Conkling Resigns.

On Monday Senators Conkling and Platt created a profound sensation in the senate by resigning their seats in that body. What it all means is a subject of conjecture. While Conkling's resignation is that of Mr. Platt is simply contemptible. After the first spell of amazement shall have subsided the country will give a sigh of relief over the fact that the proud and insolent dictator of the senate has chosen to commit political suicide rather than wait to be crushed to, powder by the Garfield administration. Farewell Conkling-The country congratulates you on the best effort of your life.

The decision of the Supreme Court of limitation to persons charged with electi on frauds or other offenses against the purity of the ballot, will startle many old ballot-thieves of this city who have openly boasted of their election crimes after they supposed general election law.—Philadelphia is one of the most disreputable appointments ever made by a President Philadelphia and New York.

No. 8 also connects with Eric Mail east for Harrisburg, Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and New York.

SOUND DOCTRINE.

The speaking on the confirmation of Judge Robertson as Collector of the Port of New York, Senator Vorhees recently gave utterance to the following sound words He places the recent invention of "senatorial courtesy" subordinate to the public good and it is to be hoped that other Dem cratic senators will follow the good example of Mr. Voorhees:

The New York custom house is as national in its proper functions as one of the departments of the government, and the collector of customs at New York is as much a national official as a member of the cabinet. A great commercial port, collecting revenue from seven tenths, perhaps, of all the commerce of the American people cannot be regarded as a mere appendage to the local politics of a single state. The appointment of the collector of such a port cannot be claimed as a local perquisite for a senator or member of congress, like the appointment of a postmaster. The people of Ohio, Indiana and other great western states, are as much interested in the administration of the legitmate business of the New York custom house as the people of New York themselves. While I regret that the appoint ment of Judge Robertson is not acceptable to the senators from New York, yet, believing bim a capable and an honest man, and recognizing the right of the president to make the selection, I feel it my duty to vote for his con-

There is a fresh trouble ahead for our amiable President. A dark cloud is approaching to disturb his dreams. The colored brethren have just made the shocking discovery that they don't have their "rights"-that is that they must do the voting while their white brethren take all the offices. Without their votes the Republican party would be in a minority of at least one million. They argue -and very logically too-that a goodly number of the public offices belong rightfully to them. They sent a depudation to wait upon Garfield and ask him what he is going to do about. Garfield advised them to hold state conventions and by concerted action give form and shape to their wishes. They took the President at his word. In Maryland they already had their convention and decided that they must have some of the Federal offices. Another convention will soon be held in North Carolina with the same result. The administration may be horrified at the turn affairs are taking, but can not much longer dodge a question which the party so long evaded. Let them face the music and give the colored man his "rights," The cabinet will likely soon be re-constructed, and Garfield will have a fine chance to do the square thing by the darkey. He might even now withdraw the dis reputable nomination of Stanley Matthews and name some colored man for Supreme Judge. It seems that they can no longer be happy without some good fat offices and we hope that our model President will will see to it that justice is done to them.

How the Star route plunder thrived under Brady may be udderstood by the following five routes which were raised from $166,600.25 to $744,135.15 when the entire postal receipts to the government from them was $63,718.57. The first route is in Texas, the second in New Mexico, the third in Dakota and Montana, the fourth in Wyoming and the fifth in Arizona. The following table exhibits the original bids the increase made by Brady and the gross postal receipts.

The nomination of Stanley Matthews for Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States, by President Hayes was considered a blunder but little short of a crime. But Garfield, in full view of a public sentiment almost unanimous against the wily Matthews. re nominated him for the same position. The Senate judiciary committee report adversely upon the discreditable nomination and there is good ground to hope that it will not be confirmed. He cannot be unless some Democratic Senators stultify themselves by voting for him.

SENATOR MAHONE of Virginia, who weighs ninety-two pounds, is mentioned by Mary Clemmer as being chiefly nerve, bone, brains and beard, and looking like a Bluebeard lilliputian. generally considered nidiculous, Mary might have added that he is about the smallest piece of flesh that ever sat as a member of the first deliberative body of the world.

ACCORDING to Vice President Artnur the notorious "Star route" man, Dorsey, saved Indiana for Garfield by a liberal application of the monies swindled from government by fraudulent mail contracts. But now Garfield refuses to save Dorsey from the results of the investigation of the wicked Star route ousiness. Haves was much more grateful for favors in deny ing the protection of the statute that line and took better care of those who made him President. Wells and Anderson, the Louisiana Return Board perjurers, their aiders and abettors, were all provided with good, fat offices.

Last Friday the senate confirmed the them protected by the statute of 1839.
Such crimes are now held by the Supreme Court to be common law offenses, and therefore not barred by the limitation of stanley matthews as preme Court to be common law offenses, and therefore not barred by the limitation of over the matter and Matthews had limitation of over the senate confirmed the Nos. 5 and 6 connect with Day Express east for Harrisburg, Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and New York.

and the confirmation as simply a 'disgrace to the senate. Matthews is an Ohio man, of course, a political jobber and friend of big corporations. He was the attorney of Jay Gould and the Pacific Rail Roads, and did his best to cheat the government out of his just dues under the Thurman law. His instints, feelings and associations are all on the side of our monster monopolies and against the interests of the people. And this is the stuff our supreme judges are made of in these latter days.

WAS HINGTON LETTER

Waslfington, D. C., May 14, '81. It is believed the Senate will adjourn next week. The President's uncontested nominations have been confirmed, and because of democratic afaffictions and other reasons he will not enter on such a general re-ofganization of the departments as will make an extended session necessary. The nomination of Robertson will no doubt be acted on. He will be confirmed. Senator Conkling concedes this. All that republican Senators are looking for now is the easiest way in which they can undo the work of that caucus at which they agreed not to act on that or any other nomination objected to by a Senator. They will not find it easy, but they will zet out of the scrape in some way. The patronage of an administration i n its first year is enough to make republican Senators do anything. The taking up of Robertson's case by the Republican Senators would be considered if the transaction were one in business, highly dishenorable; but it will be taken up. The people will have the matter to think over for some time before their opportunity occurs for a direct trial of strength between the administration and the Senate. That the people will endorse the President's bulldozing, or the Senators surrender is not to be believed. That they will feel and exhibit disgust at both is certain.

I am very glad to-day that there appears now to be no doubt about the rejection of William E. Chandler as Solicitor General. If the President persists in leaving his name before the Senate for action. The confirmation of Matchews during the week was secured by Democratic votes, but there is no Democratic support for Chandler and there is Republican opposition. The bulk of redeemable five per cent. bonds have been "called" by Secretary Windom the holders having the option of acceptifig a new bond at three pleasure of the government.

There is no doubt but a very large proportion of the bonds will be continued, but a few, the holders of which have failed to hear of the Secretary's offer; and a few which are mislaid or so tied up by court proceedings that the offer cannot be accepted in time. The fact that the "extended" bearing three and one halt per cent. interest and issued without authority of Law command a premium, is held to be conclusive evidence that a three per cent, bond duly authorized could be sold at par. Congress will unquestionably authorize such a bond at its next session unless there shall be serious changes in the financial conditron of the country.

Mrs. Garfield, the President's wife is not out of danger, though it is believed she is better than at any time during the past week. Her physicians, who by the way are homeopathists-now say that she has typhoid fever. She will as soon as she has sufficiently recovered, return to Mentor for the
