Dr. John F. Harter, Dentist, has removed his office to the second floor of Tomlinson's grocery, where he will be happy to receive his personal and professional friends.

Mrs. Polly Royer, widow of Geo. W. Royer, near Rebersburg, will have public sale, Friday April 29th. Four good horses, several cows, and a full stock of farming implements will be sold.

Our borough fathers will have their regular meetings on the first Monday evening of every month. Those having business with our council will please take notice.

Next Union Co., Agricultural fair comes off Oct. 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th. Hope it will for once not hit the same time our county fair will be held.

Eggs are not made out of very solid stuff. That's what Al. Frank found out, when he crossed the gutter at Snook's and dropped two boxes off the wagon.

Dr. John F. Harter and Mr. B. F. Kister publish their cards in this week's Journal—the one as a dentist, the other as a shoemaker. Both are first rate fellows and good mechanics. Patronize them.

Reports from Kansas state that the winter wheat crops are in excellent condition throughout the state, but the condition of the spring wheat is less good. With seasonable rains Kansas will have a full crop.

If your hair is coming out or turning gray, do not murmur over a misfortune you can so easily avert. Ayer's Hair Vigor will remove the cause of your grief by restoring your hair to its natural color, and therewith your good looks and good nature.

Last Thursday Mr. Wm. H. Homan, son of Mr. John S. Homan, below Anasburg, was badly hurt from the weight of a quantity of earth which fell upon him while working on the rail road extension in Snow Shoe. He was taken to his father's from Bellefonte in a carriage.

Benjamin B. Shime, a young man residing at Roaring Creek, Columbia county, shot and killed himself because Miss Alice Long, a young lady to whom he had been paying attention for some time rejected him.

This is court week, and a very busy time at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa.

No matter what the weather is—cool, cold, warm, hot, Lewin at the Philadelphia Branch Clothing Store will sell you a suit that will suit the state of the weather as well as the state of your purse exactly. Just try Lewin.

GILMORE & Co., 629 F. Street, Washington, D. C., request every Soldier or Sailor who served in the Union Army during the late war, to send his name and post office address on a postal card. Write plainly name, post office, county and state. In return you will receive a copy of a new paper, AMERICA, containing valuable information.

A certain lady of Sunbury has for some time past been carrying a policy on the life of an old citizen of Inscranceville. Last week two agents called upon her and persuaded her to sell the policy at a small advance on the original purchase price. This she did, signing all the necessary papers. The next day the old person died, and the policy was worth $1,500.—Sunbury Dem.

If you want an extra fine article in the line of tooth powder—and every body should use such an article—Dr. John F. Harter is the man to supply you. We have tried it and know whereof we speak.

A young man named John Williams issued a general invitation to the inhabitants of Pottsville to fight him on Sunday evening. The first person to respond was an officer, who took charge of him for the night.

About twenty barrels of paint applied to the houses and several tons of lime to the outbuildings and fences, would improve the appearance of our town vastly. Suppose you do your share of the work this spring.

Millheim now has the neatest, coziest barber shop in the valley, and one of the best barbers in it the state can produce. His name is J. C. Springer.

LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.—That magnificent establishment Bauland & Newman's Bee Hive Store, Bellefonte Pa., is just chock full of goods of every grade and price. Every one can be exactly suited, and at prices too that absolutely defy competition. If you go to B-H's don't fail to go and see the Bee Hive. They will treat you kindly, sell you very cheaply and send you away rejoicing. Just try it.

A sad evidence of the moral condition of a portion of the population of New York can be gathered from the police reports. On a single day recently twenty-six women were arraigned before one justice for being either drunk or disorderly, or both. Of the number tried, twenty-five were sent to prison for a month.

The Georges Valley Union Sunday School was again started up for the summer season on last Sunday. The following officers were elected: President—Jacob Hamner; Superintendent—Samuel Harter; Assistant—W. B. Krape; Secretary—J. David Wagner; Librarians—J. C. Finkle, Robert Heiting; Treasurer—John Coldron. This school has been in a flourishing condition for a number of years and we hope it may come up to its full measure of usefulness during the coming summer.

A bill is now before the State Legislature, and seems likely to pass, which provides that the county commissioners shall receive regular salaries. The amount of salary is proportioned according to the population of a county, and in the smallest counties the salary is not to be less than $400 per annum. The largest counties will pay about $1,500 or $2,000.

On Tuesday evening one of the show windows of J. Eisenhuth's Drug store was thrown in with a tumbler. Several of our younger men, we hear were fooling with each other, when one threw the glass after another, who walked down street, missed him, but hit a pane at Eisenhuth's. Remember don't throw missiles in the borough, it's too dangerous a business.

Fatal Shooting of a Sheriff. MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 21.—W. F. Beattie, sheriff of Crittenden county, Ark., was killed this morning near Marion, Ark., twelve miles northwest of this city, while attempting to arrest a negro burglar. Deputy Sheriff Maddox was wounded by the negro who made his escape.

