

Local Department.

It is said that the new style spring connet is just a little too sweet for anything.

Miss Annie Buckler was elected county superintendent of Potter county on the 3rd inst.

Next Monday is Decoration Day, but it is doubtful whether it will strike Millheim this year.

S. D. Musser, collector of school taxes, hereby gives notice that all such taxes not paid by June 1st next will be promptly collected by levy and sale.

It is said that diphtheria never enters a house where coffee is roasted. The theory is that the aroma arising from roasting coffee destroys the germs of the disease.

No remedy in the world ever came into such universal use, or has so fully won the confidence of mankind, as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for the cure of Coughs, Colds and Consumption.

Clinton county has two Associate Judges, three Commissioners, a Sheriff, a Treasurer to elect next fall, and strange say there are plenty of candidates for each one of the places.

It affords a real pleasure even only to see the large and splendid stock of clothing at the Philadelphia Branch Store, Bellefonte, Pa. Now just try it for your own satisfaction.

Mr. Daniel Heiser, of Lewisburg, formerly of this place, has been appointed mail agent on the Lewisburg & Tyrone R. R., vice Mr. Beale. We do not know whether the latter resigned or was removed.

LAWN MOWERS.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Hills Archimedean Lawn Mower Co., of Hartford, Conn., in another column. They claim to have the best Lawn Mowers in the market, and their claim is not disputed.

At the last meeting of the directors of Pine Station Camp Meeting Association it was resolved to hold a camp meeting, commencing Tuesday, Aug. 23d, to continue nine days; tents can be secured by addressing Mr. J. Stamm, Pine Station, Pa., at any time.

If you want an extra fine article in the line of tooth powder—and every body should use such an article—Dr. John F. Harter is the man to supply you. We have tried it and know whereof we speak.

Mr. John Coldren of Gregg township, announces himself in to-day's Journal as a candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Coldren is one of Penns Valley's best citizens, and if successful will certainly fill the office with credit.

The most artistic and altogether the best piece of work in the shape of a monument ever put up in Penns Valley, was last week erected at the grave of Daniel Mosser, in Boalsburg. It was built at the popular Millheim Marble Works, by Deininger & Musser.

Hon. W. K. Alexander left us on Monday morning for Texas. His object as far as we could learn is to take a good look of the Lone Star state, with one eye, and keep the other open to business of some kind. Hope his talents and business capacity may find a fruitful field out there.

The EXCELSIOR DYE WORKS at Lewisburg turns out first class work. Shawls, dresses and men's garments will be colored and pressed in best style. Mr. Jacob Wolf is agent for Centre county. Goods left at the Journal office will be attended to. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Nearly all last week we had continued rains, but they were mostly of a gentle kind. Their effect on vegetation is wonderful, and old earth seems never to have been dressed in a garb of such exquisite beauty as now. It appears as though Providence intended to shower down his blessings in rich profusion upon his disobedient, naughty children.

Mr. John Rishel, of Potter township, brightened our sanctum the other day with the smiles of his pleasant, benevolent face. Mr. R. is known to many of our citizens as a man of positive qualities, standing and integrity—and good looking as need be. He announces himself as a candidate for Associate Judge, for which office he certainly possesses good qualifications.

Millheim, generally lively, is unusually so this week. Several legal dignitaries from Bellefonte—commonly called lawyers—(now we are not absolutely sure that the word is spelled exactly right) are here, taking the evidence in the contested election case of Reifsnnyder vs. Musser, or whatever the legal name of the "case" is, for we are not enough of a liar to know. The names of our Bellefonte friends are C. M. Bower, D. E. Fortney and H. A. McKee. They are rather a good looking set of fellows, freshly shaven and in clean linen as they are, but we'd orfully hate to get into the legal clutches of any one of them. Our readers may have seen these chaps before.

Dr. John F. Harter, Dentist, has removed his office to the second floor of Tomlinson's grocery, where he will be happy to receive his personal and professional friends.

Prof. Wolf has a very large school. Many from a distance are in attendance.

Prof. E. F. Smith has organized a glee club, which is making rapid progress in the beautiful art.

The Star Literary Society will give a public entertainment on Thursday evening, the 26th inst. It will no doubt be good. All should attend.

The Grand Central Hotel will be commenced in a few days—just what our thriving town wants, a first class hotel.

The new firm of Phillips & Krape have their new planer in their shops and will also get a larger engine. Then for good and cheap work.

A big time is expected here on Decoration Day.

The prospects for a good hay and grain crop are very promising.

An exchange puts the liquor question on the following rigid but logical grounds:

On the temperance question a stern alternative is before the American people. Either the nation must destroy the rum traffic or the rum traffic will destroy the nation. It is a death grapple. One or the other of the contestants is destined to perish.

