street commissioner. The following standing committees were appointed by the President: Finance—Hartman, Weiser, Stover, Streets and Alleys—Bron, Luse, Weiser. Nuisance—Luse, Stoner, Hartman. The High Constable was instructed to assess the dogs in the first week of April.

"FLIPPING."

On this important question we are not sure that the returns are all in, but there are enough to reestablish the general result, namely that there will again be considerable moving.

Miss Mary Motz moved into Mrs. Nees' house. Wm. N. Anman goes in to his brother's house, Strasburg. Clark Herman left for Mendota, Ill., and Dr. Harter takes his place in Adelphi Miller's house. B. F. Kister will fill up the place vacated by Dr. Harter, in Foot's white house. Jeweller Sturgis will succeed Kister. Jacob Alter goes into Frank Knarr's house, North street, and George Cummings gets the house that Jacob leaves. Barber Springer takes possession of the Forney property. James Dutweiler fits in Foot's house, at Peter's saw mill. Wm. Derr will divide with Dr. Wetzell. A Mr. Ricker moves into Jacob Gephart's house, at the Foundry. George Moyer moved on Noah Stover's farm, near Logansville. Wm. H. Smith takes the old Swartz farm. John Cummings gets the Mumberow farm. Jacob Long moves on the Henry Smith property, north of John Keen's farm. Emanuel Bower gets Jacob Sankey's farm. Reuben Harter succeeds Mr. Bower on Sebastian Musser's farm. There may be others moving of whom we have not heard, and if any person or persons feel themselves hurt because they are skipped we humbly beg pardon, her or their pardon.

Lawrence county is unfortunately in her tax collectors. One official is found to be $5,000 in arrears, while another looms up to a total of $13,000.

The Yarnell brothers of Winamae, Ind., who have been looking up claims in Pennsylvania, aver that the Yarnell heirs are entitled to 1,600 acres of land on which the city of Pottsville, Pa., is situated. The property is said to be worth several millions. Suit will be commenced for title. An effort was once made by property holders at Pottsville to compromise with the Yarnells, but the papers were stolen and destroyed, and nothing came of it.

Last week a woman named Kate O'Brien was discharged from the twenty-five term from the Pottsville jail, in which seventeen years of her life have been spent.

A Fatal Game of "Ghost."

From the Minister (Mich.) Times.

Last Thursday the children of Public School No. 3 near Causon's Run proposed to play ghost, and selected Annie Sicable, a little girl about 11 years of age, as their victim. Without the knowledge of Annie they posted one of their number in the pine, enveloped in a sheet. To this place they led the unsuspecting little girl and at a given signal the sheeted figure made its appearance. The children who were in the plot ran and hallowed "Gh st!" and with them ran little Annie, believing she had seen a real ghost. She reached the school room door, fell insensible and died the same day.

Poisoned by a Pencil.

From the Kennebec (Me.) Journal.

Mr. Samuel Clarke, of Vasselboro, has been in the habit of carrying a copying pencil in his coat pocket. One day last week Mr. Clarke came to Augusta and while in the city he purchased some troches for a cold, which he put loose in the pocket where they were constantly coming in contact with the lead. While returning to Vasselboro on the cars he felt a tickling in his throat and to allay the irritation partook of several troches. His tongue at once began to swell and turn black and by the time he arrived home he was deadly sick. A physician was summoned, who promptly administered antidotes for the poison. It is said that a piece of the lead of one of these pencils, half the size of a pea, will cause the death of a robust man.

A Desperado Hanged to a Water Tank.

ST. LOUIS, March 16.—A special dispatch from Kansas City says: Thomas Gordon, the desperado who killed the city marshal of Socorro, N. M., a few days ago, but escaped and fled to Albuquerque, was arrested there and on Friday last taken back to Socorro, where he was hanged to a water tank by a mob of 200 or 300 men.

The End of an Old Quarrel.

ATHENS, Ark., March 16.—At a saw mill near here Thomas Jackson on Monday shot and killed T. H. Nichols. This terminates a quarrel of many years' standing.

An Octogenarian's Suicide.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 16.—George Rice, eighty-one years of age, committed suicide in East Brooklyn, Conn., last night.

A Pink of a Judge.

Judge Tyler, of Montgomery county, Tennessee, is to be impeached for neglect, drunkenness, misappropriation and attempt to assassinate. He appears to be a versatile character, who has had a pretty busy life of it.

The Dunkards of Johnson county, Missouri, some time ago got up a controversy among themselves, which has now assumed such proportions that it threatens to make a division in the body. The ceremony of feet-washing is one of the old religious observances of these people. The controversy is as to whether in the performance of this rite one foot or both should be washed. On this important point opinion is about equally divided. As in most controversies of this sort, so in this, both sides are very firmly set in their views, and neither is willing to give up or to modify. Each side claims to have Scripture in its favor. In another ecclesiastical fellowship the question some time ago arose as to the use of soap in this ceremony, one party contending that it was originally used on the feet of the disciples and the opposition maintaining that soap was unscriptural. It is safe to say that all these contending brethren departed from the original spirit of the recorded washing by Jesus of the feet of the disciples.

HOW TO BE NOBODY.—It is easy to be nobody, and we will tell you how to do it. Go to drinking saloons to spend your leisure time. You need not drink much now; just a little beer, or some other drink. In the meantime play dominoes, checkers, or something else to kill time, so that you will be sure not to read any useful books. If you read anything let it be dime novels of the day; thus go on keeping your stomach full and your head empty, and yourself playing time-killing games, and in a few years you'll be nobody, unless you turn out a drunkard or professional gambler, either of which is worse than nobody. There are any number of young men hanging about saloons just ready to graduate and be nobodies.—Ex.

EX-SENATOR WALLACE and his associates, Messrs. Peck, Barnard and Coleman, of Williamsport, have made a sale of their lumber property in Wisconsin to the Mississippi River Logging Company for $1,275,000. This is the largest sale ever made in one "lump" in that region.

The following is a verbatim copy of a will recently filed in the office of the Worcester county register: "Stait Merryland, County of Wareceire bee it none as my Will and Testimony bee it that I, my nedeled I Give to my sun—my saril hoss and my hoss cart and my Little Brendel Cow and fore hode of Shepe and fore Gese and six hode of hogs and all my Plows and horros and my Big Chist and Corner Cubbid and my 2 Bades and Bade quites and all my hous firmar Givim him undir my hand and Seal this the 14th day of Fiburary 1881."