A PLUCKY WOMAN. She Kills a Big Bear and Captures a Couple of Cubs. From the Wyalitville (Va.) Enterprise. Some days since a farmer's wife in Grayson county, whose name we have not obtained, was frying meat for dinner at her house, situated near a mountain range in a rather wild and sequestered place, her husband in the meantime being engaged at work some distance from the house. The savory odor of the bacon was scented by a couple of young bears that were ranging on the premises and enticed them to follow the direction from which it came. They kept the scent until it even drew them into the house where the meat was on the fry. The lady of the house secured the strange visitors, and her knowledge of bears led her to think that these young ones had strayed from their maternal parent, which would soon follow their trail and hunt them up. Her judgment was correct, for it was but a few moments before the old she bear came in sight—an enormous black bruin, of a kind which, as many of our readers know, will fight to the death for their young. The woman drew down from its rack the old true, tried and trusty mountain rifle that had perhaps served on similar missions to that to which it was about to be called many times before, and fastening the door she made a loophole of the window and waited the approach of her bearship within a sufficient distance for a shot. She waited not long and fired, the ball taking effect, but not proving fatal. The report of the rifle drew her laboring husband from his work, who, coming near the house, was chased several hundred yards by the bear, which then gave up pursuit and returned in quest of her young. The plucky backwoodsman's wife had in the meantime reloaded the rifle, and with the second shot the old she bear keeled over, underside topmost, and yielded up the ghost. The cubs, we are told, sold at Independence, the county seat of Grayson, for $26, and the skin of the bear, which was very large, brought the sum of $3 at the same place.

News Miscellany. After a thorough canvass of the winter wheat regions by its representatives the Chicago Times has come to the conclusion that the yield of the country at large will be nearly as great as for the last two years, as the acreage of wheat has very greatly increased. There is no danger of a scarcity.

The town of Jansville, Clearfield county, has a population of 200, and of that number twenty-one persons have died of typhoid fever in two months. During the winter the town was scourged with diphtheria, and the schools had to close in consequence. The fever followed, and although it was checked for a time it broke out again in Mr. Spencer's family and spread in the town at a frightful rate. Six of Mr. Spencer's children have died.—Ez.

The cost of a kiss is variable according to locality. In a Brooklyn church it isn't rated high either as an offense against good morals or in its commercial value, but in the Baltimore post office it costs $5,000 to take a kiss without the lady's consent. Miss Mary A. Murray has just recovered $5,000 from Postmaster Tyler for an attempt to kiss her when employed in his office.

Four wicked Pottsville boys caught a rat, smeared it with turpentine and set fire to it. The rodent ran up the leg of a good boy's trousers and frightened the good boy nearly out of his wits.

General Joseph Lane, formerly United States senator from Oregon, and candidate for vice president on the Breckenridge ticket in 1860, died at his home in Roseburg, Oregon, on Tuesday night, aged seventy-nine.

Thrown from His Wagon and Killed.

MILFORD, Pa., April 18.—Benjamin H. Rose, the wealthiest farmer in the Delaware Valley, was instantly killed this afternoon by being thrown from his wagon. He was going home intoxicated, when his horse became frightened and, jumping to one side of the road, precipitated the wagon down an embankment. [Mr. Rose was thrown out and his neck was broken: He leaves two children.

An old man named David Liddick, aged seventy-eight years, committed suicide at his residence in Watts township, Perry county, recently. The old man carefully loaded a short rifle, seated himself on a chair, rested the butt of the gun against the bed near by, held the muzzle against his forehead with one hand and touched the trigger with the other, thus causing instant death.

A local newspaper man is generally expected to be everywhere, see everything, and catch every item afloat, simply because it is his profession. But he can't do it. His friends can help him through by sending or bringing such items as are of interest. All manner of legitimate local news goes to make up an interesting paper, and will be received with thanks.

The Newport News of Perry county, Pa., says: "John C. Harris, who died at Shermansdale on Friday was insured for not a cent less than $300,000. Every company in the State, and some out of it, that would issue certificates on his life, were 'full on him.' Speculators in this town alone carried no less than $80,000 on his life. It isn't considered such horrid business any more to wait for dead men's shoes." We can see nothing wrong in the transaction if a person allows you to insure him (or her) if you don't go into the killing business.

There has been an organization in this State for many years denominated "Liquor League." At several elections it has exercised much political power. In 1875 it held the balance and it re-elected Gov. Hartman at that time. In other political contests its power has also been potential. It not only controls those in the organization and such as they can individually influence, but also contributes large sums of money to corrupt purposes. Ever since 1870, and perhaps for a longer period, this League has acted in concert with the Radical leaders, and has in fact been subject to their orders at all times until very recently. For some unknown or undetermined reason the League has altogether lost its power and the Republican Legislature has been suddenly smitten with the beauties of prohibition! Wherefore this wonderful occurrence? Is there any "pinching" in this liquor prohibition amendment business? Or is it only intended to provide free glory for a few elections to come?—Clinton Democrat.