A SURE TEST.—The man that helps his wife throughout the entire siege of housecleaning, with all the extras that hang around and about that complex job in these modern days—and keeps a sweet, even temper—is the model man of the times—greater than statesman or general; in fact he is a philosopher and christian at the same time, and deserves a good snug place in heaven above. But he who enjoys the comforts of home the whole year round, always ready to devour well prepared dinners and wear clean linen, and when housecleaning time comes gives his better half the cold shoulder—leaves her to wrestle and tug with carpets, stoves, furniture, brooms, soap, brushes, water, etc., why that man is as nearly a heathen as he can or dare be in a christian country. What do the ladies think of the test?

A GENTLEMAN.—If you cannot find a gentleman to marry, girls, do not marry at all. By that term I don't mean a man who is above the need of work; he may be anything but a gentleman; but a man who knows how to work, who has self-respect enough to keep him from low habits both of speech and action; who is courteous and honorable; who is not afraid of soiling his hands; the farmer, the blacksmith, the carpenter, any man may be a gentleman under dust, soot and chips, but if he is not, girls, don't marry him at all! There is enough trouble in life without increasing it in any way. Do not subject yourself to the mortification that would be sure to come with a husband who would continually cause you to blush for his lawless actions, for his coarseness and roughness, for his slippery dealings or for his hypocritical polish. It is not sufficient that a man looks and dresses well; he must act and live well besides.

Make your homes beautiful. You are talking to, who read this paper. You have "no money to spend," you say. We did not tell you to spend any. Your home can be made beautiful by a little labor. A few trees set out here and there to give their cooling shadows when the fierce sunlight falls. A few flowers yonder to brighten with their contrasting colors the green grass you should have here. A little whitewash on that fence and barn. All these cost nothing, or next to nothing, and they vastly add to the appearance of your place as well as to its comfort. Make your homes beautiful.

COMING TO SETTLE IN AMERICA.

A Contract Made to Bring 80,000 Scandinavians Across the Atlantic. A few days ago a cable dispatch was received in New York city stating that the owners of a steamship line in Hull, England, had contracted with parties in Norway and Sweden to bring about 80,000 emigrants from those countries to the United States.

Jumped Herself to Death. A SPECIAL DISPATCH, May 23.—A mill daughter to the Republican from Racine says: Annie Myrtle, a girl thirteen years of age, died yesterday from the effects of "jumping the rope." She jumped 102 times, which so injured her brain and other internal organs that she was a terrible sufferer until released by death. Another girl, Mary Faber, is very sick from the same cause.

At the recent session of the Hunt-don court, David Put was convicted of disturbing a religious meeting and was ordered to pay a fine of fifty dollars and the cost of prosecution and to spend thirty days in the county jail.

An Iowa paper claims that the supply of marriageable girls there is not equal to the demand, as there are two men to one woman in that State. The paper sends the following mail to the other States: "Send along your sisters, and your cousins, and your aunts. Remember we want none of your scrawny, wasp-waisted, equit-eyed, cosm-tic-washed, freckle-faced, but healthy, handsome, wide-awake, go-ahead girls, who have been permitted to grow up as the Lord made them."

A true bill: "So that's the grand jury, is it?" asked the man from the suburbs, after eagerly scanning the forms and features of the twenty-four individuals in the box—one man with unkempt sandy locks, another with an aroma of sentimental seediness brooding over him, a third with a look of benign vacuity irradiating his countenance and the others indicating different stages of wretchedness and misery. "Well, sir, if you've got any common, every-day juryman around about here, I guess I don't care to look at them."—Boston Transcript.

FIGHTING FOR A HUSBAND.

Wife Number One Taking Her Revenge Upon Wife Number Two. LEBANON, May 20.—The Farmer's Hotel at this place was last night the scene of a lively scrimmage between two women, both of whom claimed to be the wife of a certain individual from Lancaster, who arrived here from that city two weeks ago and stopped at the above hotel. The lady who accompanied the man in question was his junior by about thirty years. He is about fifty. His story was that his wife died several years since and the young lady had been an inmate of the house and a personal friend of his deceased wife. He married her on account of her winning ways. They seemed to enjoy their honeymoon and matters passed along smoothly until last evening, when wife number one arrived on the scene, accompanied by a sister of the truant husband, for such he proved to be, having deserted his first wife in Lancaster, after taking about $500 of her money. The man and wife number two had just arrived at the hotel after having taken a carriage ride. Their reception was of a lively nature. The woman who had been deserted sprang on the young woman with the fury of a tigress, scratching and pounding her in a terrible manner until she was compelled to beat a retreat from the place. The man had made arrangements to go into the livery business here and for this purpose had purchased a lot of horses from prominent citizens. The arrival of wife number one and the effect of putting a quietus on the arrangement.
